Farr, 1984-01-01 Montana Pat Williams, 2003 Experience the glory and magnificence of the Big Sky state through the dramatic color photography of MONTANA Noted photographer and longtime Montana resident Salvatore Vasapolli turns his lens on one of the most picturesque states in the country Travel from spectacular Glacier National Park through the majesty of the Rocky Mountains to the grandeur of Custer National Forest and the sheer beauty of Yellowstone National Park Exquisite photos reveal the state's breathtaking natural beauty in smooth surfaced lakes glistening glaciers towering mountains and twisting rivers An essay by former United States Congressman Pat Williams evokes the magnificence of Montana with its open landscapes untamed wilderness and friendly people Explorations Into the World of Lewis and Clark V-3 of 3 Robert A. Saindon, 2003 Volume 3 of 3 This 3 volume anthology of 194 articles with 102 maps and illustrations published between 1974 and 1999 in We Proceeded On The quarterly journal of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation Contributors include Stephen Ambrose John Logan Allen and Paul Russell Cutright among other professional and amateur Lewis and Clark scholars Vol 1 ISBN 1582187622 Vol 2 ISBN 1582187649 Vol 3 1582187665 Selling Your Father's Bones Brian Schofield, 2009-02-03 Part historical narrative part travelogue and part environmental plea Selling Your Father's Bones recounts one of the most astonishing journeys in the history of the American West The year 1877 bore witness to a broken promise Joseph chief of the peaceable Nez Perce band who made their home in Oregon's Wallowa Valley had long sworn to uphold the dying words of his father This country holds your father's body Never sell the bones of your mother and your father Yet as the U S government confined the tribe to ever smaller reservations in favor of miners and ranchers in their westward sprawl the fateful decision of several young Nez Perce warriors to attack the settlers set in motion an exodus from Joseph's ancestral home For the next eleven weeks seven hundred Nez Perce men women and children traveled 1 700 miles across inhospitable wilderness engaging the chasing army in six battles and many more skirmishes as they drove on in search of peace and freedom Just forty miles from the Canadian border the tribe survived a calamitous five day siege until Joseph could no longer bear his people's suffering and surrendered It is said that when he died in 1904 the cause was a broken heart Populated with the heroes and villains of a classic conflict Selling Your Father's Bones intercuts the Nez Perce's fight for survival with the author's own travels across this very same terrain the mountains forests badlands and prairies of modern day Oregon Idaho Wyoming and Montana The imposing Bitterroot Mountains the Lolo Pass then and now among the toughest mountain crossings on the North American continent and the great Montana buffalo plains retain their majesty Yet as Schofield reveals ecological vandalism unthinking corporate policies and dubious political leadership have wrought scarred landscapes battered communities and toxic environments whose realities must be borne by the living descendants of both the Nez Perce warriors and the European settlers As Schofield walks among the people who now occupy these sacred lands he sees in the values of the Native American West love for homeland for ancestry and for Mother Nature a route to their and our salvation
