Paths to Contemporary French Literature John Taylor, 2012-09-25 Praised for his independence curiosity intimate knowledge of French literature and sharp reader's eye John Taylor is a writer critic who is naturally skeptical of literary fashions overnight reputations and readymade academic categories Here he examines various genres of politically committed literature such as Jean Hatzfeld's narratives about Rwanda or Tchicaya U Tam si's verse some overlooked fiction and several provocative experiments with literary form ranging from the poetry of Jean Paul Michel and Marie tienne to the three line novels of Flix F n on Taylor continues to reveal the remarkable resourcefulness of French writing Besides drawing attention to authors like Dai Sijie or Albert Cossery who have come to French from other languages he has added younger novelists to his critical panorama Challenging persistent clichés and recovering deserving voices from unjust neglect Taylor's vision of French literature conjures up the image of a vital nexus Poetry crisscrosses with prose writers from one generation meet up with those from the next or the previous one while the philosophical ideas underlying French writing are scrutinized This is an essential guide to the realities of French culture today

Monsieur Songe Robert Pinget, 1988 Barbara Wright Debra Kelly, Madeleine Renouard, 2013-08-01 Legendary publisher and writer John Calder said of Barbara Wright that she was the most brilliant conscientious and original translator of 20th century French literature Wright introduced to an English speaking readership and audience some of the most innovative French literature of the last hundred years a world without Alfred Jarry's Ubu Raymond Queneau's Zazie and Robert Pinget's Monsieur Songe scarcely bears thinking about This wonderful collection of texts about and by Barbara Wright including work by David Bellos Breon Mitchell and Nick Wadley as well as a previously unpublished screenplay written and translated by Wright in collaboration with Robert Pinget begins the work of properly commemorating a figure toward whom all of English letters owes an unpayable debt

As Time Goes By Joy Charnley, Caroline Verdier, 2014-07-24 Academic work in a range of disciplines has been making an important contribution to the fraught and confusing debate around ageing and through writers' consciousness and experience literature just like economics psychology history and sociology can provide valuable insights into the attitudes and prejudices prevalent in society The present volume adds to this burgeoning field by providing a wide spectrum of literary analyses drawing on a range of approaches Freud Lacan Kristeva and feminist theory amongst others and covering a broad geographical area France Germany Italy Portugal Spain and Switzerland in addition to Francophone Canada and Morocco Major writers such as Balzac Cervantes Goethe Mann and Zola are discussed here as well as a number of important twentieth century writers Ben Jelloun Cixous Doubrovsky Ernaux Roy and Ungaretti and less well known figures Carvalho Chatelet and Fleutiaux Within the broad themes which structure the volume many others also emerge overlapping and often recurring in several sections These constant echoes between essays remind us that whatever the geographical location or the period in history similar issues remain pertinent across time and space whether it be family relations generational solidarity sadness and loneliness memory and dementia class differences gender differences or sexuality Together these essays contribute to the existing body of critical work by providing a series of portraits of what age is has been and might be in the future Collectively they demonstrate once more the power of literature to reflect or even prefigure social trends encouraging us to consider carefully what we think how we live and how we might shape our future societies

The Oxford Guide to Contemporary World Literature John Sturrock,1997 opinion the Guide offers a discriminating and sometimes controversial view of a broad range of contemporary literatures Be Brave Robert Pinget,1994 Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower,2022-05-15 With the possible exception of Great Britain France can justifiably lay claim to possess the richest literary history of any country in Western Europe This book covers the authors and their works literary movements and philosophical and social developments that have had a direct impact on style or content and major historical events such as the two world wars the Franco Prussian War the Algerian War or the events of May 1968 that are directly reflected in a substantial body of imaginative writing Historical Dictionary of French Literature Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on individual writers and key texts significant movements groups associations and periodicals and on the literary reactions to major national and international events such as revolutions and wars This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about French literature Théo, Or, The New Era Robert Pinget,1994 Review of Contemporary Fiction ,1990

Rosmarin,1995 In this first comprehensive study of Pinget published in English Leonard A Rosmarin argues that each of Pinget s novels plays and even narratives represents successive stages in an inner voyage of exploration As Pinget probes deeper and deeper into his imaginary universe its confines Rosmarin asserts seem to expand opening up innumerable perspectives bringing forth all kinds of disquieting paradoxes Rosmarin shows how Pinget s fascination with the subconscious explains at least in part his attraction to the

Nouveau Roman Lucid control is a means to an end Rosmarin maintains with the end being the in depth exploration of the unfathomable riches hidden within the subconscious Because the subconscious contains an infinite variety of possibilities to explore Pinget has always found it necessary to devise a special tone for each novel he embarked on Ultimately Rosmarin observes that Pinget like his enigmatic protagonists has embarked on an endless search for a magical formula the essential truth or truths of his being that will make him whole again BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Monsieur Motte Grace Elizabeth King,1888 World Literature Today ,1990
