State Persecution Paul Zylstra, 2022-02-22 They said it would never happen in America but the First Amendment was severely attacked in Nebraska from 1977 to 1984 Christian Conviction v State Persecution chronicles not only the events but why they took place This was not isolated to a single denomination or group Among the churches attacked were Amish Mennonite Apostolic Pentecostal Baptist and Church of Christ Among the homeschool families the list expands farther Faith freedom and liberty were all under attack by the Nebraska Department of Education and their allies in the courts and the state legislature Before I ever met Paul I had seen his face on the CBN film footage of him being hauled away by sheriff s deputies from an altar where he was praying with a group of men As Paul writes in this book Few cases of the loss of Christian freedom have drawn more attention than the jailing of the pastor and the padlocking of the Faith Baptist church building in Louisville Nebraska The powerful film footage and photos from this incident went viral across the American evangelical landscape and there was widespread outrage and concern This persecution backfired It would cement the courage and convictions of an entire generation of parents who had become increasingly alarmed about what was happening in public schools Sarah Leslie Publisher and Iowa Homeschool Leader Paul Zylstra and some of his compatriots were a large part of the intellectual undergirding of this endeavor that proved in large measure successful over a number of years This book is a great work in establishing the underlying issues facing honest disciples in Jesus in responding to the intrusions of the state into matters of faith Pastor Larry Lautaret Nebraska Christian School Leader Most people feel that the First Amendment has been followed everywhere in the USA since the founding of this great country In the 1980s in the state of Nebraska several people went to jail lost jobs and fled the state because there was an existing law that violated Christian liberty As Christians realized the government controlled system was going against what the Bible taught Therefore they started their own schools free from state control This book tells in detail what happened when the established government tried to control Bible Christianity in Nebraska and how the Lord of heaven stepped in and straightened things out Warren Rushton Author and Nebraska Homeschool Leader Waccamaw Legacy Patricia Barker Lerch, 2004-11-21 An insightful and informative look into the Waccamaw Siouan's guest for identity and survival Waccamaw Legacy Contemporary Indians Fight for Survival sheds light on North Carolina Indians by tracing the story of the now state recognized Waccamaw Siouan tribe from its beginnings in the Southeastern United States through their first contacts with Europeans and into the 21st century detailing the struggles these Indians have endured over time We see how the Waccamaw took hold of popular theories about Indian tribes like the Croatan of the Lost Colony and the Cherokee as they struggled to preserve their heritage and to establish their identity Patricia Lerch was hired by the Waccamaw in 1981 to perform the research needed to file for recognition under the Bureau of Indian Affairs Federal Acknowledgement Program of 1978 The Waccamaw began to organize powwows in 1970 to represent publicly their Indian heritage and survival and to spread awareness of their fight for cultural preservation and independence Lerch found herself understanding that the powwows in addition to affirming identity revealed important truths about the history of the Waccamaw and the ways they communicate and coexist Waccamaw Legacy outlines Lerch s experience as she played a vital role in the Waccamaw Siouan's continuing fight for recognition and acceptance in contemporary society and culture Orphans Jeremy Seabrook, 2018-11-01 Orphans have often been beneficiaries of charity and compassion but society has also punished abused and ill treated them Attitudes behind this maltreatment are rooted in ideas that those without parents are disruptive malevolent and in need of discipline Drawing on historic documents interviews and memoirs Jeremy Seabrook charts history s changing and often loose definitions of orphans and explores their many makers from natural or man made catastrophes to the State charity and other social forces that have separated children especially the poor from their close kin But this history is not only one of suffering Orphans also reveals the uncounted millions taken in and loved by relatives neighbors or strangers Freed from constraints and driven by insecurity many orphans including Nelson Mandela Marilyn Monroe and Steve Jobs have led remarkable lives The Romancist, and Novelist's Library: the Best Works of the Best Authors ,1839 Good Tovs. Bad Tovs Back to Godhead ,1991 Andrew McClary, 2015-02-18 In early America most children had only a few toys and parents received advice from family and friends on the best ways to make and use toys By the early 1900s the Industrial Revolution was producing a new world of toys and giving more parents the wealth to buy them Mass media also sang the praises of these new factory made store bought toys but that began to change as early as the mid 1900s when the mass media was used to inform parents of the many dangers of children's toys Many encourage violence sexism racism and some are actually unsafe and unhealthy The development of children's toys from early America to the present time and the shifting opinions of them expressed by parents and the mass media throughout this time are the main subjects of this book The first section discusses the many problems with toys while the second puts these problems in historical perspective How have these problems changed and are still changing today Might today s toys be about to enter a time when they will be better than ever The third section argues that many media toy watchers are biased toward the negative giving toys more of a black eye than they deserve and considers the challenges that face today s parents as they try to choose the best toys for their children The Peaceable Kingdom: Teacher's Manual Lee, Hope Arnott, Glenna Davis Sloan, 1974 Saturday Review ,1858
