Monolingualism Of The Other Or The Prosthesis Of Origin:

Monolingualism of the Other Jacques Derrida, 1998 I have but one language yet that language is not mine This book intertwines theoretical reflection with historical and cultural particularity to enunciate then analyze this conundrum in terms of the distinguished author's own relationship to the French language Its argument touches on several issues relevant to the current debates on multiculturalism

El monolingüismo del otro o la prótesis de origen Jacques Derrida, 1998 I have but one language yet that language is not mine This book intertwines theoretical reflection with historical and cultural particularity to enunciate then analyze this conundrum in terms of the distinguished author's own relationship to the French language Its argument touches on several issues relevant to the current debates on multiculturalism

Utopia of Understanding Donatella Ester Di Cesare, 2012-06-28 Speaking and understanding can both be thought of as forms of translation and in this way every speaker is an exile in language even in one's mother tongue Drawing from the philosophical hermeneutics of Martin Heidegger and Hans Georg Gadamer the testimonies of the German Jews and their relation with the German language Jacques Derrida's confrontation with Hannah Arendt and the poetry of Paul Celan Donatella Ester Di Cesare proclaims Auschwitz the Babel of the twentieth century She argues that the globalized world is one in which there no longer remains any intimate place or stable dwelling Understanding becomes a kind of shibboleth that grounds nothing but opens messianically to a utopia yet to come

Samuel Beckett and the Prosthetic Body Y. Tajiri, 2006-11-22 This book studies the representation of the body in Beckett's work focusing on the prosthetic aspect of the organs and senses While making use of the theoretical potential of the concept of prosthesis it aims to resituate Beckett in the broad cultural context of modernism in which the impact of new media and technologies was registered

Ethics of Alterity Jörg Sternagel, 2023-04-04 Providing a solid media philosophical groundwork the book contributes to the theory of alterity in Performance Philosophy while stimulating and inspiring future inquiries where studies in media art and literature intersect with philosophy It collects a selective as well as productive diversity of philosophical literary and artistic figures of thought attaining an exacting framework as a result of a clearly elaborated ethics of alterity innovatively opened up by way of an aesthetics of existence Touching upon the Aristotelian concept of aisthesis the material perceptual and sensory dimensions of everyday bodily existence are highlighted to move beyond what aesthetics in Modern Philosophy just specializes in namely art and the beautiful The notion of existence is therefore borrowed from Maurice Merleau Ponty who understands it as something concrete and richly interrelated so as to avoid the dualisms both of psychological processes of consciousness and of physiological mechanisms It is thus made explicit such that the unity of body and soul is not any arbitrarily arranged connection between subject and object but rather that it is enacted at every instant in the movement of existence Imaginatively then the book puts into writing how alterity not only can be treated theoretically but can be also made accessible through writing as well as rendered relatable through reading That is why it deals with exemplary interpersonal encounters in the lifeworld in the arts and in the media which are initially thematized as intercorporeal experiences so as to enable an approach for an ethics of alterity by way of in particular sites located within a phenomenology of perception oriented towards the lived body

Jacques Derrida on the Aporias of Hospitality Gerasimos Kakoliris, 2024-05-26 The book systematically presents Derrida's views on hospitality as reflected in his texts and lectures from 1995 until his death in October 2004. Derrida's engagement with hospitality is perhaps the most important and extensive philosophical attempt to respond critically to the growing hostility of many governments worldwide towards specific categories of foreigners such as refugees and immigrants. Particular emphasis is placed on the aporetic nature of hospitality that Derrida describes namely that on the one hand the provision of hospitality brings us face to face with the hyper ethical law of unconditional hospitality which requires the unconditional reception of the other i.e. the provision of hospitality to the foreigner without conditions restrictions or expecting anything in return. On the other hand the provision of hospitality forces us to face the conditional laws of hospitality which while establishing a right to and a duty of hospitality simultaneously restrict hospitality by setting conditions for the arrival and stay of the foreigner. The book also analyses the decision and the event of hospitality as well as the unresolved aporia at the heart of the ethics of hospitality or of ethics in general an aporia or contradiction related to the fact that we cannot be hospitable towards a singularity without sacrificing some other singularities. Attention is paid to Derrida's attempt to open the provision of hospitality beyond humans that is to other living beings. Derrida's views on hospitality are examined in the book in the light of the philosophical thought of Emmanuel Levinas Immanuel Kant and Ren Sch rer

Derrida and Africa Grant Farred, 2019-10-17 Derrida and Africa takes up Jacques Derrida as a figure of thought in relation to Africa with a focus on Derrida's writings specifically on Africa which were influenced in part by his childhood in El Biar. From chapters that take up Derrida as Mother to contemplations on how to situate Derrida in relation to other African philosophers from essays that connect deconstruction and diaspora to a chapter that engages the ways in which Derrida especially in a text such as Monolingualism of the Other or the Prosthesis of Origin is haunted by place to a chapter that locates Derrida firmly in postapartheid South Africa Derrida in and Africa is the insistent line of inquiry. Edited by Grant Farred this collection asks What is Derrida to Africa What is Africa to Derrida and What is this specter called Africa that haunts Derrida

