Monstrous Regiment Of Women Female Rulers In Early Modern Europe:

The monstrous regiment of women Sharon L. Jansen, 2002 The Monstrous Regiment of Women S. Jansen, 2002-10-17
In The Monstrous Regiment of Women Sharon Jansen explores the case for and against female rule by examining the arguments made by theorists from Sir John Fortescue 1461 through Bishop Bossuet 1680 interweaving their arguments with references to the most well known early modern queens The story of early modern European political history looks very different if instead of focusing on kings and their sons we see successive generations of powerful women and the shifting political alliances of the period from a very different and revealing perspective The Rule of Women in Early Modern Europe Anne J. Cruz, Mihoko Suzuki, 2009 A transnational comparison of women rulers and women's sovereignty throughout Europe The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe Amanda L. Capern, 2019-10-30 The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe is a comprehensive and ground breaking survey of the lives of women in early modern Europe between 1450 and 1750 Covering a period of dramatic political and cultural change the book challenges the current contours and chronologies of European history by observing them through the lens of female experience The collaborative research of this book covers four themes the affective world practical knowledge for life politics and religion arts science and humanities These themes are interwoven through the chapters which encompass all areas of women's lives sexuality emotions health and wellbeing educational attainment litigation and the practical and leisured application of knowledge skills and artistry from medicine to theology The intellectual lives of women through reading and writing and their spirituality and engagement with the material world are also explored So too is the sheer energy of female work including farming and manufacture skilled craft and artwork theatrical work and scientific enquiry The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe revises the chronological and ideological parameters of early modern European history by opening the reader's eyes to an exciting age of female productivity social engagement and political activism across European and transatlantic boundaries It is essential reading for students and researchers of early modern history the history of women and gender studies The Rise of Female Kings in Europe, 1300-1800 William Monter, 2012-01-24 In this lively and pathbreaking book William Monter sketches Europe's increasing acceptance of autonomous female rulers between the late Middle Ages and the French Revolution Monter surveys the governmental records of Europe's thirty women monarchs the famous Mary Stuart Elizabeth I Catherine the Great as well as the obscure Charlotte of Cyprus Isabel Clara Eugenia of the Netherlands describing how each of them achieved sovereign authority wielded it and more often than men abandoned it Monter argues that Europe's female kings who ruled by divine right experienced no significant political opposition despite their gender The Politics of Female Households: Ladies-in-waiting across Early Modern Europe, 2013-10-24 The Politics of Female Households is the first collection that seeks to integrate ladies in waiting into the master narrative of early modern court studies Presenting evidence and analysis of the multifarious ways in which women above stairs shaped the European courts of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries it argues for a re assessment of their political influence The cultural agency of ladies in waiting is viewed in the reflection of portraiture pamphlets and masques their political dealings and patronage are revealed through analysis of letters family networks career patterns gift exchange and household structures as well as their activities in the fields of intelligence gathering and espionage By concentrating on a previously neglected area of female agency this collection demonstrates clearly that the political climate of Europe was often shaped outside the male dominated institutions of government and administration Contributors include Helen Graham Matheson Hannah Leah Crumm Katrin Keller Vanessa de Cruz Birgit Houben Dries Raeymaekers Janet Ravenscroft Una McIlvenna Rosalind K Marshall Oliver Mallick Cynthia Fry Nadine Akkerman Sara J Wolfson Fabian Persson and Jeroen Duindam The Last Plantagenet
