The astronomico-theological discourses; or, Lectures delivered by the late celebrated rev. Robert Taylor, originally published under the title of The Devil's pulpit. To which is added a sketch of his life Robert Taylor,1831

The Devil's Pulpit Robert Taylor,2006-06-19 A series of sermons meant to challenge the rigid and uncompromising views held by Christianity in England at the time The Author came to the conclusion that Christianity is based on much older religions and its rituals are directly descended from ancient Egyptian and pagan practices The Devil's Pulpit, Being Astronomico-theological Discourses Robert Taylor,1879 The Devil's Pulpit Robert Taylor,1996-09 1882 Volumes 1 Raising the Devil Judas Iscariot Vindicated Virgo Paritura the Temple Saint James Saint John The Son The Devil's Pulpit Robert Taylor,2016-07-22 Excerpt from The Devil s Pulpit Or Astro Theological Sermons This introduction is a key to the astronomical allusions and various mysteries in the Bible referred to in The Devil s Pulpit by the Rev Robert Taylor B A and to similar allusio The Temptations of Jesus in Mark's Gospel Susan R. Garrett,1998 Susan Garrett focuses on the theme of the temptation and testing of Jesus as reflected in the Gospel of Mark arguing that by his endurance Jesus opened up the path and provides the example for those who follow the way of the Lord The Confrontation of Christ and Satan. Commonly Called by Title "The Temptation of Jesus Christ." Roy J. Kelsey,1972 Salvation Through Temptation Benjamin E. Heidgerken,2021-06-04 Salvation through Temptation describes the development of predominant Greek and Latin Christian conceptions of temptation and of the work of Christ to heal and restore humankind in the context of that temptation focusing on Maximus the Confessor and Thomas Aquinas as well developed examples of Greek and Latin thought on these matters Maximus and Thomas represent two trajectories concerning the woundedness of human emotionality in the wake of the primordial human sin Heidgerken argues that Maximus stands in essential continuity with earlier Greek ascetic theology which conceives of the weakness of fallen humankind in demonological categories so that the Pauline law of sin is bound to external demonic agents that act upon the human mind through thoughts desires and sensory impressions For Thomas on the other hand this wound consists primarily of an internal disordering of the faculties that results from the withdrawal of original grace concupiscence or the fomes peccati Yet even in this framework the devil plays a significant role in Thomas s account of postlapsarian temptation On the basis of these differing frameworks for human temptation Heidgerken demonstrates the centrality of Christ s exemplarity in the Greek account and the centrality of Christ s moral perfections in the Latin account As a consequence of these emphases the Greek tradition of Maximus places distinct limits on the ability of human emotionality even that of Christ to be perfected in this life whereas Thomas s approach allows Christ to completely embody a perfected form of human emotionality in his earthly life Reciprocally Thomas s account of Christ s moral perfections and virtue places distinct limits on his affirmation of Christ s experience of postlapsarian temptation whereas Maximus s account allows for Christ to experience interior forms of temptation that more closely mirror the concrete moral experiences and circumstances of fallen human beings Salvation through Temptation recommends a retrieval of early ascetic theology and demonology as the best contemporary systematic and ecumenically viable approach to Christ s temptation and victory over the devil
