New Contree ,2005 Historical Memory in Africa Mamadou Diawara,Bernard Lategan,Jörn Rüsen,2010-06-01 A vast amount of literature both scholarly and popular now exists on the subject of historical memory but there is remarkably little available that is written from an African perspective This volume explores the inner dynamics of memory in all its variations from its most destructive and divisive impact to its remarkable potential to heal and reconcile It addresses issues on both the conceptual and the pragmatic level and its theoretical observations and reflections are informed by first hand experiences and comparative reflections from a German Indian and Korean perspective A new insight is the importance of the future dimension of memory and hence the need to develop the ability to remember with the future in mind Historical memory in an African context provides a rich kaleidoscope of the diverse experiences and perspectives and yet there are recurring themes and similar conclusions connecting it to a global dialogue to which it has much to contribute but from which it also has much to receive
