Patrick And The Cat Who Saw Beyond Time Nigelle de Visme, 2019-05-27 Fiction yet non fiction this is a charming parable tells of a small Boy and a Silver Moon Cat who comes to guide the Boy's soul during his illness It is a preparation for the ultimate Journey Written from the author's experience of loss Patrick and the Cat Who Saw Beyond Time is a gentle and profound way of explaining death This is a magical story It is about a Boy and a Cat in the Australian Bush But it is a magical Cat who comes from beyond Time and teaches the Boy to discover the hidden mystery of his own soul and the soul of the land on which he lives We all live in two worlds There is the world of everyday life and there is the world of dreams and fantasy and poetry and also of religion It is this world of imagery which can lead to the Ultimate Truth Dom Bede Griffiths 1906 1993

The Secret History of the West Nicholas Hagger, 2005 Western civilization as we know it today is not the end result of steady progress but of series of revolutions The radical departure from orthodox history that Nicholas Hagger takes is to show how all these the Protestant Revolution which in turn provided the ideological foundations of the English American French and Russian have their roots in ideas and influences that have hitherto been unexpressed secret Dark Secrets: No Time to Die & The Deep End of Fear Elizabeth Chandler, 2010-08-05 No Time to Die When Jenny plans to spend the summer undercover at the theatre camp where her sister was murdered she had no idea the drama would be quite so deadly Still grieving and trying to cope with the loss of her sister Liza Jenny feels completely out of place on stage unlike the rest of her theatrical family But she is determined to understand why her sister was murdered and more importantly find out who killed her So when Jenny thinks she hears Liza speaking to her and suspects that someone might be following her she is sure the truth will unfold but the drama that follows is even more twisted than she thought The Deep End of Fear After her childhood best friend Ashley tragically drowns in an icy pond Kate thought she was done with daring adventures for good But now she has to return to her childhood home and it all comes flooding back And the scary thing is the neighbour that she's tutoring claims he can see Ashley and that she's been daring him to go on potentially fatal adventures Can Kate face up to her childhood fears to stop history from repeating itself In Times Gone By (Golden Gate Secrets Book #3) Tracie

Castration Desire Robinson Murphy, 2023-12-14 Theorizes an alternative form of masculinity in global literature that is less egocentric and more sustainable both in terms of gendered and environmental power dynamics Contemporary novelists and filmmakers like Kazuo Ishiguro Japanese British Emma Donoghue Irish Canadian Michael Ondaatje Sri Lankan Canadian Bong Joon-ho South Korean and J. M. Coetzee South African Australian are emblematic of a transnational phenomenon that Robinson Murphy calls castration desire That is these artists present privileged characters who nonetheless pursue their own diminishment In promulgating through their characters a less egocentric mode of thinking and acting these artists offer a blueprint for engendering a more other oriented global relationality Murphy proposes that in addition to being an ethical prerogative castration desire's less is more model of relationality would make life livable where veritable suicide is our species' otherwise potential fate Castration desire thus offers an antidote to rapacious extractivism with the ambition of instilling a sustainable model for thinking and acting on an imminently eco-apocalyptic earth In providing a fresh optic through which to read a diversity of text types Castration Desire helps define where literary criticism is now and where it is headed Castration Desire additionally extends and develops a zeitgeist currently unfolding in critical theory It brings Leo Bersani's concept psychic utopia together with Judith Butler's radical egalitarianism but transports their shared critique of phallic individualization into the environmental humanities In doing so this book builds a new framework for how gender studies intersects with environmental studies

Delirious Kelly Baum, Lucy Bradnock, Tina Rivers Ryan, 2017-09-12 Can postwar art be understood as an exercise in calculated insanity Taking this provocative question as its basis this book explores the art and history of delirium from 1950 to 1980 an era shaped by the brutality of World War II and the rapid expansion of industrial capitalism Skepticism of science and technology along with fear of its capability to promote mass destruction developed into a distrust of rationalism which profoundly influenced the art of the times Delirious features work by more than sixty artists from Europe Latin America and the United States including Dara Birnbaum Le n Ferrari Gego Bruce Nauman Howardena Pindell Peter Saul and Nancy Spero Experimenting with irrational subject matter and techniques these artists forged new strategies that directly responded to such unbalanced times Disturbing and challenging the works in this book in multiple media and often counterintuitively incorporating highly ordered and systematic structures upend traditional notions of aesthetic harmony

