Revolutionary Bishop Who Saw God At Work In Africa:

The Revolutionary Bishop Ralph E. Dodge, 2009-01-01 From the foreword by Bishop Abel T Muzorewa Ralph E Dodge who started out his life as a shy Iowa country boy could scarcely have dreamed that one day he would be a Methodist bishop in Africa accused of being a revolutionary But that is what happened when he decided early in his missionary career to treat his black brothers as equals This frame of mind inevitably brought him face to face with the jittery white supremacy of the Ian Smith government in Southern Rhodesia now Zimbabwe In this book Bishop Dodge recalls his experiences with family friends fellow missionaries and black nationals which helped to mold his character and enabled him to be salt and light to the world where he felt God calling him

Micah Julia M. O'Brien, 2015-11-10 This volume brings gender studies to bear on Micah's powerful rhetoric interpreting the book within its ancient and modern contexts Julia M O'Brien traces resonances of Micah's language within the Persian Period community in which the book was composed evaluating recent study of the period and the dynamics of power reflected in ancient sources Also sampling the book's reception by diverse readers in various time periods she considers the real life implications of Micah's gender constructs By bringing the ancient and modern contexts of Micah into view the volume encourages readers to reflect on the significance of Micah's construction of the world Micah's perspective on sin salvation the human condition and the nature of YHWH affects the way people live in part by shaping their own thought and in part by shaping the power structures in which they live O'Brien's engagement with Micah invites readers to discern in community their own hopes and dreams What is justice What should the future look like What should we hope for From the Wisdom Commentary series Feminist biblical interpretation has reached a level of maturity that now makes possible a commentary series on every book of the Bible It is our hope that Wisdom Commentary by making the best of current feminist biblical scholarship available in an accessible format to ministers preachers teachers scholars and students will aid all readers in their advancement toward God's vision of dignity equality and justice for all The aim of this commentary is to provide feminist interpretation of Scripture in serious scholarly engagement with the whole text not only those texts that explicitly mention women A central concern is the world in front of the text that is how the text is heard and appropriated by women At the same time this commentary aims to be faithful to the ancient text to explicate the world behind the text where appropriate and not impose contemporary questions onto the ancient texts The commentary addresses not only issues of gender which are primary in this project but also those of power authority ethnicity racism and classism which all intersect Each volume incorporates diverse voices and differing interpretations from different parts of the world showing the importance of social location in the process of interpretation and that there is no single definitive feminist interpretation of a text

New Directions in American Religious History Harry S. Stout, D. G. Hart, 1998-01-01 The eighteen essays collected in this book had their origin in a conference of the same title held at the Wingspread Conference Center in October of 1993 Some of the most distinguished scholars in the field were invited to reflect on their specialities in American religious history in ways that summarized where the field is and where it ought to move in the decades to come Organized according to four general ways of looking at religious history places and regions universal themes transformative events and marginal groups and ethno cultural outsiders the essays address a wide range of topics including Puritanism religion and the Civil War Protestantism and economic behavior gender and sexuality in American Protestantism and the contemporary de Christianization of American culture Featuring contributions from David D Hall Donald G Matthews Allen C Guelzo Gordon S Wood Daniel Walker Howe Robert Wuthnow Jon Butler David A Hollinger and others this thought provoking and up to date collection will interest anyone involved in the study of American religion and history Liberating Mission in Mozambique Robert Faris,2015-02-26 This work is a significant contribution to the narrative of Christianity in southern Africa within the framework of the struggle for liberation from colonial rule By focusing on the story of a Protestant political and ecumenical leader Eduardo Mondlane of note within a dominantly Roman Catholic country Faris explores the role of the churches and missions especially the Swiss Mission in the struggle for African Independence Coffee and Colonialism in Angola, 1820-1960 Jelmer Vos,2025-06-24 A new perspective on Angolan colonial and labour history in the 19th and 20th centuries which explores how the cultivation of coffee the country s most significant export shaped one of the oldest commercial frontiers in sub Saharan Africa After the Second World War Angola became one of the world s largest coffee producers supplying robusta beans that formed the backbone of popular blends and soluble products consumed by millions worldwide But each cup of coffee made with Angolan robustas carried with it a legacy of land expropriation and coerced labour Coffee and Colonialism delves into the systematic exploitation of black workers on white settler plantations in Angola where labour practices often evoked memories of slavery This book traces the origins of Angola s coffee trade to the early nineteenth century examining how the abolition of the Atlantic slave trade gave rise to a new export driven economy As global demand for coffee surged Portuguese colonizers transformed a thriving peasant economy into a settler dominated system that while highly productive was profoundly exploitative and inefficient Drawing upon extensive archival research this work provides a compelling analysis of the intersections between colonialism labour property and global trade uncovering the political economy underpinning one of Africa s most enduring commodity frontiers y into a settler dominated system that while highly productive was profoundly exploitative and inefficient Drawing upon extensive archival research this work provides a compelling analysis of the intersections between colonialism labour property and global trade uncovering the political economy underpinning one of Africa s most enduring commodity frontiers y into a settler dominated system that while highly productive was profoundly exploitative and inefficient Drawing upon extensive archival research this work

Unlikely Friends David W. Scott,Daryl R. Ireland,Grace Y. May,Casely B. Essamuah,2021-07-08 Can something as simple as friendship have a transformative impact in a divided world Through a series of richly textured historical portraits and reflections on personal experience this book shows that boundary crossing friendships in Christian mission have shaped theologies built organizations and partnerships facilitated mission work and changed attitudes and ways of thinking This is true in settings as varied as eighteenth century French women s work twentieth century urban Boston colonial India the Jim Crow South and twentieth century rural Congo In all these settings and more friendship has mattered Boundary crossing friendships are however not easy Despite their power such friendships are complicated by race gender ability class nationality and other elements of identity as this book also demonstrates Friendships are not immune from the divisions in the world nor a simple cure all for them Still friendship stands as a powerful testimony to the gospel Therefore the book calls for more attention to friendship in the study of mission history and more living out of friendship as a practice of mission In this way this book pays honor to Dr Dana L Robert as a pre eminent mission scholar and exemplary friend and mentor to others in the fields of missiology and world Christianity

To Do Justice Randall C. Jimerson, 2022-09-06 The biography A Civil Rights Activist from Montgomery to Zambia The Career of Reverend Robert E Hughes by Randall C Jimerson examines the inter racial nature of civil rights and liberation movements in Alabama Southern Rhodesia and Zambia and connects them on a global scale through the life and career of Reverend Robert E Hughes

Decolonizing Mission Partnerships Taylor Walters Denyer, 2020-06-26 We all know that healthy partnerships are essential to fruitful boundary crossing ministries but how exactly do we create them What barriers must be overcome and what self examination must we do How do the legacies of colonialism racism and unhealed trauma impact missional collaborations today In this doctoral thesis Denyer reflects on these questions as she examines the history of relational dynamics between American and Congolese United Methodists in the North Katanga Conference DR Congo By surveying memoirs magazines and journals and conducting in depth interviews Denyer presents a complex and multifaceted example of a partnership that is in the process of decolonizing More than just a history lesson Decolonizing Mission Partnerships presents the questions hard truths pitfalls and toxic assumptions we must face when attempting to be in mission together
