Context North America Camille R. La Bossière, 1994 Context North America is a comparative study of Canadian and American literary relations that emphasizes the cultural and institutional contexts in which Canadian literature is taught and read This volume exemplifies the question of how the literatures of Canada might aptly be studied and contextualized in the days of heightened discontinuity and increasingly ambiguous borderlines both between and within the many narratives that make up North America Published in English The Columbia History of the American Novel Emory Elliott, 1991 Designed as a companion to The Columbia Literary History of the United States this compilation of 31 major essays covers the American novel from the 1700s to the present although the majority deal with the 20th century Within each era themes genres and topics such as realism gender romance and technology are discussed in depth as well as modern Canadian Caribbean and Latin American fiction Each essayist selects only the authors who best illustrate the topic thus subtly skewing the view of the literary scene at that time The volume also covers women minorities popular fiction and the book marketplace ISBN 0 231 07360 7 59 95 The Complete Works of Rafael Sabatini Rafael Sabatini, 2023-11-16 In The Complete Works of Rafael Sabatini readers are treated to a comprehensive collection of the author's novels short stories and historical narratives which seamlessly blend adventure romance and intricate character development Known for his vivid prose and meticulous historical detail Sabatini's writing captures the essence of the early 20th century swashbuckler while exploring themes of honor betrayal and redemption His works often set against the backdrop of tumultuous historical events showcase a unique narrative style that combines finesse with thrilling pacing providing insight into the moral dilemmas faced by his protagonists Rafael Sabatini 1875 1950 an Italian born British writer was profoundly influenced by his multicultural upbringing in Italy and England His early fascination with historical adventure tales and a rich heritage steeped in storytelling propelled him to become a master of the genre Sabatini's extensive travels and deep interest in history further informed his vivid landscapes and complex characters establishing him as a significant voice in early 20th century literature This collection is indispensable for lovers of historical fiction and adventure literature alike It invites readers to immerse themselves in a world of dashing heroes epic battles and romantic pursuits Those unfamiliar with Sabatini's genius will find themselves captivated while seasoned fans will relish the opportunity to revisit his masterpieces in a unified format biofiction's core foundations through contemporary debates. The volume is organized into seven sections: Histories of biofiction; Theoretical reflections on biofiction; Biofiction: national models and transnational constructions; Biofiction as political intervention; Biofictional case studies; Activating lives: early modern women and Authorial reflections. This groundbreaking collection features works that refine our understanding of the genesis and evolution of biofiction, theorize its unique and distinctive modes of signifying, reflect on its value for the future and social justice, chart new approaches for doing biofictional analysis, and offer insights from authors of biofiction into the creative process. This is the first collection to bring together the two main schools of interpreting biofiction: the Francophone and Anglophone, while also shedding light on biofictions in many languages from or about many continents and offering a platform to established and new voices alike. It will be essential reading for students as well as advanced scholars interested in biographical fiction.
