Say What You Mean One 1 The Sentence:

After Cognitivism Karl Leidlmair, 2009-09-01 There is a basic perplexity in our times On the one hand we find a blind trust in technology and rationalism In our neo liberalistically dominated world only what can be rapidly exploited and commercialized seems to count The only opposing reaction to this kind of rationalism is an extreme rejection of all kinds of reasoning and sometimes attendant religious fundamentalism But instead of reflecting on the limits and possibilities of reasoning dialogue is replaced by a demagogic struggle between cultures One cause of the blind trust in technology is misunderstandings about the significance and the application of theories in the reception of the so called Enlightenment The Enlightenment is essentially characterized by two forces i the conception of society as a social contract and ii the new science New nian physics etc But as a result we lost ground Atomistic individualism nourished the illusion of a self contained ego prior to man's entering into a shared intersubjective world And in the new science our constructions of reality became autonomous and independent of our interventions Thus we became caught in the inherent dynamism of our computational constructions of reality Science as it is applied today operates with far too simple parameters and model theoretic constructions erroneously taking the latter the models as literal descriptions of reality The Voice... Oneil

Ellipsis and Nonsentential Speech Reinaldo Elugardo, Robert J. Stainton, 2005-05-10 The papers in this volume address two main topics Q1 What is the nature and especially the scope of ellipsis in natural language Q2 What are the linguistic philosophical implications of what one takes the nature scope of ellipsis to be As will emerge below each of these main topics includes a large sub part that deals specifically with nonsentential speech Within the first main topic Q1 there arises the sub issue of whether nonsentential speech falls within the scope of ellipsis or not within the second main topic Q2 there arises the sub issue of what linguistic philosophical implications follow if nonsentential speech does not count as ellipsis I THE NATURE AND SCOPE OF ELLIPSIS A General Issue How Many Natural Kinds There are many things to which the label ellipsis can be readily applied But it's quite unclear whether all of them belong in a single natural kind To explain consider a view assumed in Stainton 2000 Stainton 2004a and elsewhere It is the view that there are fundamentally at least three very different things that readily get called ellipsis each belonging to a distinct kind First there is the very broad phenomenon of a speaker omitting information which the hearer is expected to make use of in interpreting an utterance Included therein possibly as a special case is the use of an abbreviated form of speech when one could have used a more explicit expression See Neale 2000 and Sellars 1954 for more on this idea Philosophy Through Film Mary M. Litch, 2002 Philosophy Through Film offers a stimulating new way to explore the basic questions of philosophy Each chapter uses a popular film to examine one such topic from free will and skepticism to personal identity and artificial intelligence in an approachable yet philosophically rigorous manner A wide range of films are discussed including more recent releases like Being John Malkovich Total Recall and Boys Don't Cry and classics like Rashomon and Crimes and Misdemeanors all readily available through major video rental chains This unique and engaging introduction provides an exciting new way to learn about philosophy and connects complicated philosophical questions to the familiar settings of popular culture A Rational Account of the Grounds of Protestant Religion Edward Stillingfleet, 1665
