Writing, 1990-1999 Bronwyn Davies, 2000-02-09 Weaving together her most influential writings of the 1990s Bronwyn Davies offers a unique engagement with poststructuralism that defies the boundaries between theory and embodied practice Whereas poststructuralists are often accused of excessive abstraction Davies sophisticated and nuanced discussions of subjectivity agency epistemology feminism and power are embedded in vital depictions of lived experience and empirical research A renowned scholar of education and gender formation Davies shows the importance of poststructural perspectives for her own research in classrooms on playgrounds with literary texts and her own life history Lucid prose accessible for students and refreshing for researchers and theorists alike makes postructural concepts usable as conceptual frameworks for interpreting and analyzing the social world

Language, Sexualities and Desires Sakis Kyratzis, 2006-12-14 Sexualities are perceived constructed and represented in different ways in various languages and cultures This volume addresses how people use various linguistic features to construct their sexual identities and relationships and how membership of specific social groups based on sexual and lifestyle choices may be signalled through language

The Nature of Desire Federico Lauria, Julien A. Deonna, 2017-06-01 Desires matter What are desires Many believe that desire is a motivational state desiring is being disposed to act This conception aligns with the functionalist approach to desire and the standard account of desire's role in explaining action According to a second influential approach however desire is first and foremost an evaluation desiring is representing something as good After all we seem to desire things under the guise of the good Which understanding of desire is more accurate Is the guise of the good even right to assume Should we adopt an alternative picture that emphasizes desire's deontic nature What do neuroscientific studies suggest Essays in the first section of the volume are devoted to these questions and to the puzzle of desire's essence In the second part of the volume essays investigate some implications that the various conceptions of desire have on a number of fundamental issues For example why are inconsistent desires problematic What is desire's role in practical deliberation How do we know what we want This volume will contribute to the emergence of a fruitful debate on a neglected albeit crucial dimension of the mind

The Logic of Love Andrew J. B. Cameron, 2022-12-29 Overviewing what makes the intersection between emotion and ethics so confusing this book surveys an older wisdom in how to manage it using a range of Christian theologians and sources More important even than managing we begin to see a vision for a better set of affections to grow within and among us In this vision emerges a practical and nuanced account of what the Christian tradition sometime summarises as love How may we recover a deep affection for what matters both within ourselves and together in groups This book also dialogues with a new movement in moral psychology social intuitionism Cameron argues that researchers in this discipline have interests and conclusions that sometimes overlap with Christian sources even where their respective lenses differ In this way the book overviews recent trends in moral psychology against a recent historical and contemporary cultural backdrop whilst assaying major sources in Christian theology that offer guidance on moral psychology

Godey's Magazine , 1884 Debates and

Issues in Feminist Research and Pedagogy Janet Holland, Maud Blair, Sue Sheldon, 1995 The articles in this book engage with practical issues relating to teaching and research The way in which gender and education is theorized is currently in a period of profound change and this presents a major challenge to feminist teachers who want to translate explanations for gender relations into transformative action in the classroom Several of the authors in this collection consider the possibilities and practicalities of transformative feminist pedagogies identifying the pedagogic moments into which challenge and change can be introduced without distorting or denying the students experience Another section contains articles which present the results of classroom research dealing with issues of class gender race and sexuality We can see from the results of these recent studies that class race and gender continue to position students differently throughout the whole school and the entire curriculum Research on teacher education reported here indicates that gender differences are produced and reproduced in that context A final section of the book deals with the ongoing and lively debate on feminist methodology and epistemology indicating the variety of approaches and positions that are being taken up in this area

Emancipatory Practices: Adult/Youth Engagement for Social and Environmental Justice ,2010-01-01 Adults and youth who are engaged in social and ecological justice in community and educational work will find this book a critical overview of the role played by adults in the joint endeavours of adults and youth Through various case studies the book offers a glimpse into the work being undertaken by a wide range of international educators and community development workers where common themes emerge across the different sites The book explores the development of and the internal and external constraints upon adult and youth emancipatory practices as well as the effective adult and youth beliefs and actions that facilitate collaborative leadership in issues of social and ecological justice The authors offer a critical examination of the degree to which youth are able to participate in decision making processes or to the extent to which they were given space and power to truly explore democratic and dialogic partnerships With an emphasis on the power dynamics inherent in adult youth relationships and the potential of these relationships to engage in democratic transformation the book examines the patterns benefits and limitations of the youth adult connections

The Arts Public in the South ,1984 Combining and integrating the results of two separate research projects concerned with leisure time participation this report compared southern and non southern involvement in arts related activities Findings indicated that while some regional differences do exist they are not great The desire to increase arts related activities is not as strong as the desire to increase less focused leisure activities but there appears to be a strong unmet demand for increased opportunities to participate in arts related programs including both visual and performing arts While southerners cite cost and accessibility as barriers to participation non southerners mention lack of time Achieved educational levels and prior exposure to the arts are significantly related to arts participation rates Singing in a chorus is the activity in which southerners are most clearly differentiated from the non southern population in terms of greater participation and demand Lack of talent was cited by southerners as a reason for non participation in contrast to non southerners response of lack of training Leisure pursuits of most southerners are not related to the type of work they do While the best predictor of current levels of participation is prior participation this factor was not confirmed with respect to the desire to increase participation in the future Seven tables and 24 figures are included JHP

