

Scenario The Craft of Screenwriting (Short Cuts)

copy link in description

The author of Barbarella and other successful screenplays analyzes the basic structures of effective screenplays, from initial plot lines to realized scripts. All the essential building blocks are discussed in depth: the need for a strong premise the roles of protagonist and antagonist the orchestration of plot, characters and dialogue leading to a clear resolution. This book not only instructs first-time writers on how to go about their work but also serves as a valuable check-list for established authors, and for actors, directors and teachers, in their task of deconstructing and assessing the value of the material placed before them.

9780203080771 The Crash Controversy Martin Barker, Jane Arthurs, Ramaswami Harindranath, 2001 Between 1996-97 an almost unprecedented campaign was mounted in the British press against one film David Cronenberg's Crash. What motivated this campaign? What can it tell us about British film culture? What impact did the campaign have on general audiences? This book, which draws on a year-long investigation supported by the Economic and Social Research Council, offers a series of important and challenging findings and is a major contribution to our understanding of censorship campaigns, how audiences respond to films, and the strategies employed in engaging with such texts.

Contemporary British and Irish Film Directors Yoram Allon, Del Cullen, Hannah Patterson, 2001 The guide encompasses the careers of over 350 directors from the last 20 years. A must for any film studies library, it is a unique reference to the changing dynamics of these cinemas.

New German Cinema Julia Knight, 2004 Comprising a discussion of Alice in the Cities, The Bitter Tears of Petra von Kant, Heimat, and The American Friend, Julia Knight's study examines the American dominance of German film, the framework of European art cinema, and how German cinema engages with contemporary German reality.

Mastering the Craft of Diverse and Inclusive Screenwriting Karla Rae Fuller, 2024-12-20 This accessible and informative textbook provides a guide to the craft of screenwriting with an emphasis on diverse perspectives, underrepresented groups, and their screen stories. Readers will learn to master writing a feature-length screenplay in a framework that focuses on diversity, equity, and inclusion. With case studies to aid understanding, the book explores the screenwriting process in stages, explaining how to create a logline, as well as character bios, writing and choosing a genre, differentiating between writing a treatment, a synopsis, composing an outline, incorporating the formatting process, and finally creating a scene and sequence. The techniques specific to screenwriting will also be covered in the text, such as writing dialogue and action, establishing setting and time period, and most importantly, mastering the craft of visual storytelling. At the same time, the textbook introduces concepts of content choices that are diverse and inclusive, such as stereotypes vs. archetypes, intersectional characters, underrepresented groups, and themes such as social justice, systemic racism, class conflict, gender inequity, and climate change. Due to its subject matter and inclusive approach, this textbook will be an essential guide for all aspiring and current screenwriters who want to successfully navigate and complement today's developing industry.

The Tools of Screenwriting David Howard, Edward Mabley, 1993 In The Tools of Screenwriting, the authors illuminate the essential elements of cinematic storytelling. These elements are guideposts for the aspiring screenwriter, and they can be used in different ways to accomplish a variety of ends. Questions of dramatic structure, plot, dialogue, character development, setting, imagery, and other crucial topics are discussed as they apply to the special art of filmmaking.
