nature of the mind According to the traditional Tibetan Buddhist formula of view meditation and action this volume follows Finding Rest in the Nature of the Mind which establishes the view of the Buddhist path generally and specifically that of the teachings of the Great Perfection and Finding Rest in Meditation which outlines the main points of meditation namely where one should meditate what qualities a practitioner should possess and develop and what should be practiced The Padmakara Translation Group has provided us with a clear and fluid new translation of the final volume of the trilogy Finding Rest in Illusion along with its autocommentary The Chariot of Excellence both intended to elucidate the appropriate action of a Buddhist practitioner Finding Rest in Illusion describes in detail the conduct of those who have stabilized their recognition of the nature of the mind and how to apply the Buddhist view when relating to ordinary appearances Drawing extensively from classic Buddhist works the author uses well known examples of illusion found throughout Mah y na literature to illustrate the illusory nature of both sa s ra and nirv a thus revealing their ultimate nondual nature This is an invaluable manual for any genuine student of Buddhism who wishes to truly find rest through the path of the Great Perfection     Rambling
