Materials for the Study of Social Symbolism in Ancient & Tribal Art: Genealogical patterns. bk. 1-2. Form. bk. 3. Meaning. bk. 4. Details Edmund Carpenter, 1986 Spirit and Art Van James, 2002 Stumbling through life gazing at the stars we can miss the greatest treasure beneath our feet For the ordinary faculties of our soul how we think how we feel how we act are the rough and fallen forms of our highest spiritual capacities This book shows how six of these common abilities thinking feeling doing loving opening thanking can be intensified infinitely We already think we can learn to think more deeply more livingly We already feel we can learn to train our feeling life away from ourselves so that we feel the world in its richness We already thank we can learn a depth of gratitude that makes life and love intensely real These exercises are simple but demanding By strengthening our capacity to pay attention they allow us to say the right word and have the fresh thought just when we need to They gradually lead us out of the mire of distraction and confusion and allow us to practice what we need most continual presence of mind

The Visual Language of Wabanaki Art Jeanne Morningstar Kent, 2014-07-29 For centuries the people of the Wabanaki Nations of the northeastern United States and eastern Canada used signs symbols and designs to communicate with one another As Native Peoples became victims of European expansion the Wabanaki were separated by war the search for work and intermarriage as well as by hiding their identities to avoid persecution In this diaspora their visual language helped them keep their teachings and culture alive Their designs have evolved over time and taken on different meanings and they are now used on objects that are considered art While their beauty is undeniable these pieces cannot be fully appreciated without understanding their context Tribal member Jeanne Morningstar Kent sheds light on this language from the work of ancient Wabanaki to today s artists like David Moses Bridges Donna Sanipass and Jennifer Neptune once again using their medium to connect with their fellow Wabanaki

The Explorations of Edmund Snow Carpenter Richard Cavell,2024-10-15 Edmund Snow Carpenter 1922 2011 shaped by an early encounter with Marshall McLuhan was a renegade anthropologist who would plumb the connection between anthropology and media studies over a thoroughly unconventional career As co conspirators in the founding of the legendary journal Explorations 1953 59 Carpenter and McLuhan established the groundwork for media studies After ten years teaching anthropology at the University of Toronto hosting radio and television shows on the CBC and doing major research in the Arctic Carpenter left Toronto and became an itinerant anthropologist He took up a position in Papua New Guinea where he countered anthropological practice by handing his camera to the Papuans Carpenter s marriage to the artist and heiress Adelaide de Menil made him a truly independent scholar With the support of the Rock Foundation founded by de Menil he collected ethnographical art curated exhibitions and edited the materials for a twelve volume study of social symbolism based on the massive archives created by Carl Schuster Richard Cavell shows Carpenter austere generous and unpredictable to also be unwavering in working throughout his career within the framework established by Explorations The anthropological impetus for media studies has largely been forgotten This study restores that memory tracing Carpenter s work in media and in anthropology over a lifetime of cultural achievements and intellectual convolutions

Exploring the Legacy of the 1948 Arnhem Land Expedition Martin Thomas,Margo Neale,2011-06-01 In 1948 a collection of scientists anthropologists and photographers journeyed to northern Australia for a seven month tour of research and discovery now regarded as the last of the big expeditions The American Australian Scientific Expedition to Arnhem Land was front page news at the time but 60 years later it is virtually unknown This lapse into obscurity was due partly to the fraught politics of Australian anthropology and animus towards its leader the Adelaide based writer photographer Charles Mountford Promoted as a friendly mission that would foster good relations between Australia and its most powerful wartime ally the Expedition was sponsored by National Geographic the Smithsonian Institution and the Australian Government An unlikely cocktail of science diplomacy and popular geography the Arnhem Land Expedition put the Aboriginal cultures of the vast Arnhem Land reserve on an international stage Publisher s website

Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness,2003-01-01 This lavishly produced volume is the first reference work to focus on the symbols meaning and significance of art in native or indigenous cultures      Lines That Connect Graeme Were, 2010-08-31 Building on historical and contemporary literature in anthropology and art theory Lines That Connect treats pattern as a material form of thought that provokes connections between disparate things through processes of resemblance memory and transformation Pattern is constantly in a state of motion as it traverses spatial and temporal divides and acts as an endless source for innovation through its inherent transformability Graeme Were argues that it is the ideas carried by pattern's relational capacity that allows Pacific islanders to express their links to land genealogy and resources in the most economic ways In doing so his book is a timely and unique contribution to the analysis of pattern and decorative art in the Pacific amid growing debates in anthropology and art history This striking and original study brings together objects and photographs historical literature and contemporary ethnographic case studies to explore pattern in its logical workings It presents the first ever analysis of the well known patterned shell valuable called kapkap as revealed in New Ireland mortuary feasts Innovative research in the study of Christianity and the Baha'i faithful in the region shows how pattern has been appropriated in new religious communities Were argues that pattern is used in various guises in performances church architecture and funerary images to contrasting effect He explores the conditions under which pattern facilitates a connecting of old and new ideas and how missionary processes are implicated in this flow He then considers the mechanisms under which pattern is internalized paying particular attention to its embeddedness in spatial and numerical thinking Finally he examines how pattern carries new materials and technologies which in turn provide new resources for sustaining old beliefs Drawing on a multitude of fields anthropology art history Pacific museum and religious studies education ethnomathematics Lines That Connect raises key questions about the capacity of pattern across the Pacific to bind and sustain ideas about place body and genealogy in the most logical of ways

Genealogical Patterns Carl Schuster, Edmund Carpenter, 2015-09 1 Vol 1 Book 1 Genealogical Patterns Form Meaning The first book of this three volume twelve book series Genealogical Patterns Form Meaning introduces the work of anthropologist Carl Schuster and his comparative method as edited and written by Edmund Carpenter This first book looks into the arts of women primarily weaving as passed down from mother to daughter from the Paleolithic period to modern times and examines the embedded iconographies of pattern making through Schuster's comparative method The book outlines the premise of seeing decorative patterns in their multiple forms as descriptions of tribal genealogy Includes a preface general introduction and biographies of Schuster by Carpenter and by art historian Schuyler Camman      Focal ity and Extension in Kinship Warren Shapiro, 2018-04-20 When we think of kinship we usually think of ties between people based upon blood or marriage But we also have other ways nowadays called performative of establishing kinship or hinting at kinship many Christians have in addition to parents godparents members of a trade union may refer to each other as brother or sister Similar performative ties are even more common among the so called tribal peoples that anthropologists have studied and especially in recent years they have received considerable attention from scholars in this field However these scholars tend to argue that performative kinship in the Tribal World is semantically on a par with kinship established through procreation and marriage Harold Scheffler long time Professor of Anthropology at Yale University has argued by contrast that procreative ties are everywhere semantically central i e focal that they provide bases from which other kinship ties are extended Most of the essays in this volume illustrate the validity of Scheffler s position though two contest it and one exemplifies the soundness of a similarly universalistic stance in gender behaviour This book will be of interest to everyone concerned with current controversy in kinship and gender studies as well as those who would know what anthropologists have to say about human nature The study of kinship once ruled the discipline of anthropology and Hal Scheffler was one of its magisterial figures This volumes reminds us why Scheffler s powerful analyses of kinship systems often conflicted with the views of his more relativist contemporaries He cut through the fog of theory to emphasise the human essentials namely the importance of the social bonds rooted in motherhood and fatherhood Anthropology in its decades long retreat from the serious study of kinship has lost a great deal This volume points the way to a restoration Peter Wood National Association of Scholars

The Ancestress Hypothesis Kathryn Coe,2003 In our society it has long been believed that art serves very little social purpose Evolutionary anthropologists however are examining a potential role for art in human evolution Kathryn Coe looks to the visual arts of traditional societies for clues Because they are passed down from previous generations traditional art forms such as body decoration funeral ornaments and ancestral paintings offer ways to promote social relationships among kin and codescendants of a common ancestor Mothers used art forms to anchor themselves and their kin to the father and his kin and to promote the survival and reproductive success of kin and descendants Individuals who abided by this strategy accompanied by its strict codes of cooperation left more descendants than did individuals who did not Over time given this reproductive success large numbers of individuals would be identified as codescendants of a common ancestor and would cooperate as if they were close kin These cooperative codescendants were more likely to survive and leave descendants With each new generation these clans propagated not only their genes but also their behavioral strategy the replication or presence of art The book concludes by examining the changing characteristics of visual art including a higher value on creativity competition and cost when traditional constraints on social behavior disappear The
