Scattered Like Seeds A Novel:

Scattered Like Seeds Shaw J. Dallal, 1999-01-01 Thafer Allam is the son of a celebrated Arab resistance fighter against the British occupation of Palestine before World War II with such strong Arab roots his exile in the United States means that Thafer belongs to two different worlds and returning to his homeland is difficult after years emersed in the culture of the West His career in nuclear technology and law places him in a position of advising Arab governments on U S related nuclear issues Allam moves easily from the living rooms of the Palestinian ghettos to the offices of Arab ministries With the 1973 oil embargo against the west underway Allam tries to reconcile the pull of his Palestinian heritage with his ties to America

Palestinians Born in Exile Juliane Hammer, 2009-08-17 In the decade following the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords some 100 000 diasporic Palestinians returned to the West Bank and Gaza Among them were children and young adults who were born in exile and whose sense of Palestinian identity was shaped not by lived experience but rather through the transmission and re creation of memories images and history As a result returning to the homeland that had never actually been their home presented challenges and disappointments for these young Palestinians who found their lifeways and values sometimes at odds with those of their new neighbors in the West Bank and Gaza This original ethnography records the experiences of Palestinians born in exile who have emigrated to the Palestinian homeland Juliane Hammer interviews young adults between the ages of 16 and 35 to learn how their Palestinian identity has been affected by living in various Arab countries or the United States and then moving to the West Bank and Gaza Their responses underscore how much the experience of living outside of Palestine has become integral to the Palestinian national character even as Palestinians maintain an overwhelming sense of belonging to one another as a people

Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo is a collection of essays on a broad range of topics from Gilgamesh to James Joyce and beyond to Kazuo Ishiguro Michael Ondaatje Ya ar Kemal Cormac McCarthy Abdulrahman Munif and many others Time s Fool is a memorial to the life work of A Clare Brandabur who walked away from a tenure track teaching position at the University of Illinois to embark on a career of teaching in Middle Eastern universities in Jordan Syria Bahrain occupied Palestine Cyprus Ankara and finally Istanbul where she taught for the last decade and a half of her life Had Clare stayed with a career at a Research I university in the United States her scholarship would have been far less rich and free wheeling more narrow concentrated and specialized and she would not have been able to help and inspire her graduate and undergraduate students from the Near East and especially during her last five or six years at Fatih University from around the world The essays are organized into five main groups from Gender and Family Relations and Ecocriticism to Colonialism and Post Colonialism Colonialism and Ireland and Colonialism Palestine Genocide and a final catch all section of Miscellaneous Essays that includes Gilgamesh T E Lawrence Ya ar Kemal Graham Green and modern theory There are also sub categories that transcend the six sections such as Arab Literature Catholicism Women s Studies and Mythology something for everyone in short Clare s essays give a sense of her breadth of scholarship and her very rich play of mind but the real monument to her life s work is in the hearts and minds of the students from around the world whom she influenced The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Waïl S.

 half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world Everyday Life in the Muslim Middle East Donna Lee Bowen, Evelyn A. Early, 2002 A revised and updated edition of a popular and widely used text Being There, Being Here Maurice Ebileeni, 2022-06-16 Arabic is unconditionally the national language of Palestinians but for many it is no longer their mother tongue More than a century after the early waves of immigration to the Americas and more than seven decades after the Nakba of 48 generations of Palestinians have grown up in a variety of different contexts within Israel Palestine and the world at large This ongoing scattered state has led to the proliferation of Palestinian culture as it is simultaneously growing in multiple directions depending on geographical political and lingual contextualization The Palestinian story no longer exists exclusively in Arabic A new generation of Palestinian and Palestinian descended writers and artists from both Latin and North America Scandinavia and Europe at large as well as Israel Palestine are bringing stories of their heritage and the Palestinian nation into a variety of languages such Spanish Italian English Danish and Hebrew among so many other languages Being There Being Here is the product of an eight year long journey in which Maurice Ebileeni explores how the Palestinian homeland is being imagined in multiple languages from a variety of positions both locally and globally The book poses unsettling questions about this current situation and also looks to the future to speculate about how a Palestinian nation might still house the notion of home for an increasingly diverse Palestinian population The Italian Bookshop Among the Vines
