M. Evans,2004 For much of its 130 year history the Bar U Ranch can claim to have been one of the most famous ranches in Canada Its reputation is firmly based on the historical role that the ranch has played its size and longevity and its association with some of the remarkable people who have helped develop the cattle business and build the Canadian West The long history of the ranch allows the evolution of the cattle business to be traced and can be seen in three distinct historical periods based on the eras of the individuals who owned and managed the ranch These colourful figures beginning with Fred Stimson then George Lane and finally Pat Burns have left an indelible mark on the Bar U as well as Canadian ranching history The Bar U and Canadian Ranching History is a fascinating story that integrates the history of ranching in Alberta with larger issues of ranch historiography in the American and Canadian West and contributes greatly to the overall understanding of ranching history

Montana's Benton Road Leland J. Hanchett, Jr.,2008-07-01 The Benton Road ran from Fort Benton to Helena Montana It was the life line for settlers miners and the military during Montana s pioneering days Freight and pioneers would board steamships at St Joseph Missouri and travel the Missouri River to Fort Benton From there it was up to this road and its feeder roads to provide the people and goods necessary for settling and mining the vast wealth contained in that portion of the Rocky Mountains Freight wagons and caravans of people would travel the road Eventually stagecoach travel was added to the traffic along the way Montana Outdoors ,1981
