Escape Into the Future John Stroup, Glenn W. Shuck, 2007 Escape into the Future analyzes the power of pessimism showing links between present day religious pessimism and the nihilism of popular culture Stroup and Shuck rummage through an interesting and eclectic body of pop culture from Fight Club to X Files to the Left Behind series pointing out the presence of pessimistic themes throughout This volume identifies and illuminates the religious language used in these works to articulate America s need to escape from its present cultural path and ultimately provide hope that it might do so

Deleuze and Environmental Damage Mark Halsey, 2017-05-15 This book offers a post structuralist critique of the problems associated with modernist accounts of environmental harm and regulation Through a notably detailed micro political analysis of forest conflict the author explores the limits of academic commentary on environmental issues and suggests that the traditional variables of political economy race and gender need to be recast in light of four key modalities through which the environment and environmental damage are re produced Focusing on vision speed lexicon and affect the book engages a new ethic for categorizing and regulating nature and challenges criminologists sociologists cultural theorists and others to reconsider what it is possible to say and do about environmental problems

Affect, Architecture, and Practice Akari Nakai Kidd, 2021-05-17 Affect Architecture and Practice builds on and contributes to work in theories of affect that have risen within diverse disciplines including geography cultural studies and media studies challenging the nature of textual and representational based research Although numerous studies have examined how affect emerges in architectural spaces little attention has been paid to the creative process of architectural design and the role that affect plays in the many contingencies and uncertainties that arise in the process The book traces the critical philosophic and architectural theories to examine how affect architecture and practice are interlinked Through a series of conversations and reflections it examines three key contemporary architects their practices and projects all within a single coherent theme Reiser Umemoto RUR Architecture DPC USA Kerstin Thompson Architects Australia and Shigeru Ban Architects Japan are critically studied through the lens of different aspects of practice namely image making the design process and the making of an everyday object material Through this investigation author Akari Nakai Kidd demonstrates how affect theory allows a critical interrogation of the in between of practice its liminality and limits It questions the stability of objects the smooth temporality of practice and its often under conceptualised non human dimensions More significantly the book demonstrates architectural practice s contribution to the reconceptualisation of theories of affect

Grace and Gravity Lars Spuybroek, 2020-11-26 How do we live well The first sentence of Grace and Gravity raises the fundamental question that constantly occupies our minds and of all those who lived before us Paradoxically the impossibility of answering this question opens up the very room needed to find ways of living well It is the gap where all disciplines fall short where architecture does not fit its inhabitants where economy is not based on shortage where religion cannot be explained by its followers and where technology works far beyond its own principles According to Lars Spuybroek the prize winning former architect this marks the point where the paradoxical machine of grace reveals its powers a point where we cannot say if we are moving or being moved Following the trail of grace leads him to a new form of analysis that transcends the age old opposition between appearances and technology Linking up a dazzling and often delightful variety of sources monkeys paintings lamp posts octopuses tattoos bleeding fingers rose windows robots smart phones spirits saints and fossils with profound meditations on living death consciousness and existence Grace and Gravity offers an eye opening provocation to a wide range of art historians architects theologians anthropologists artists media theorists and philosophers
