Political Modernization in the Gulf Shahid Jamal Ansari, 1998 The entire Gulf is passing through a transitional phase The member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC are witnessing change in varying degrees The change has become too evident from the 1960s It was oil more than any other factor which was responsible for a rapid transition Control over oil production and marketing have led to the strengthening of governmental role as owner and distributor of oil income The regions tribal society is being transformed into a modern society Political modernization is a recent phenomenon if the nature and extent of structural and informal transformations are taken into account Three broadly defined phases of political change can be discerned in the Arabian Peninsula the traditional the neo traditional and the modernizing or post traditional The modernizing phase was initiated by radical policies of socio economic development including the necessary restructuring of replacement of regimes and a redefinition or expansion of the scope and role of the state However the pace and direction of change is not clear enough The coming few decades are crucial in this regard

Sociological Knowledge and Collective Identity Stavit Sinai, 2019-03-28 Sociology emerging in the 19th century as the study of national societies is the intellectual product of its time power relations and social imaginaries As a discursive practice that was enmeshed in the meta narratives of modernity the discipline of sociology bears the inherent capacity to shape socially shared concepts and construct collective identities This book examines the relationships between sociology and projects of national identity construction and presents a critique of Shmuel N Eisenstadt the prominent Israeli sociologist known as the father of Israeli sociology The book focuses on Eisenstadt s sociology of Israel as a case of knowledge construction within an ideological system and examines the relationships between his various sociological analyses of Israeli society and the Zionist imaginary namely the deeply entrenched political myths and historiographical narratives that constitute Israel s hegemonic national identity By emphasizing the interrelation between textuality identity and loaded language the volume seeks to demythologize Eisenstadt s sociology of Israel Three major concepts in Eisenstadt s scholarship are specifically thematized integration civilization and modernities In each of these foci the author shows how Eisenstadt s sociological conjectures reproduce dominant Zionist historiographical representations of the past rationalize prevalent social hierarchies reify the boundaries of a national collective Self and render legitimacy to Israel's governing ethnocentric tendencies underlying the premises of the Zionist settler colonial project Sociological Knowledge and Collective Identity will appeal to those interested in the interconnectedness of sociology and political memory as well as in a radical postcolonial reconstruction of sociology

Modernities Elisabeth Bekers,Sissy Helff,Daniela Merolla,2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds
