Scavenging the Country for a Heartbeat Neil Shepard, 1993 Scavenging the Country for a Heartbeat takes readers on a journey from the Maine coast to the Pacific Northwest from Vermont to the Florida Keys from the Louisiana swamps to the plains of Kansas and Nebraska Guided by his belief that what is missing makes memory whole poet Neil Shepard revisits landscapes marred by conflict and compromise What he discovers is solace and the possibility of transcendence As a collection these poems detail an emotional evolution a spiritual transformation in which progress is measured in the distances still stretching away Book jacket

The Blueline Anthology Rick Henry, Anthony O. Tyler, Stephanie Coyne-DeGhett, Myra Gann, Alan Steinberg, Alice Wolf Gilborn, 2004-03-01 Since 1979 the literary journal Blueline has served as a venue for literature that reflects the distinctive spirit of the Adirondack region These poems and prose pieces drawn from twenty five years of Blueline's pages represent the abundance and variety of creative responses to the singular geography and history of the Adirondacks Read together however they do something more they reveal a distinct way of looking at the world attuned both to nature in all its various detail and to profound questions about nature and humanity Under the editors discriminating eyes the contributions coalesce into a natural and elegant extension of the region's landscape and people From Joseph Bruchac's Writing by Moonlight and Neal Burdick's Waiting for a Train at the Plattsburgh Amtrak Station to Alice Wolf Gilborn's On Adirondack Porches The Blueline Anthology offers rare glimpses into the soul of a region brief and shifting views that like those glimpsed by a hiker looking out from the trees at the blue mountains capture the eye and the mind

Amid the tensions of family and community and the struggles with desire and disappointment out of which art is made there is all this profusion an unstoppable spring the orange flash of a fox figs and honey in a Greek harbor town and a pianist conjuring lost love in his figured solos our ravenous lives teetering on the edge of today s sadness In his ninth poetry collection The Book of Failures Neil Shepard wanders urban and rural landscapes from American coastlines to foreign shores the sudden signposts deciphering what s won what s lost Though the tone is often elegiac in this prismatic book of human strivings it is woven with wit and wisdom enough to illuminate the night sky and bring unexpected levity to his many discoveries