Theorising Muriel Spark M. McQuillan, 2015-12-17 Theorizing Muriel Spark is the first serious attempt to engage the writing of Muriel Spark in a sustained theoretical reading. It has a particular emphasis on gender psychoanalysis postcolonial and deconstructive reading strategies. Drawing together a range of significant names in the field of contemporary literature and critical theory including Judith Roof Susan Sellers Bryan Cheyette Patricia Duncker Nicholas Royle Willy Maley Julian Wolfreys and Helene Cixous this collection of essays deals with the full range of Spark's literary output. It concludes with a new interview with Muriel Spark

Post-Monolingual Anglophone Novels Birgit Neumann, 2025-09-19 Engaging with recent research in literary multilingualism studies the global anglophone and comparative studies this book theorizes the so called post monolingual anglophone novels Inspired by Yasemin Yildiz s Beyond the Mother Tongue The Postmonolingual Condition 2012 post monolingual anglophone novels are understood as literary texts that activate multi and translingual strategies to mount a challenge to the monolingual norm and the homogenizing aspirations of English Post monolingual anglophone novels employ literary configurations of multi and translingualism without ignoring the ongoing validity of the monolingual norm in the international book market and the power differentials inherent in English This corpus of texts is therefore highly self conscious about the use of language As post monolingual novels stage exchange and movement between languages they also model in the realm of fiction new concepts of language In several case studies of contemporary anglophone post monolingual novels from different parts of the world the book demonstrates how the post monolingual in literature operates within different cultural and political contexts The readings of Arundhati Roy s The Ministry of Utmost Happiness Yvonne A Owuor s The Dragonfly Sea Marlon James A Brief History of Seven Killings J M Coetzee s The Childhood of Jesus and Ocean Vuong s On Earth We re Briefly Gorgeous propose theoretically and methodologically innovative ways of engaging with literary multi and translingualism While the analyses focus on the post monolingual poetics they also direct attention to the novels modes of production and circulation in the anglosphere

The Distance of Irish Modernism John Greaney, 2022-06-16 The Distance of Irish Modernism interrogates the paradox through which Irish modernist fictions have become containers for national and transnational histories while such texts are often oblique and perverse in terms of their times and geographies John Greaney explores this paradox to launch a metacritical study of the modes of inquiry used to define Irish modernism in the 21st century Focused on works by Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bowen John McGahern Flann O Brien and Kate O Brien this book analyses how and if the complex representational strategies of modernist fictions provide a window on historical events and realities Greaney deploys close reading formal analysis narratology and philosophical accounts of literature alongside historicist and materialist approaches as well as postcolonial and world literature paradigms to examine how modernist texts engage the cultural memories they supposedly transmit Emphasizing the proximities and the distances between modernist aesthetic practice and the history of modernity in Ireland and beyond this book enables a new model for narrating Irish modernism

Why Shakespeare? Catherine Belsey, 2007-04-20 Why is Shakespeare as highly regarded now as he ever has been This book s answer to this question counters claims that Shakespeare s iconic status is no more than an accident of history The plays Belsey argues entice us into a world we recognize by retelling traditional fairy tales with a difference each chapter providing a detailed reading

Levinas, Adorno, and the Ethics of the Material Other Eric S. Nelson, 2020-12-01 This book sets up a dialogue between Emmanuel Levinas and Theodor W Adorno using their thought to address contemporary environmental and social political situations Eric S Nelson explores the non identity thinking of Adorno and the ethics of the Other of Levinas with regard to three areas of concern the ethical position of nature and inhuman material others such as environments and animals the bonds and tensions between ethics and religion and the formation of the self through the dynamic of violence and liberation expressed in religious discourses and the problematic uses and limitations of liberal and republican discourses of equality liberty tolerance and their presupposition of the private individual self and autonomous subject Thinking with and beyond Levinas and Adorno this work examines the possibility of an anarchic hospitality and solidarity between material others and sensuous embodied life The Passage of Literature Christopher GoGwilt,2011-01-27 Through a set of comparative studies of the fiction of Joseph Conrad Jean Rhys and Pramoedya Ananta Toer The Passage of Literature explains the interrelation between English Creole and Indonesian formations of literary modernism arguing that each passage of literature is the site of contest between competing genealogies of culture The Prosthetic Tongue Katie

