

become a major showcase of modern Islamic architecture. The annual festival of Data Ganj Bakhsh in Lahore, celebrated on his death-anniversary with the support of Pakistan's Ministry of Charitable Trusts, attracts hundreds of thousands of devotees. Politicians, understanding the popular appeal of the saint, have been eager to associate themselves with him; for instance, when Benazir Bhutto returned to Pakistan from exile in 1986, her cavalcade headed directly from the airport to Data Durbar, the "court" where this spiritual ruler of Pakistan presides.

Our interest in Shaykh Hujwiri, or Data Sahib, is principally in his book on Sufism. Kashf al-mahjub was the first comprehensive text written in Persian about Sufism, at a time when Arabic was still the dominant language for the expression of Islamic religious thought. Prior to Shaykh Hujwiri, masters such as Abu Nasr al-Sarraj and Abu Talib al-Makki had written famous Arabic treatises on Sufi thought and practice in terms of the standard religious sciences. But Shaykh Hujwiri, who was also known for his Persian poetry, effectively used the elegant and courtly Persian of the Samanid style to convey his message. Kashf al-mahjub was a model for the great Sufi biographer Farid al-Din 'Attar (d. ca. 1220) when he wrote his Memorial of the Saints. The Mughal prince Dara Shikuh wrote in the seventeenth century that none could challenge the fame and greatness of Kashf al-mahjub, for it was written from the perspective of the perfect teacher, and it had no equal on the subject of Sufism in the Persian language. 'Ali Qawim, the editor of the edition published by the Iran-Pakistan Center for Persian Studies in 1978, observed that this book is unparalleled in the beauty of its learned composition, in its attractive literary style, and in its avoidance of unpleasant and jarring expressions. It is worth mentioning that the superb library of the Iran-Pakistan Center for Persian Studies in Islamabad, which contains over 15,000 Persian manuscripts, was named the Ganj Bakhsh Library in honor of Shaykh Hujwiri.

Written at the request of a fellow Sufi from his hometown of Hujwir, Kashf al-mahjub is not simply a literary production. It
