Revolution And Counter Revolution In Africa Essays In Contemporary Politics:

Revolution and Counter-revolution in Africa Georges Nzongola-Ntalaja, 1987 The people of the Congo have suffered from a particularly brutal colonial rule American interference after independence decades of robbery at the hands of the dictator Mobutu and periodic warfare which continues even now in the East of the country But as this insightful political history makes clear the Congolese people have not taken these multiple oppressions lying down and have fought over many years to establish democratic institutions at home and free themselves from foreign exploitation indeed these are two aspects of a single project

The Politics and Policies of Sub-Saharan Africa Robert A. Dickey, 2001 This book attempts to correct the impression created by Western media that Sub Saharan Africa is in a state of anarchy The text analyzes and shows that while many Sub Saharan African nations are experiencing the worst time of their history others are enjoying their best times Thus the text argues that although some parts of Africa are experiencing crisis the continent is also a fine region of major new experiments in governance peace building and free market transformation programs Finally the text focuses some of its analyses on the colonial legacy economic and ethnic transformation indigenous institutions and other forces that seem to influence the governance of Sub Saharan African nations

The Anthropology of Africa: Challenges for the 21st Century Nkwi, Paul Nchoji, 2015-02-03 In 1999 August 30 September 2 the Pan African Anthropological Association PAAA marked the 10th anniversary of its creation by holding its 9th Annual Conference in Yaounde Cameroon the city and country of its birth The conference themed The Anthropology of Africa Challenges for the 21st Century was attended by some seventy participants mostly African Among the international participants was Dr Sydel Silverman President of the Wenner Gren Foundation at the time a long term partner of the PAAA she was present at the inaugural conference in 1988 The conference proceedings were initially published in 2000 with very limited circulation Given the continued relevance of the papers presented and in view of the call by the President of the PAAA for African anthropologists to reunite anthropological theory and practice in the teaching programmes of African universities the PAAA is pleased to republish the proceedings of its landmark 9th Annual Conference The book consists of forty three divided into eight parts namely i teaching anthropology in the decades ahead ii Health Challenges HIV AIDS Anthropological Perspectives iii NGOS Use and Misuse of Anthropology iv Anthropological Focus on Environment v Some Applied Issues in Anthropology vi The African Family in Crisis vii Ethnicity and Ethnic Conflicts and viii Population issues and anthropology Fertility Crisis Paul Nkwi concludes his introduction to the volume with these words The Anthropology of Africa will remain for a long time fundamentally applied if it is to meet the challenges of the 21st Century

The African Union Ten Years After Mammo Muchie, Phindil Lukhele-Olorunju, 2013-10-21 This book looks at the first ten years of the African Union This is the second in a series of books that will be produced each year from annual conferences held on the multi faceted issue of African liberation The key themes of the book explore ways of improving the effectiveness of the African Union fostering unity amongst African countries through entrenchment of pan

Africanism and building ownership of the African Union by the African people and their communities In addition the thoughts of key figures of pan Africanism and black emancipation such as Sylvester Williams and Frantz Fanon are re positioned to even greater contemporary relevance Through its promotion of Ethiopianism pan Africanism and the African renaissance we trust that this book will add new interest and a fresh perspective to how Africans move forward together into a post colonial era where policies and actions are determined by the united agency of liberated Africans the world over The Congo Leo Zeilig, David Renton, David Seddon, 2013-04-04 Since well before Henry Morgan Stanley s fabled encounter with David Livingstone on the shore on Lake Tanganyika in the late 19th century and his subsequent collaboration with King Leopold of Belgium in looting the country of its mineral wealth the Congo s history has been one of collaboration by a minority with and struggle by the majority against Western intervention Before the colonial period there were military struggles against annexation During Belgian rule charismatic religious figures emerged promising an end to white domination copper miners struck for higher wages and rural workers struggled for survival During the second half of the 20th century the Congo s efforts at disentanglement from Belgian rule the murder of the nationalist leader Patrice Lumumba and the long dictatorship of General Mobutu culminated in one of the bloodiest wars the world has ever seen At the start of a new millennium this book argues that the West has plundered Africa to its own advantage and that unrestrained global capitalism threatens to remake the entire world bringing violence and destruction in the name of profit In this radical history the authors show not only how the Congo represents and symbolises the continent s long history of subordination but also how the determined struggle of its people has continued against the odds to provide the Congo and the rest of Africa with real hope for the future The Congo Dave Renton, David Seddon, Leo Zeilig, 2007 Provides an introduction to the Congo This book covers its history from the unleashing of King Leopard s fury across the region in the 19th century to the Western sponsored murder of Patrice Lumumba in 1961 and also the war since 1997 It pays attention to the importance of economic production for social organization throughout the country Empire, Global Coloniality and African Subjectivity Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2013-06-01 Global imperial designs which have been in place since conquest by western powers did not suddenly evaporate after decolonization Global coloniality as a leitmotif of the empire became the order of the day with its invisible technologies of subjugation continuing to reproduce Africa s subaltern position a position characterized by perceived deficits ranging from a lack of civilization a lack of writing and a lack of history to a lack of development a lack of human rights and a lack of democracy The author s sharply critical perspective reveals how this epistemology of alterity has kept Africa ensnared within colonial matrices of power serving to justify external interventions in African affairs including the interference with liberation struggles and disregard for African positions Evaluating the quality of African responses and available options the author opens up a new horizon that includes cognitive justice and new humanism Moving Health Sovereignty in Africa Andrew F. Cooper, Hany Besada, 2016-04-15 Today s era of intense globalization has unleashed dynamic movements of people pathogens and pests that overwhelm the static territorial jurisdictions on which the governance provided by sovereign states and their formal intergovernmental institutions is based This world of movement calls for new ideas and institutions to govern people s health above all in Africa where the movements and health challenges are the most acute This book insightfully explores these challenges in ways that put the perspectives of Africans themselves at centre stage It begins with the long central and still compelling African health challenge of combating the pandemic of HIV AIDS It then examines the global governance responses by the major multilateral organizations of the World Bank and the World Trade Organization and the newer informal flexible democratically oriented ones of the Group of Eight It also addresses the compounding health challenge created by climate change to assess both its intensifying impact on Africa and how all international institutions have largely failed to link climate and health in their governance response It concludes with several recommendations about the innovative ideas and institutions that offer a way to closing the great global governance gaps and thus improving Africans health and that of citizens beyond

The Dynamics of Economic and Political Relations Between Africa and Foreign Powers Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo, 1999-01-30 International relations at large and Africa s in particular are shaped by the actors historical location by what they offer economically and culturally and by who they are socially In international relations nations tend to deal with objective conditions as they are or as they are perceived However Lumumba Kasongo demonstrates through case studies of Liberia and Zaire Congo that what the objective conditions are may not necessarily be what they ought to be in the national development process The international struggle for power between the West and the East and their supportive brutal and oppressive states in the South especially in Africa created the extremely weak conditions that redefined international relations as the tools of domination rather than the tools of understanding and cooperation As Lumumba Kasongo clarifies Africa did not gain economically or developmentally from this struggle An important work for scholars and
