Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Fashion and Modernism Louise Wallenberg, Andrea Kollnitz, 2018-11-01 Art and fashion have long gone hand in hand but it was during the modernist period that fashion first gained equal value to and took on the same aesthetic ideals as painting film photography dance and literature Combining high and low art forms modernism turned fashion designers into artists and vice versa Bringing together internationally renowned scholars across a range of disciplines this vibrant volume explores the history and significance of the relationship between modernism and fashion and examines how the intimate connection between these fields remains evident today with contemporary designers relating their work to art and artists problematizing fashion in their works With chapters on a variety of topics ranging from Russian constructionism and clothing to tango and fashion in the early 20th century Fashion and Modernism is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion dress history and art history alike Contributors Patrizia Calefato Caroline Evans Ulrich Lehmann Astrid S derbergh Widding Alessandra Vaccari Olga Vainshtein Sven Olov Wallenstein The Anxiety of Dispossession Masha Belenky, 2008 Focusing on male authored texts Belenky demonstrates that this obsession with sexual jealousy conveys both patriarchal anxiety over disempowerment stemming from social upheaval and a male desire for social and sexual control over the female body and mind Bound up with the male prerogative of ownership jealousy was assigned an explicitly public role in guarding a man's property and propriety This book considers portrayals of jealousy by major authors such as Balzac Hugo and Zola alongside a broad range of works by medical writers journalists and moralists who wrote for popular audiences The Private Collection of Edgar Degas Julie A.

Steiner, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1997 The art collection assembled by Edgar Degas was remarkable not only for its quality size and depth but also for its revelation of Degas's artistic affinities He acquired great numbers of works by the nineteenth century French masters Ingres Delacroix and Daumier he bought or bartered his own pictures for art by many of his contemporaries particularly Manet Cezanne Gauguin and Cassatt and he acquired works by a wide range of other artists from eminent to little known The extent of Degas's holdings was not recognized until after his death when the collection came up for auction in Paris in 1918 and in what was called the sale of the century was widely dispersed Extensive research has made it possible to reassemble that collection in book form This summary catalogue contains information on the more than five thousand works owned by Degas For each work catalogued the entry includes to the extent possible a description with medium and dimensions provenance information about Degas's acquisition and ownership of the work information pertaining to the sale of the work in 1918 or its disposal earlier including the purchaser purchase price and other data the current location selected references and an illustration In a concordance collection sale lot numbers are listed with their corresponding summary catalogue numbers This catalogue and its companion volume of essays are published in conjunction with the exhibition The Private Collection of Edgar Degas held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from October 1 1997 to January 11 1998 BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Paul Gavarni , Hatred and Civility Christopher Lane, 2006-04-18 To understand hatred and civility in today's world argues Christopher Lane we should start with Victorian fiction Although the word Victorian generally brings to mind images of prudish sexuality and well heeled snobbery it has above all become synonymous with self sacrifice earnest devotion and moral rectitude Yet this idealized version of Victorian England is surprisingly scarce in the period's literature and its journalism sermons poems and plays where villains hypocrites murderers and cheats of all types abound City of Noise Aimee Boutin, 2015-05-15 Beloved as the city of light Paris in the nineteenth century sparked the acclaim of poets and the odium of the bourgeois with its distinctive sounds Street vendors bellowed songs known as the Cris de Paris that had been associated with their trades since the Middle Ages musicians itinerant and otherwise played for change and flaneurs writers fascinated with the city's underside listened and recorded much about what they heard Aimee Boutin tours the sonic space that orchestrated the different often conflicting sound cultures that defined the street ambience of Paris Mining accounts that range from guidebooks to verse Boutin braids literary cultural and social history to reconstruct a lost auditory environment Throughout impressions of street noise shape writers sense of place and perception of modern social relations As Boutin shows the din of the Cris contrasted economic abundance with the disparities of the capital old and new traditions and the vibrancy of street commerce with an increasing bourgeois demand for quiet In time peddlers who provided the soundtrack for Paris's narrow streets yielded to modernity with its taciturn shopkeepers and wide open boulevards and the fading songs of the Cris became a dirge for the passing of old ways Novelty fair Jo Briggs, 2016-03-02 Engages with nineteenth century visual culture in an unusually broad way juxtaposing photography fashion broadside ballads popular prints and caricature in order to re examine Victorian society between Chartism and the Great Exhibition

Printed Matters Malcolm Gee,Tim Kirk,2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2002 Since the invention of printing in the mid fifteenth century the production distribution and consumption of printed matter have been the principal means through which new ideas and representations have been spread In recent times cultural historians have taken a growing interest in the previously somewhat isolated field of book history shifting the study of printing and publishing into the centre of historical concern This study of print and printing culture has naturally led historians to a concern with its urban context The urban environment was fundamental to the development of printing from the outset since it was in towns that the necessary combination of technical and entrepreneurial competencies were located and where a growing demand for printed texts was to be found Print permeated the urban experience at every level and formed the chief means by which its ideas values and beliefs were exported to the rest of society In this way print promoted the broader urbanisation of society by spreading urban attitudes and ideas beyond the limits of the city It is with the urban cultural environment that this volume is primarily concerned underlining the centrality of printing and publishing to the understanding of urban culture Focusing particularly on post 1800 France and Germany it considers a wide range of printed matter and engages with a number of recurrent historical issues such as the role of printing in urban economies the construction of metropolitan identities and the testing of moral boundaries
