market As recently as the last decade products were still being launched based almost entirely on the opinion of the R D department Today a product launch without detailed market research would be considered reckless if not suicidal Likewise it is no longer safe for senior executives to take management actions and make decisions in the belief that they can interpret the wishes of their shareholders employees customers and the society in which they operate When Shell went ahead with plans to sink a defunct North Sea oil platform it sought the approval of the U K government but failed to acknowledge Greenpeace and the millions of Shell customers who forced a company U turn Civil rights groups religious organizations single issue parties and many others make up the stirring medley of people companies have to listen to to keep waltzing Reputation Assurance applies a framework of principles for business excellence across the company The new paradigm ensures fair and competitive returns for shareholders understands and meets customer expectations and guarantees offers employees fair compensation honesty and openness in communication and takes suggestions and complaints seriously Finally the framework promotes corporate accountability to society as a whole by contributing to the economic power of its citizens promoting human rights disclosing relevant information and respecting at all times local culture and laws Waltzing after all isn t just fancy footwork but an art Once companies learn and practice the steps they will find their reputations admired by all I have long believed that companies can only hope to operate successfully if they have an invisible License to Operate from their employees customers partners and shareholders together with society as a whole This excellent book points out that these relationships are under increasing threat from predators and require cohesive coherent and well thought out management if companies are to succeed The company s reputation is no longer in the category of nice to have it is now absolutely crucial for continued survival Sir John Harvey Jones former Chairman ICI U K Glen Peters s fine book focuses on the importance of the employees and the environment to a company s bottom line in addition to stockholders His recommendations fit with findings that large companies that pay attention to these factors historically outperform those that don t Jeff Seglin Visiting Fellow Center for the Study of Values in Public Life Harvard University Waltzing with the Raptors cogently and engagingly shows how managers who actively listen and are responsive to their company s stakeholders who monitor verify and report on performance can transform powerful and feisty critics into partners thereby protecting and enhancing their company s reputation Alice Tepper Martin President Council on Economic Priorities The Art and Archaeology of Human Engagements with Birds of Prey Robert J. Wallis, 2023-10-05 Of all avian groups birds of prey in particular have long been a prominent subject of fascination in many human societies This book demonstrates that the art and materiality of human engagements with raptors has been significant through deep time and across the world from earliest prehistory to Indigenous thinking in the present day Drawing on a wide range of global case studies and a plurality of complementary perspectives it explores the varied and fluid dynamics between humans and birds of prey as evidenced in this diverse art historical and archaeological record From their depictions as powerful beings in visual art and their important roles in Indigenous mythologies to the significance of their body parts as active agents in religious rituals the intentional deposition of their faunal remains and the display of their preserved bodies in museums there is no doubt that birds of prey have been figures of great import for the shaping of human society and culture However several of the chapters in this volume are particularly concerned with looking beyond the culture nature dichotomy and human centred accounts to explore perspectival and other post humanist thinking on human raptor ontologies and epistemologies The contributors recognize that human raptor relationships are not driven exclusively by human intentionality and that when these species meet they relate to and become with one another This raptor with human focused approach allows for a productive re framing of questions about human raptor interstices enables fresh thinking about established evidence and offers signposts for present and future intra actions with birds of prey
