No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film One Book to Rule Them All Joseph Chad Sycamore, I can draw a euphoric warmth into my body straight from thin air It s the same euphoria you get after a great workout often called a runner s high As you are well aware that warm pleasant feeling isn t just your body heating up from exercise it s a surge of joy and vitality that starts in your chest and spreads throughout your body lifting your spirits We actually feel different versions of this warmth in all sorts of happy moments soaking up the sunshine hugging someone we love or being blown away by an amazing piece of art In this preface I ll show how these seemingly unrelated experiences are actually different forms of the same thing all originating from a single source God Surprisingly everything that makes life breathtakingly beautiful and gives us goosebumps can be traced all the way back to before the Big Bang However this profound existential insight is not going to be the book s most crucial aspect What s really fascinating is that even while perfectly still in a dark and freezing room without any external stimuli or another person I can generate this same blissful warmth within a few breaths You ve probably heard of monks who can sit on ice for hours without feeling cold This isn t some superhuman ability it s the result of deep meditation far beyond anything a meditation app can offer That s why monks often choose solitude to immerse themselves fully in this nourishing energy letting it embrace them for days and nights However I believe this warmth isn t meant to be kept for oneself it should be shared and transformed into something even greater So in my part of the story I m excited to share this book with all of you explaining everything as clearly and simply as possible from how these experiences connect to God to how you can tap into this cosmic source of euphoria yourself You are welcome to share it with friends neighbors or even your local barista My hope is that it reaches those who need it most

End of Upsetting Games Lucien Nzeyimana,2014 Life is not always a bowl of cherries As the world we live in becomes more complex we face new challenges unforeseen and almost unimaginable only a generation ago Yet for those living in oppression little changes with time Jacob Barak was born and raised in Burundi where Evildoers treated members of his tribe as immoral beings Yet as a young boy he was full of joy and optimism As he grew and his horizons widened he saw the injustice his people were subjected to He witnessed firsthand soldiers and civilians pounding their country fellows with sledgehammers and rocks or stabbing them with butcher knives and bayonets Soldiers and cops could just kill innocent people burying many others alive Some of the killers were his schoolmates classmates neighbors or friends Others were their parents or siblings Victims were his relatives friends or just acquaintances and they were of all ages Professionals were the main targets of the Evildoers Assailants and their victims had much in common They were human beings and they were Burundians Most importantly they were created in the same image of God As innocent civilians including his own family were either killed or sent into hiding Jacob strived to make a change His life journey took him into many dangerous situations escaping certain death on several occasions He crossed the borders lakes and oceans to seek asylum in foreign countries only to see that once our basic needs are met we will always strive for more ultimately seeking peace and love After struggling in numerous refugee camps where he often slept under the open sky Jacob had finally had enough Now already an adult and a father he was determined that his children would live a different life away from hatred and injustice Still by moving to Canada a land of living blue skies as he liked to call it he did not find life a rose as he hoped Thus Nikita Chissocco his childhood friend seemed to be a dream come true She epitomized the joy he had lost a link to his homeland a friend a lover and a mother to his future children Little did he know that she would only bring misery to his life Always a free spirit she soon brought his old enemies into his life threatening his family but also his very life Jacob decided to end the upsetting games by chasing demons from his house And you how far are you prepared to go in order to fulfill your dreams