Chenoweth,2019-10-04 Of all the cultural revolutions brought about by the development of printing technology during the sixteenth century perhaps the most remarkable but least understood is the purported rise of European vernacular languages It is generally accepted that the invention of printing constitutes an event in the history of language that has profoundly shaped modernity and yet the exact nature of this transformation the mechanics of the event has remained curiously unexamined In The Prosthetic Tongue Katie Chenoweth explores the relationship between printing and the vernacular as it took shape in sixteenth century France and charts the technological reinvention of French across a range of domains from typography orthography and grammar to politics pedagogy and poetics Under Fran ois I the king known in his own time as the Father of Letters both printing and vernacular language emerged as major cultural and political forces Beginning in 1529 French underwent a remarkable transformation as printers and writers began to reimagine their mother tongue as mechanically reproducible The first accent marks appeared in French texts the first French grammar books and dictionaries were published phonetic spelling reforms were debated modern Roman typefaces replaced gothic scripts and French was codified as a legal idiom This was Chenoweth argues a veritable new media moment in which the print medium served as the underlying material apparatus and conceptual framework for a revolutionary reinvention of the vernacular Rather than tell the story of the origin of the modern French language however she seeks to destabilize this very notion of origin by situating the cultural formation of French in a scene of media technology and reproducibility No less than the paper book issuing from sixteenth century printing presses the modern French language is a product of the age of mechanical reproduction

French Civilization and Its Discontents Tyler Edward Stovall,Georges Van den Abbeele,2003-01-01 French Civilization and Its Discontents Nationalism Colonialism Race explores the ways in which considerations of difference especially colonialism post colonialism and race have shaped French culture and French studies in the modern era Rejecting traditional assimilationist notions of French national identity contributors to this groundbreaking volume demonstrate how literature history and other aspects of what is considered French civilization have been shaped by processes of creolization and differentiation After Derrida Jean-Michel Rabaté,2018-05-31 This collection of essays explores the main concepts and methods of reading launched by French philosopher Jacques Derrida who died in 2004 Derrida exerted a huge influence on literary critics in the 1980s but later there was a backlash against his theories Today one witnesses a general return to his way of reading literature the rationale of which is detailed and explained in the essays The authors both well known and younger specialists give many precise examples of how Derrida who always remained at the cusp between literature and philosophy posed fundamental questions and thus changed the field of literary criticism especially with regard to poetry The contributors also highlight the way Derrida made spectacular interventions in feminism psychoanalytic studies animal studies digital humanities and post colonial studies

Unlocking the World Claudia W. Ruitenberg, 2015-12-03 Unlocking the World proposes hospitality as a guiding ethic for education Based on the work of Jacques Derrida it suggests that giving place to children and newcomers is at the heart of education The primary responsibility of the host is not to assimilate newcomers into tradition but rather to create or leave a place where they may arrive Hospitality as a guiding ethic for education is discussed in its many facets including the decentered conception of subjectivity on which it relies the way it casts the relation between teacher and student and its conception of curriculum as an inheritance that asks for a critical reception The book examines the relation between an ethic of hospitality and the educational contexts in which it would guide practice Since these contexts are marked by gender culture and language it asks how such differences affect enactments of hospitality Since hospitality typically involves a power difference between host and guest the book addresses how an ethic of hospitality accounts for power whether it is appropriate for educational contexts marked by colonialism and how it might guide education aimed at social justice

An Event, Perhaps Peter Salmon, 2021-10-19 Philosopher film star father of post truth the real story of Jacques Derrida Who is Jacques Derrida For some he is the originator of a relativist philosophy responsible for the contemporary crisis of truth For the far right he is one of the architects of Cultural Marxism To his academic critics he reduced French philosophy to little more than an object of ridicule For his fans he is an intellectual rock star who ranged across literature politics and linguistics In An Event Perhaps Peter Salmon presents this misunderstood and misappropriated figure as a deeply humane and urgent thinker for our times Born in Algiers the young Jackie was always an outsider Despite his best efforts he found it difficult to establish himself among the Paris intellectual milieu of the 1960s However in 1967 he changed the whole course of philosophy outlining the central concepts of deconstruction Immediately his reputation as a complex and confounding thinker was established Feted by some abhorred by others Derrida had an exhaustive breadth of interests but as Salmon shows was moved by a profound desire to understand how we engage with each other It is a theme explored through Derrida's intimate relationships with writers such as Althusser Genet Lacan Foucault Cixous and Kristeva Accessible provocative and beautifully written An Event Perhaps will introduce a new readership to the life and work of a philosopher whose influence over the way we think will continue long into the twenty first century

Bilingual Aesthetics Doris Sommer, 2004-04-07 An analysis of the changing status of bi and multi lingualness in relation to issues of citizenship ethnicity and diversity Beyond the Mother Tongue Yasemin Yildiz, 2013-12-01 Beyond the Mother Tongue examines distinct forms of multilingualism such as writing in one socially unsanctioned mother tongue about another language Franz Kafka mobilizing words of foreign derivation as part of a multilingual constellation within one language Theodor W Adorno producing an oeuvre in two separate languages simultaneously Yoko Tawada and mixing different languages codes and registers within one text Feridun Zaimoglu
