Rape Of Creativity:

The Rape of Creativity Jake Chapman, Dinos Chapman, Modern Art Oxford, 2003     Jake & Dinos Chapman Jake Chapman, Dinos Chapman, Suzanne Cotter, 2003 Published to accompany the exhibition held at Modern Art Oxford 12 April 8 June 2003     Rape and Ravishment in the Literature of Medieval England Corinne J. Saunders, 2001 The study then considers the treatment of rape and ravishment in a range of literary genres in hagiography female saints are repeatedly threatened with rape the stories of Lucretia and Helen underpin legendary history the acts of rape and ravishment challenge and shape chivalric order in romance otherworldly rapes result in the conception of romance heroes The final two chapters examine the ways in which Malory and Chaucer write and rewrite rape and ravishment BOOK JACKET     Ecotheology David G. Hallman, 2009-09-01 A new and urgent item on the agenda of churches around the world is the theological and ethical dimensions of the ecological crisis Highlighted by the United Nations Earth Summit in Brazil the issues covered in this volume raise unavoidable and fundamental questions of the life style and Christian witness in the face of threats to the very survival of humankind and planet Earth The groundbreaking essays by more than two dozen contributors in this book are divided into five sections biblical witness theological challenges insights from ecofeminism insights from indigenous people and ethical implications Contributors include Jos P M Cunanan Philippines Margot Kaessmann Germany Renthly Keitzar India K C Abraham India Tony Brun Costa Rica Milton B Efthimiou United States Wesley Granberg Michaelson World Council of Churches Kwok Pui lan Hong Kong Larry Rasmussen United States Samuel Rayan India M Adebisi Sowunmi Nigeria Tsehai Berhane Selassie Ethiopia Chung Hyun Kyung South Korea Aruna Gnanadason India Anne Primavesi United Kingdom Rosemary Radford Ruether United States Rob Cooper New Zealand Stan McKay Canada George Tinker United States Edward Antonio Zimbabwe Leonardo Boff Brazil M L Daneel South Africa David G Hallman Canada Dieter T Hessel United States Catherine Keller United States     Encyclopedia of Comparative Iconography Helene E. Hall, 1993-05-11     Lustmord Maria Tatar, 2020-07-21 In a book that confronts our society's obsession with sexual violence Maria Tatar seeks the meaning behind one of the most disturbing images of twentieth century Western culture the violated female corpse This image is so prevalent in painting literature film and most recently in mass media that we rarely question what is at stake in its representation Tatar however challenges us to consider what is taking place both artistically and socially in the construction and circulation of scenes depicting sexual murder In examining images of sexual murder Lustmord she produces a riveting study of how art and murder have intersected in the sexual politics of culture from Weimar Germany to the present Tatar focuses attention on the politically turbulent Weimar Republic often viewed as the birthplace of a transgressive avant garde modernism where representations of female sexual mutilation abound Here a revealing episode in the gender politics of cultural production unfolds as male artists and writers working in a society consumed by fear of outside threats envision women as enemies that can be contained and mastered through transcendent artistic expression Not only does Tatar show that male artists openly identified with real life sexual murderers George Grosz posed as Jack the Ripper in a photograph where his model and future wife was the target of his knife but she also reveals the ways in which victims were disavowed and erased Tatar first analyzes actual cases of sexual murder that aroused wide public interest in Weimar Germany She then considers how the representation of murdered women in visual and literary works functions as a strategy for managing social and sexual anxieties and shows how violence against women can be linked to the war trauma to urban pathologies and to the politics of cultural production and biological reproduction In exploring the complex relationship between victim and agent in cases of sexual murder Tatar explains how the roles came to be destabilized and reversed turning the perpetrator of criminal deeds into a defenseless victim of seductive evil Throughout the West today the creation of similar ideological constructions still occurs in societies that have only recently begun to validate the voices of its victims Maria Tatar's book opens up an important discussion for readers seeking to understand the forces behind sexual violence and its portrayal in the cultural media throughout this century members of the American Bar Association     Elizabeth I Susan Frye,1996-11-28 Elizabeth I is perhaps the most visible woman in early modern Europe yet little attention has been paid to what she said about the difficulties of constructing her power in a patriarchal society This revisionist study examines her struggle for authority through the representation of her female body Based on a variety of extant historical and literary materials Frye s interpretation focuses on three representational crises spaced fifteen years apart the London coronation of 1559 the Kenilworth entertainments of 1575 and the publication of The Faerie Queene in 1590 In ways which varied with social class and historical circumstance the London merchants the members of the Protestant faction courtly artists and artful courtiers all sought to stabilize their own gendered identities by constructing the queen within the natural definitions of the feminine as passive and weak Elizabeth fought back acting as a discursive agent by crossing and thus disrupting these definitions She and those closely identified with her interests evolved a number of strategies through which to express her political control in terms of the ownership of her body including her elaborate iconography and a mythic biography upon which most accounts of Elizabeth s life have been based The more authoritative her image became the more vigorously it was contested in a process which this study examines and consciously perpetuates     Research Awards Index ,1984     Jake & Dinos Chapman ,2003 Cet ouvrage a t publi l occasion de l exposition de Jake Dinos Chapman Modern Art Oxford du 12 avril au 8 juin 2003     Artbibliographies Modern ,2004     Sexual Harassment V.
