 American national trade bibliography Kate Chopin Per Seyersted,1980-04-01 Kate Chopin was a nationally acclaimed short story artist of the local color school when she in 1899 shocked the American reading public with The Awakening a novel which much resembles Madame Bovary Though the critics praised the artistic excellence of the book it was generally condemned for its objective treatment of the sensuous independent heroine Deeply hurt by the censure Mrs Chopin wrote little more and she was soon forgotten For decades the few critics who remembered her concentrated on the regional aspects of her work In the Literary History of the United States where Kate Chopin is highly praised as a local colorist The Awakening is not even mentioned In recent years however a few critics have given new attention to the novel emphasizing its courageous realism In the present book Mr Seyersted carries out an extensive re examination of both the life and work of the author basing it on her total oeuvre Much new Kate Chopin material such as previously unknown stories letters and a diary has recently come to light We can now see that she was a much more ambitious and purposeful writer than we have hitherto known From the beginning her special theme was female self assertion As each new success increased her self confidence she grew more and more daring in her descriptions of emancipated woman who wants to dictate her own life Mr Seyersted traces the author's growth as an artist and as a penetrating interpreter of the female condition and shows how her career culminated in The Awakening and the unknown story The Storm With these works which were decades ahead of their time Kate Chopin takes her place among the important American realist writers of the 1890 s The English Catalogue of Books
 Sampson Low,1898 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review ,1892 Publishers' Weekly ,1893 Depicting Desire Rachael Langford,2005
 Papers presented at a conference on Textual Intersections in the Nineteenth Century European Literatures Histories and Arts held at Cardiff University in July 2001 Le Petit Chose (Histoire d'un Enfant) Alphonse Daudet,2021-04-25 In Le Petit Chose Histoire d'un Enfant Alphonse Daudet crafts a poignant autobiographical narrative that explores the formative years of a young boy in 19th century France Utilizing a rich evocative prose rife with natural imagery Daudet delves into themes of innocence ambition and the relentless march of time The novel's literary style seamlessly intertwines realism with a touch of romanticism capturing the bittersweet essence of childhood while contextualizing it within the socio political currents of post Napoleonic France demonstrating the deep influence of the author's own experiences on his work Daudet a prominent figure of the French literary scene drew heavily from his own life having faced the struggles of poverty and familial strife in his youth Raised in a modest household his experiences in Avignon and his subsequent relocation to Paris inform the deeply personal reflections found in Le Petit Chose This novel is a testament to Daudet's ability to translate his tumultuous early life into a narrative that resonates with universal themes of growth and self discovery Readers seeking an introspective and beautifully articulated exploration of childhood will find Le Petit Chose to be an enlightening journey

Daudet's tender yet unflinching portrayal of a child's dreams and disillusionments makes this work not only a literary treasure but also a relatable sentiment that invites readers into the fragility and wonder of youth Sapphic Fathers
Gretchen Schultz, 2015-01-01 Gretchen Schultz explores how male writers and their readers in late nineteenth century France took lesbianism as a cipher for apprehensions about sex and gender during a time of social and political upheaval
