On Sibling Love, Queer Attachment and American Writing Denis Flannery,2016-12-05 Sibling bonds both literal and figurative have had a crucial role in American writings of queer desire and identity In nuanced and original readings

Denis Flannery demonstrates the centrality of fraternal and sororal love to queer strands of nineteenth and twentieth century texts from the elemental wildnesses of Moby Dick to David Fincher's postmodern cinema from the brutal and comic decorum of Henry James's major fiction to the elegiac memoir writing of Jamaica Kincaid. Questions driving Flannery's exploration of sibling relations: How do we characterize the relationship between sibling love, queer possibility and the formal intensities of American writing? Why do so many American texts rely on the presence of sibling love to articulate queer desire? Why is brotherhood invoked as a positive value in announcements of United States national aspirations but used repeatedly and ominously in that nation's texts to herald a fall? Written with lyrical clarity and verve, On Sibling Love: Queer Attachment and American Writing is an important contribution to queer theory to American studies and to the study of culture, writing and affect.

Studies in the Scriptures ... Charles Taze Russell, 1910 Studies in the Scriptures: The at-one-ment between God and man Charles Taze Russell, 1899 God Is Love Gerald Bray, 2012-03-31 While there is no substitute for personal faithful and careful Bible reading and prayer, the Bible's vast size and diversity can make distilling its truth a daunting task. Thus most Christians benefit from supplemental resources to help learn and apply what Scripture teaches. Renowned theologian Gerald Bray has produced just such a resource in his new systematic theology. Though packed with robust content, he writes about this volume, the aim is to reach those who would not normally find systematic theology appealing or even comprehensible. This volume is unique from others in that Bray traces the common theme of God's love through the Bible categorically from God's love for himself and his creation to the cross as the ultimate expression of God's love among other categories. The centrality of God's love in Bray's theology reflects a deep conviction that the Bible shows us God for who he really is. This volume will be of interest to Christians seeking to grow in their faith.

Kept Alec Waugh, 2011-10-28 First published in 1925, this is a rich tale centred around the lives of Marjorie Fairfield, a beautiful and penniless young woman who is the mistress of a wealthy business man and the symbolically named Ransom Heritage, one of the many young men who were cast adrift after the First World War ended and who has been abruptly deprived of a sense of purpose, ambition and hope. Around these young people and their circle whirles the carefree society of fashionable post-war London, a raucous, glamorous and perhaps slightly shrill world of cocktails and nightclubs, tea dances and illicit t t e t t e s. Waugh depicts a frenetic society where all too many people are kept in some way financially by a well-off lover, inherited capital, an unwanted husband or more figuratively by a reputation, a title, a relationship even.

Milly: at Love's Extremes Maurice Thompson, 1901 God as Sacrificial Love Asle Eikrem, 2018-01-25 In dialogue with a range of post-enlightenment critiques of Christian theologies regarding sacrificial love, Asle Eikrem presents an unconventional systematic approach to this multi-layered and complex theological topic. From Hegel to prominent 20th century theologians, from feminist theologies to postmodern philosophers, this volume engages in a critical conversation with a host of different voices on all the classical topics in theology: creation, trinity, incarnation, atonement, sin, faith, sacraments.

and eschatology also providing a moral and socio historical vision for Christian living The result is a unique appraisal of the significance that the life and death of Jesus holds for the world today Love Afloat Francis Henry Sheppard, 1875
