nobleman Rad n Mas Arya Candranegara V 1837 85 alias Purwalelana journeyed across his homeland during the rapidly changing times of the nineteenth century He travelled around 5 000 kilometres by horse and carriage between 1860 and 1875 His eye witness account The Travels of Purwalelana gives an inside view of Java at the time part of the Dutch East Indies Candranegara explains habits and traditions of both the Javanese and the Dutch he describes the architecture of cities and temples and he marvels about the beautiful tropical landscape as well as about the latest technological inventions such as steam trains horse drawn trams and gas lanterns This Hakluyt publication illustrated with contemporaneous images presents the rare perspective of an Indonesian traveller living in colonial times The author grew up as a member of a Javanese noble family in the hybrid world of the colonial upper class He received a western style education but also learnt how to follow Javanese traditions and to be a good Muslim In 1858 he was appointed to the high rank of Regent of Kudus by the colonial government Candranegara wrote his book under the pseudonym Purwalelana probably because he considered publishing to be an adventurous undertaking and possibly also because it gave him freedom to arrange the events in his own way The Travels represents the first Javanese travelogue ever written and as such it broke with existing traditions Candranegara used prose instead of poetry wrote from a first person perspective rather than a third person and he described present society rather than dwelling upon the common literary theme of kings in battle The result is a lively story in which the armchair traveller shares his experiences on the road It provides its readers with a range of people and topics pivotal to developments in nineteenth century Java a treasure trove for historians and cultural anthropologists alike The volume includes 24 colour illustrations Catalogues of Items for Auction by Messrs.
