Revelation and the Word of God Paul Avis, 2024-05-02 A unique work of Fundamental Theology Revelation and the Word of God explores key issues of divine revelation as open questions They include Why is revelation so elusive Existential and philosophical problems of revelation in the context of apologetics The self revelation of God in mystery What does it mean to say as the Bible does that God speaks and acts How does revelation relate to the Bible history religious experience and the church The relational and personalist dimensions of revelation What the biblical Wisdom tradition contributes to our understanding of revelation The threefold form of the Word of God Jesus Christ the incarnate Word Logos and Wisdom Sophia of God the Scriptures that witness to him and the church s proclamation kerygma in preaching sacraments and other ways The role of hermeneutics cultural constraints and imagination in the reception of revelation Critique including Feminist Theology of claimed revelation Is there revelation today How do developments in doctrine and practice relate to divine revelation The liturgy as a vehicle of the Word of God The Word in pastoral practice Jesus Christ as the crown and criterion of divine revelation according to the Fourth Gospel

Debunking Bart Ehrman: A Christian Response Samuel James, Samuel Inbaraja using ChatGPT, In the realm of biblical scholarship few names evoke as much controversy and debate as Bart Ehrman Renowned for his critical analysis of the Bible and early Christian texts Ehrman s work has challenged fundamental beliefs held dear by many within the Christian faith In this comprehensive volume we embark on a journey to dissect and scrutinize the assertions put forth by Bart Ehrman with the aim of offering a robust Christian response Each chapter of this book delves into a specific aspect of Ehrman s scholarship meticulously examining his claims and arguments From factual inaccuracies and logical fallacies to epistemological errors and methodological limitations no stone is left unturned in our quest to uncover the truth We begin by scrutinizing the factual errors that pervade Ehrman s work followed by an exploration of the logical contradictions and fallacies inherent in his arguments Moving forward we delve into the epistemological foundations of Ehrman s scholarship shedding light on the cognitive biases that may influence his interpretations As we progress through the chapters we confront Ehrman s assertions with the litmus tests of coherence and correspondence evaluating the internal and external consistency of his arguments We also explore the methodological constraints that shape Ehrman s approach to biblical studies and examine the implications of his errors on broader scholarly discourse Furthermore we delve into Ehrman s debates with prominent Christian apologists such as Dinesh D Souza and William Lane Craig analyzing the strengths and weaknesses of his arguments in these confrontations Additionally we address the emotional objections raised by Ehrman and provide a philosophical framework for understanding faith in God amidst suffering Throughout this journey we highlight the importance of personal experience and revelation in faith contrasting Ehrman s scholarly approach with the biblical understanding of faith as a gift from God Moreover we scrutinize the financial motivations that may influence Ehrman s critique of Christianity and evaluate whether his approach represents genuine scholarship or sensationalism

The Westminster Confession of Faith and the Cessation of Special Revelation Garnet Howard Milne,2007-12-01 In the opening chapter of the Confession the divines of Westminster included a clause that implied that there would no longer be any special immediate revelation from God Means by which God had once communicated the divine will such as dreams visions and the miraculous gifts of the Spirit were said to be no longer available However many of the authors of the WCF accepted that prophecy continued in their time and a number of them apparently believed that disclosure of God s will through dreams visions and angelic communication remained possible How is the cessationist clause of WCF 1 1 to be read in the light of these claims This book reconciles this paradox in a detailed study of the writings of the authors of the Westminster Confession of Faith

The Oxford Handbook of Divine Revelation Balázs M. Mezei,Francesca Aran Murphy,Kenneth Oakes,2021 This Handbook offers a systemic approach to the notion of revelation in its various theoretical contexts It provides in depth coverage of the theoretical and historical fields in which the notion of revelation is discussed

Book 7 Revelation HC Kurt Jurgensmeier,2012-08-22 How and why has God spoken to us Answering these questions involves the immense topic of divine revelation Our purpose in this book is to provide a biblical study of the various types and purposes of the myriad of different methods of divine revelation In the process we endeavor to answer such critical and controversial questions as How do we know when God is speaking What has been the progression of divine revelation What are the only two methods of revelation that God uses to communicate to all of humanity Why is

Scripture so authoritative and sufficient for the Christian life What are the several vital but often neglected ways that God speaks to us apart from Scripture How does God expect us to make decisions and does He have a personal will for our lives that cannot be found in Scripture Does God speak to us by planting thoughts in our mind

The Inspiration of Scripture Billy Prewitt, It has been said that the Church spends more time bickering over doctrine than winning souls yet without sound doctrine the Apostle Paul tells us that the body of Christ will be tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight of men and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive How important is the doctrine of the Inspiration of Scripture In The Inspiration of Scripture Billy Prewitt unlocks the powerful doctrine that churches all over the world list as the first item in their statements of beliefs In this concise book you will learn the real meaning of inspiration inerrancy and infallibility what the Bible says about itself the value of the Bible for believers and the Church great ways to instruct believers and evangelism tools for reaching unbelievers In addition you will explore controversial questions raised by skeptics such as supposed manuscript disagreements and see how the Bible itself exposes errors in the opinions of scholars such as the claim that doctrine cannot be formed from narrative texts Some say they read the Bible for inspiration yet the Bible is far more than a book to make you feel good when you are down Rather it is more like a sword that cuts to the very core of the human heart How is reading a book with black and red letters inked on its pages able to translate a person from the kingdom of darkness to the kingdom of light In The Inspiration of Scripture the power underneath the black and red letters is unleashed and you will see for yourself how vital this doctrine is to your survival as a Christian

The Globalization of Christianity Gordon L. Heath, Steven M. Studebaker, 2015-01-20 While Christianity appears to be in decline in the West it is growing robustly in the global South What does this mean for the Christianity that was once considered to be the religion of the West The new contexts and trajectories require innovative responses and relevant theological reflection in the church This volume addresses these changes through identifying and analyzing global shifts highlighting practical innovations in the church that attempt to deal with new trajectories and proposing theological positions intended to help face the issues and challenges of the twenty first century Contributors to this volume include Philip Jenkins The Next Christendom The New Faces of Christianity God's Continent Steven M Studebaker Gordon L Heath Bradley K Broadhead Christof Sauer Lee Beach Michael P Knowles Peter Althouse Michael Wilkinson John H Issak David K Taurus and Seongho Kang
