analysis of parliamentary development set in a historical context informed by Africa's post 1990s democratic resurgence In particular it illustrates how African parliaments are caught between the twin processes of being part of the machinery of government while exercising the function of holding government accountable The Power of Continuity Eva

Poluha, 2004 In this gracefully written book Dr Eva Poluha wrestles with important issues of Ethiopian political culture and cultural continuity and transmission in general Drawing upon her years of experience in the country as well as the data from this school ethnography she has produced a stimulating and thought provoking work for those interested in problems of cross cultural education as well as in Ethiopia Herbert S Lewis Professor Emeritus Department of Anthropology University of Wisconsin Madison Children play a vital role as a source of information on politics but have been neglected as political actors in research contexts In this study children are used as a window to an Ethiopian society where hierarchical relations persist despite the numerous political and administrative transformations of the past century With data gathered through participant observation the book examines how young Addis Abeba school children learn to adapt to and reproduce relations of superordination or subordination based on gender age strength and social position The children s experiences are viewed in the historical context of state citizen relations where hierarchy and obsession with control have been and continue to be dominant The discussion focuses on the power of continuity in the reproduction of cultural patterns and political behaviour and on how change towards more egalitarian relations could come about

The World of Girls and Boys in Rural and Urban Ethiopia Eva Poluha, 2007 This collection of essays is about the lives ideas and modes of interaction of children in Ethiopia against the background that in depth knowledge of perceptions of cultural values and practices regarding children would contribute to improved work with them and to the promotion of their rights as children The study is supported by Save the Children Sweden and Norway and the essays are a collaboration between those bodies and the Department of Social Anthropology at Addis Ababa University Some essays are based on Master theses from the Department and others on fieldwork Seminars and meetings formed part of the research with and about children The editor provides a theoretical methodological and ethical aspects overview and makes proposals on possible new themes The five other contributors cover Conceptualizations of Children and Childhood The Case of Kolfe and Semen Mazegaja Addis Ababa Growing up in Town and in the Countryside in Amhara Society Continuity and Change in the Lives of Urban and Rural Children The Case of Two Schools in SNNPR Conceptualizations of Children and Childhood in Bishoftu Oromia and Children in Ethiopian Media and School Textbooks

African Political Parties M. A. Mohamed Salih, 2003-02-20 This book interrogates the political health of African political parties and evaluates the theory and practice of party functions ideology and structure Through fresh analysis using a variety of case studies the authors question the democratic credentials of African political parties and propose new methods for achieving inclusive broad based representation Themes include the evolution and institutionalisation of African political parties the unique historical political and social circumstances that shaped their structures and functions In the governance trajectory the authors question the relationship between African political parties and government political parties and representation political parties and electoral systems and political parties and parliament Case studies include Ethiopia Ghana Kenya Botswana Namibia South Africa Tanzania Zambia Zimbabwe and many others

Reconstructing Economic Governance After Conflict in Resource-rich African Countries Karl Wohlmuth, Tino

Urban,2007 This book is a collection of Policy Briefs on the issue of reconstructing economic governance in resource rich African countries This is the first book that covers this particular issue Many researches have been undertaken on the causes of conflict and violence in resource rich African countries but the particular point in this book is how to manage the economic affairs in these countries for the benefit of the people and on a long term and sustainable basis The term good economic governance is used for this type of management and we have applied the concept to a number of African countries that are richly endowed with natural resources and have suffered from various forms and intensities of conflict
