Patterns Of Exposition 8:

Patterns of Exposition 8 Randall E. Decker, 1982-01-01 Instructor's Manual to Accompany Patterns of Exposition 8 Randall E. Decker, 1982 The Pattern and the Image David Vopřada, Markéta Dudziková, Viacheslav V. Lytvynenko, 2025-06-02 One of Plato's best known ideas is that the sensible world is an image of the intelligible pattern. The book examines the second life of this concept in late antiquity especially in the Hellenistic Jewish and Christian milieu. It opens with the discussion of the key features of the pattern-image concept in Plato and Plotinus and then focuses on the adoption of this concept in the works of Philo of Alexandria and the early Christian authors Clement of Alexandria, Origen, Eusebius, Athanasius, Gregory Nazianzus, Didymus the Blind, Ambrose of Milan, and Pseudo-Athanasius. The collected papers illuminate various aspects of the topic including the importance of the visible world and art in Platonism, allegorical and Christological interpretations of the biblical account of creation and relation of the intelligible pattern in the Logos to the world. The authors analyze the Jewish and Christian reinterpretations of the pattern-image structure by looking into the ontological dignity of the image, its similarity and dissimilarity to the pattern, and the mutual chronology of the pattern and the image. Combining theological, philosophical, and philological approaches, the book offers a complex view of the pattern-image relationship in various contexts.

Modelling Text As Process Xueyan Yang, 2011-10-27 A discourse analysis that is not based on grammar is likely to end up as a running commentary on a text, whereas a grammar-based one tends to treat text as a finished product rather than an on-going process. This book offers an approach to discourse analysis that is both grammar-based and oriented towards text as process. It proposes a model called TEXT TYPE within the framework of Hallidayan systemic functional linguistics, which views grammatical choices in a text not as elements that combine to form a clause structure but as semantic features that link successive clauses into an unfolding phase. It then demonstrates the model in actual analyses of 10 texts transcribed from 10 class hours audio recorded in an EFL classroom, which in turn leads to the establishment of a dynamic system network that can be applied to future analyses of the process of EFL classroom discourse. The book also uncovers interesting details about EFL classroom teaching and learning in

Primitive Methodist World and Sunday School Worker ,1897 Patterns of Repetition, Structure, and Meaning in the Book of Hebrews Michael C. Clark, 2024-04-01 While many have recognized unusual patterns of repetition within the book of Hebrews which seem to play a range of important functions within the text the consistency of this patterning has not been fully appreciated and its function has been largely unexamined This study investigates the location and function of what we have termed link clusters within Hebrews from the perspective of discourse analysis to gain fresh insight into the language structure and genre of Hebrews into the book's relationship to the Old Testament and into the book's authorship and meaning This work proposes first that Hebrews uses repetition to establish formal connections between words and phrases marked as significant by their location and context with respect to other similarly connected words and phrases second that link clusters serve to structure the book of Hebrews by uniting the text into a series of overlapping concentric and coherent units and third that link clusters also serve an important topical function clarifying and amplifying intended meaning as pairs of matching topic sentences that respectively introduce and conclude each section and subsection of the discourse by summarizing its content The Word is Near You Per Jarle Bekken, 2007 The study deals with a difficult and much debated text in Paul's Letter to the Romans 9 30 10 21 The study in particular analyses Paul's use and interpretation of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 in Romans 10 4 17 Scholars have characterized Paul's exegesis here as idiosyncratic fanciful baffling and arbitrary By a comparison with Jewish writings near Paul in time such as the writings of Philo of Alexandria and Baruch the thesis is argued that Paul's treatment of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 can be located within Jewish exegetical method expository structure terminology as well as content and context In comparison with Baruch and Philo it has been shown that Paul's handling of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 can be placed within a Jewish context as to the way the biblical quotations are rendered The thesis is substantiated that Paul's expository rendering of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 follows the method of exegetical paraphrase of a biblical quotation So in comparison with Baruch and Philo Paul's interpretative rendering of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 falls within a form of exposition in which words phrases and sentences from the Old Testament quotation are either repeated or replaced by interpretative terms and supplemented with other qualifying terms Thus Paul's christological exposition of Deut 30 12 14 can be located within the method of exegetical paraphrase with a parallel in Baruch's application of this OT Scripture to the personified Wisdom The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1982
