day How hard does Elizabeth's life have to be before she regrets choosing him THE ROCK SOLID SERIES What The Librarian Did opening act Rise Fall Play Redemption Resurrection Note Fall and Play can be read in any order Redemption continues the story of Zander and Elizabeth Rise but can also be read as a standalone France and Germany in an Age of Crisis, 1900-1960 Shamir, 2023-04-12 France and Germany two great powers in Europe and the world had in many respects a similar fate in the first half of the twentieth century Both nations knew war and defeat social upheaval grave economic crisis as well as political turmoil including major changes in their political regime On the other hand the two countries also faced some very different experiences in the course of their history in this period Germany had the terrible experience of the Third Reich while France shared with other powers the agonies of decolonisation Here is a collection of twenty two studies dealing with important aspects of the history of the two nations The studies are grouped under seven headings and include topics like foreign policy in peace and war domestic changes the impact of ideologies the colonial and Jewish aspects Taken as a whole these studies offer many new perceptions and insights to the history of France and Germany in the twentieth century In Uncle Sam's Service Susan Zeiger, 2019-05-15 During World War I the first American war in which women were mobilized on a mass scale by the armed services more than sixteen thousand women served overseas with the American Expeditionary Force Although wealthy women volunteers members of the so called heiress corps monopolized public attention Susan Zeiger reveals that the majority of AEF women were wage earners Their motives for enlistment ranged from patriotism to economic self interest from a sense of adventure to a desire to challenge gender boundaries Zeiger uses diaries letters questionnaires oral histories and memoirs to explore the women's experience of war She draws upon insights from labor history political history popular culture and the study of gender and war to analyze the ways in which women's wartime service heightened and made visible the contradictions in the prevailing gender relations Zeiger argues that the interests of AEF women clashed with those of the wartime state at a crucial historical moment Women sought to expand their personal opportunities for mobility and professional success and lay claim to equal citizenship The government determined to contain the disruption to the status quo created a separate subordinate status for women in the military domesticating women's service and reinscribing it within conventional limits The Ethnography of Vietnam's Central Highlanders Oscar Salemink, 2003-02-28 This book looks at the multiple relations between the ethnographic representations of the Montagnard ethnic groups in the Central Highlands of Vietnam and the changing historical context in and for which the ethnographies were produced and in which they were consumed There are two major arguments developed by the author It is maintained that economic political and military interests within a specific historical context condition ethnographic practice This is not however a one way process the author also argues that the ensuing ethnographic discourses in turn influence the historical context by suggesting and facilitating ethnic policies and by contributing to the formation or change of ethnic identities through processes of classification Oscar Salemink describes ethnographic discourses concerning the indigenous population of

Vietnam's Central Highlands during periods of Christianization, colonization war and socialist transformation and analyzes these in their relation to tribal, ethnic, territorial, governmental and gendered discourses. Vietnam 1946 Stein Tonnesson, 2010. Vietnam 1946 is a masterful narrative of the immediate origins of the first Vietnam War. It is by turns vivid and shocking; it is always immensely revealing. Tonnesson brings forensic clarity to crucial events about which even now, some sixty years later, fundamental misapprehensions exist. An outstanding work of scholarship of major international importance. Martin Thomas, author of Empires of Intelligence. Tonnesson captures brilliantly the 1946 confrontation between two republics. France determined to redeem itself from Axis humiliation by regaining Indochina. Vietnam equally determined to retake independence after eighty years of colonial servitude. Tonnesson also demonstrates, however, that some leaders on each side really wanted a peaceful, mutually beneficial outcome. Descent into full-scale war was not inevitable. This is a carefully researched, clearly written analysis of a vital moment in the 20th-century history of both countries. It is also a meditation on the elusive boundary between free will and determinism in human affairs. David Marr, author of Vietnamese Tradition on Trial, 1920-1945. Stein Tonnesson's Vietnam 1946 answers the fundamental question about the first of Vietnam's 20th-century wars: the one fought against the French, how