The Scale of Perfection and the English Mystical Tradition Joseph E. Milosh, 1996 The scale of perfection and the english mystical tradition Joseph E. Milosh, 1966 The Scale of Perfection and the English Mystical Tradition Joseph E. Milosh, 1966 English Mystics of the Middle Ages Barry A. Windeatt, 1994-09-29 First collection of late medieval English mystical writing which has been newly edited with notes and glossary The Medieval Mystical Tradition in England Edward Alexander Jones, 2004 The regular meetings resumed here with particular focus on Julian of Norwich and Syon Abbey and the Bridgettines The Middle English Mystics Wolfgang Riehle, 2019-06-26 Originally published as an English translation in 1981 The Middle English Mystics is a crucial contribution to the study of the literature of English mysticism This book surveys and analyses the language of metaphor in the writings of such mystics as Richard Rolle Walter Hilton Julian of Norwich and in such anonymous works as The Cloud of Unknowing and the Ancrene Wisse The main emphasis of this comparative and stylistic study is not theological but rather the means by which theological concepts are communicated through language The book sets the English mystics in perspective by establishing their place in the European mystical movement of the Middle Ages It shows how intricate the relationship between English and continental mysticism really is The book suggests that there is clear links between English and German female mysticism yet the mysticism is in the main due not so much to specific influences as to the common background of Christian theology and mysticism Approaching Medieval English Anchoritic and Mystical Texts Dee Dyas, Valerie Edden, Roger Ellis, 2005 Essays suggesting new ways of studying the crucial but sometimes difficult range of medieval mystical material This volume seeks to explore the origins context and content of the anchoritic and mystical texts produced in England during the Middle Ages and to examine the ways in which these texts may be studied and taught today It foregrounds issues of context and interaction seeking both to position medieval spiritual writings against a surprisingly wide range of contemporary contexts and to face the challenge of making these texts accessible to a wider readership The contributions by leading scholars in the field incorporate historical literary and theological perspectives and offer critical approaches and background material which will inform both research and teaching The approaches to Middle English anchoritic and mystical texts suggested in this volume are many and varied In this they reflect the richness and complexity of the contexts from which these writings emerged These essays are offered as part of an ongoing exploration of aspects of medieval spirituality which while posing a considerable challenge to modern readers also offer invaluable insights into the interaction between medieval culture and belief Contributors E A Jones Dee Dyas Valerie Edden Santha Bhattacharji Denis Renevey A C Spearing Thomas Bestul Liz Herbert McAvoy Barry A Windeatt Alexandra Barratt R S Allen Roger Ellis Ann M Hutchison Marion Glasscoe Catherine Innes Parker The Medieval Mystical Tradition in England Marion Glasscoe, 1992 Twelve papers focus on mysticism as an experience and on the work of individual mystics The Medieval Mystical Tradition Marion Glasscoe, 1999 Interdisciplinary studies on medieval

Devotion to the Name of Jesus in Medieval English Literature, c. 1100 - c. 1530 Denis Renevey, 2022-08-01 Devotion to the Name of Jesus in Medieval English Literature c 1100 c 1530 offers a broad but detailed study of the practice of devotion to the Name of Jesus in late medieval England It focuses on key texts written in Latin Anglo Norman and Middle English that demonstrate the way in which devotion moved from monastic circles to a lay public in the late medieval period It argues that devotion to the Name is a core element of Richard Rolle's contemplative practice although devotion to the Name circulated in trilingual England at an earlier stage The volume investigates to what extent the 1274 Second Lyon Council had an impact in the spread of the devotion in England and beyond It also offers illuminating evidence about how Margery Kempe and her scribes used devotion how Eleanor Hull made it an essential component of her meditative sequence seven days of the week and how Lady Margaret Beaufort worked towards its instigation as an official feast

On Deification and Sacred Eloquence Louise

Nelstrop,2019-10-01 This book considers the place of deification in the writings of Julian of Norwich and Richard Rolle two of the fourteenth century English Mystics It argues that as a consequence of a belief in deification both produce writing that is helpfully viewed as sacred eloquence The book begins by discussing the nature of deification employing Norman Russell s typology It explores the realistic and ethical approaches found in the writings of several Early Greek Fathers including Irenaeus of Lyons Cyril of Alexandria Origen and Evagrius Ponticus as well as engaging with the debate around whether deification is a theological idea found in the West across its history The book then turns its attention to Julian and Rolle arguing that both promote forms of deification Rolle offering a primarily ethical approach while Julian s approach is more realistic Finally the book addresses the issue of sacred eloquence arguing that both Rolle and Julian in some sense view their words as divinely inspired in ways that demand an exegetical response that is para biblical Offering an important perspective on a previously understudied area of mysticism and deification this book will be of interest to scholars of mysticism theology and Middle English religious literature

Poetics of the Incarnation Cristina Maria Cervone,2013-02-11 The Gospel of John describes the Incarnation of Christ as the Word made flesh an intriguing phrase that uses the logic of metaphor but is not traditionally understood as merely symbolic Thus the conceptual puzzle of the Incarnation also draws attention to language and form what is the Word how is it related to language how can the Word become flesh Such theological questions haunt the material imagery engaged by medieval writers the structural forms that give their writing shape and even their ideas about language itself In Poetics of the Incarnation Cristina Maria Cervone examines the work of fourteenth century writers who rather than approaching the mystery of the Incarnation through affective identification with the Passion elected to ponder the intellectual implications of the Incarnation in poetical and rhetorical forms Cervone argues that a poetics of the Incarnation becomes the grounds for working through the philosophical and theological implications of language at a point in time when Middle English was emerging as a legitimate if contested medium for theological expression In brief lyrics and complex narratives late medieval English writers including William Langland Julian of Norwich Walter Hilton and the anonymous author of the Charters of Christ took the relationship between God and humanity as a jumping off point for their meditations on the nature of language and thought the elision between the concrete and the abstract the complex relationship between acting and being the work done by poetry itself in and through time and the meaning latent within poetical forms Where Passion devoted writing would focus on the vulnerability and suffering of the fleshly body these texts took imaginative leaps such as when they depict the body of Christ as a lily or the written word Their Incarnational poetics repeatedly call attention to the fact that in theology as in poetics form matters
