Pathway to Purpose for women

A woman with dark hair, seen from behind, is walking away from the viewer on a narrow, light-colored path that winds through a lush green field. She is wearing a bright yellow, short-sleeved dress that is flowing in the breeze. The background is a soft-focus green landscape under a bright sky.

the world around you Change starts now and it starts with you Is irrigation fit for purpose? A review of the relationships between scheme size and performance of irrigation systems McCarthy, Nancy, Ringler, Claudia, Agbonlahor, Mure Uhunamure, Pandya, A. B., Iyob, Biniam, Perez, Nicostrato, 2023-04-18 Irrigation is increasingly being called upon to help stabilize and grow food and water security in the face of multiple crises these crises include climate change but also recent global food and energy price crises including the 2007 08 food and energy price crises and the more recent crises triggered by the COVID 19 pandemic and the war on Ukraine While irrigation development used to focus on public large scale surface and reservoir fed systems over the last several decades private small scale investments in groundwater irrigation have grown in importance and are expected to see rapid future growth particularly in connection with solar powered pumping systems But is irrigation fit for purpose to support population growth economic development and multiple food energy and climate crises This paper reviews how fit for purpose irrigation is with a focus on economies of scale of surface and groundwater systems and a particular examination of systems in Sub Saharan Africa where the need for expansion is largest The review finds challenges for both larger surface and smaller groundwater systems in the face of growing demand for irrigated agriculture and dwindling and less reliable water supplies To support resilience of the sector we propose both a holistic design and management improvement agenda for larger surface systems and a series of suggestions to improve sustainability concerns of groundwater systems