This may be hard to believe but it is very likely that more people live in closer proximity to more wild animals birds and trees in the eastern United States today than anywhere on the planet at any time in history For nature lovers this should be wonderful news unless perhaps you are one of more than 4 000 drivers who will hit a deer today your child s soccer field is carpeted with goose droppings coyotes are killing your pets the neighbor s cat has turned your bird feeder into a fast food outlet wild turkeys have eaten your newly planted seed corn beavers have flooded your driveway or bears are looting your garbage cans For 400 years explorers traders and settlers plundered North American wildlife and forests in an escalating rampage that culminated in the late 19th century s era of extermination By 1900 populations of many wild animals and birds had been reduced to isolated remnants or threatened with extinction and worry mounted that we were running out of trees Then in the 20th century an incredible turnaround took place Conservationists outlawed commercial hunting created wildlife sanctuaries transplanted isolated species to restored habitats and imposed regulations on hunters and trappers Over decades they slowly nursed many wild populations back to health But after the Second World War something happened that conservationists hadn t foreseen sprawl People moved first into suburbs on urban edges and then kept moving out across a landscape once occupied by family farms By 2000 a majority of Americans lived in neither cities nor country but in that vast in between Much of sprawl has plenty of trees and its human residents offer up more and better amenities than many wild creatures can find in the wild plenty of food water hiding places and protection from predators with guns The result is a mix of people and wildlife that should be an animal lover s dream come true but often turns into a sprawl dweller s nightmare Nature Wars offers an eye opening look at how Americans lost touch with the natural landscape spending 90 percent of their time indoors where nature arrives via television films and digital screens in which wild creatures often behave like people or cuddly pets All the while our well meaning efforts to protect animals allowed wild populations to burgeon out of control causing damage costing billions degrading ecosystems and touching off disputes that polarized communities setting neighbor against neighbor Deeply researched eloquently written counterintuitive and often humorous Nature Wars will be the definitive book on how we created this unintended mess Braking for Bodies Duffy Brown,2016-04-05 Evie Bloomfield puts the pedal to the metal in the latest Cycle Path mystery from the national bestselling author of Geared for the Grave Moving from Los Angeles to small picturesque Mackinac Island to work in a bike shop might seem crazy but Evie knows it s the best decision she s ever made That s not to say she s gotten rid of all her stress after all the upcoming Lilac Festival has everyone in town riding in circles But things really go downhill when a ferry full of tourists including Evie s friend Fiona s former boss the editor of a sleazy rag in LA arrives on the island No one knows why Peephole Perry came all the way to

Unfinished Kelly Baum, Andrea Bayer, Sheena Wagstaff, 2016-03-01

This groundbreaking book explores the evolving concept of unfinishedness as essential to understanding art movements from the Renaissance to the present day. Unfinished features more than 200 works created in a variety of media by artists ranging from Leonardo, Titian, Rembrandt, Turner, and Cézanne to Picasso, Warhol, Twombly, Freud, Richter, and Nauman. What unites these works across centuries and media is that each one displays some aspect of being unfinished. Essays and case studies by major contemporary scholars address this key concept from the perspective of both the creator and the viewer, probing the impact that this long artistic trajectory, which can be traced back to the first century, has had on modern and contemporary art. The book investigates the degrees to which instances of incompleteness were accidental or intentional, experimental or conceptual. Also included are illuminating interviews with contemporary artists including Tuymans, Celmins, and Marden, and parallel considerations of the unfinished in literature and film. The result is a multidisciplinary approach and thought-provoking analysis that provides valuable insight into the making, meaning, and critical reception of the unfinished in art.