did it happen? He has written a meticulously researched account which restores their contingency to the events. The first Indochina war, like those that succeeded it, was not inevitable, and Tonnesson explains why and how it happened anyway. Marilyn Young, author of The Vietnam Wars, 1945-1990. The Savage Storm David Andress, 2012-09-27. Britain's defeat of Napoleon is one of the great accomplishments in our history. And yet it was by no means certain that Britain itself would survive the revolutionary fervour of the age, let alone emerge victorious from such a vast conflict. From the late 1790s the country was stricken by naval mutinies, rebellion in Ireland and riots born of hunger, poverty and grinding injustice. As the new century opened with republican graffiti on the walls of the cities and revolutionary secret societies reportedly widespread, King George III only narrowly escaped assassination. Jacobin forces seemed to threaten a dissolution of the social order. Above all, the threat of French invasion was ever present. Yet despite all this and new threats from royal madness and rampant corruption, Britain did not become a revolutionary republic. Her elites proved remarkably resilient and drew on the power of an already global empire to find the strength to defeat Napoleon abroad and continued popular unrest at home. In this brilliant, sweeping history of the period, David Andress fuses two hitherto separate historical perspectives, the military and the social, to provide a vivid portrait of the age. From the conditions of warfare faced by the British soldier and the great battles in which they fought to the literary and artistic culture of the time, The Savage Storm is at once a searing narrative of dramatic events and an important reassessment of one of the most significant turning points in our history. The History of Western Africa Amy McKenna, Senior Editor, Geography and History, 2011-01-15. From its ancient kingdoms to the independent post-colonial states that make up the region today, western Africa has transformed dramatically over the centuries. Economically lucrative for European slave traders and later for their colonial successors, the territories along Africa's Atlantic coast were forced to overcome great adversity before achieving autonomy. This volume surveys the history of the many nations of western Africa where vestiges of its celebrated past are still visible in cities like Timbuktu and where its diverse peoples continue to navigate a path towards a more stable future. Colonial and Postcolonial Africa Rosina Beckman, 2016-12-14 French Furniture and Gilt Bronzes J. Paul Getty Museum, Gillian Wilson, Charissa Bremer-David, Jeffrey Weaver, 2008 Each object is described and analyzed in terms of its provenance and published history as well as its construction materials and conservation. With its painstaking attention to detail, this volume is the definitive catalogue of the Getty Museum's collection of French Baroque furniture and will be of interest to scholars, conservators, and all students of French decorative arts. BOOK JACKET A First English Book for Boys and Girls Whose Mother-tongue is Not English Walter Ripman, 1920 Imperial Policy and Southeast Asian Nationalism Hans Antlov, Stein Tonnesson, 2013-10-08 Traditionally, the tumultuous period 1930-50 in South East Asia has been viewed as a dichotomy of European vs. Asian or imperialist vs. nationalist. This highly acclaimed volume presents another triangular perspective and challenges established wisdom about the period. Ohio State University Bulletin, 1928 Hearings United States Congress, House, 1960 The Myth and Reality of German Warfare Gerhard P. Gross, 2016-09-16 Surrounded by potential adversaries, nineteenth-century Prussia and twentieth-century Germany faced the formidable prospect of multifront wars and wars of attrition. To counteract these threats, generations of general staff officers were educated in operational thinking, the main tenets of which were extremely influential on military planning across the globe and were adopted by American and Soviet armies. In the twentieth century, Germany's art of warfare dominated military theory and practice, creating a myth of German operational brilliance that lingers today despite the nation's crushing defeats in two world wars. In this seminal study, Gerhard P. Gross provides a comprehensive examination of the development and failure of German operational thinking over a period of more than a century. He analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of five different armies from the mid-nineteenth century through the early days of NATO. He also offers fresh interpretations of towering figures of German military history, including Moltke the Elder, Alfred von Schlieffen, and Erich Ludendorff. Essential reading for military historians and strategists, this innovative work dismantles cherished myths and offers new insights into Germany's failed attempts to become a global power through military means. District of Columbia Appropriations, 1961 United States Congress, House, Committee on Appropriations, 1960