Narcissism and the Literary Libido Marshall W. Alcorn Jr.,1997-07-01 What is it that makes language powerful This book uses the psychoanalytic concepts of narcissism and libidinal investment to explain how rhetoric compels us and how it can effect change The works of Joseph Conrad James Baldwin Michael Foucault Jacques Derrida Arthur Miller D H Lawrence Ben Jonson George Orwell and others are the basis of this thoughtful exploration of the relationship between language and subject Bringing together ideas from Freudian post Freudian Lacanian and post structuralist schools Alcorn investigates the power of the text that underlies the reader response approach to literature in a strikingly new way He shows how the production of literary texts begins and ends with narcissistic self love and also shows how the reader s interest in these texts is directed by libidinal investment Psychoanalysts psychologists and lovers of literature will enjoy Alcorn s diverse and far reaching insights into classic and contemporary writers and thinkers Individualizing Tissue-paper Patterns ,1926

The Subtlety of Emotions Aaron Ben-Ze'Ev, 2001-08-24 An informal yet rigorous exploration of human emotions in all their complexity and subtlety Why do we cry at the movies What is the best way to manage destructive feelings such as jealousy Although emotions pervade our lives their nature causes and effects have only recently been studied by social scientists and philosophers Despite growing scientific interest in the subject empirical findings have not yet caught up with our intuitive knowledge In this book Aaron Ben Ze ev carries out what he calls a careful search for general patterns in the primeval jungle of emotions In an engaging informal style he draws on a variety of theoretical approaches and popular sources to produce a coherent account of emotions in all their subtlety All of the ideas are illustrated with examples drawn from everyday life The book is organized into two parts The first presents an overall conceptual framework for understanding emotions It looks at the typical characteristics and components of emotions distinguishes emotions from other affective phenomena classifies the emotions and covers such related issues as emotional intelligence regulating emotions and emotions and morality The second part discusses individual emotions including envy jealousy pleasure in others misfortune pity compassion anger hate disgust love sexual desire happiness sadness pride regret and shame The text is laced with insightful and often amusing quotations from sources ranging from Mae West to Montesquieu

Translating Psychological Research Into Practice Lisa R. Grossman, Steven Walfish, PhD, 2013-11-15 Print CourseSmart

The Normative and the Evaluative Richard Rowland, 2019-02-07 Many have been attracted to the idea that for something to be good there just have to be reasons to favour it This view has come to be known as the buck passing account of value According to this account for pleasure to be good there need to be reasons for us to desire and pursue it Likewise for liberty and equality to be values there have to be reasons for us to promote and preserve them Extensive discussion has focussed on some of the problems that the buck passing account faces such as the wrong kind of reason problem Less attention however has been paid as to why we should accept the buck passing account or what the theoretical pay offs and other implications of accepting it are The Normative and the Evaluative provides the first comprehensive motivation and defence of the buck passing account of value Richard Rowland argues that the buck passing account explains several important features of the relationship between reasons and value as well as the relationship between the different varieties of value in a way that its competitors do not He shows that alternatives to the buck passing account are inconsistent with important views in normative ethics uninformative and at odds with the way in which we should see practical and epistemic normativity as related In addition he extends the buck passing account to provide an account of moral properties as well as all other normative and deontic properties and concepts such as fittingness and ought in terms of reasons      Catalog Sears, Roebuck and Company,1922      THE SPIRIT OF SPINOZA Neal

Grossman,2014-05-02 BENEDICT SPINOZA was a 17th century philosopher and spiritual psychotherapist This intellectual self help book provides important insights from Spinoza s system of thought in a format accessible to the general reader as well as to those already familiar with his philosophy By applying his method to our personal lives we may free ourselves from bondage to our lower emotions and habitual behaviors and thus begin to enjoy the continuous supreme and unending happiness promised by Spinoza Those of us who came of age in the twentieth century were taught that we must adopt a crazy making strategy of compartmentalizing our lives putting our rational scientific side into one corner and our psychological spiritual side in another The precarious state of our world is evidence enough that this approach to life is a destructive dead end You are holding an effective alternative in your hand The Spirit of Spinoza is a brilliant treatise that has been field tested by Professor Neal Grossman in his own life and that of his students over decades This book is a master stroke by a master teacher about a master philosopher It is also delightfully dangerous for it has the power to shift one s life onto a new axis where it becomes possible to blend knowledge and wisdom into an experience that can best be described quite simply as waking up Larry Dossey MD author of One Mind How Our Individual Mind Is Part of a Greater Consciousness and Why It Matters
