

EXAMPLE 1

BLOOD

The blood that was split because of Macbeth's ambition continuously reappears as a physical reminder that he cannot wash away his evil deeds.

Macbeth sees a bloody dagger floating in the air just before he kills the king.

EXAMPLE 2

Lady Macbeth hallucinates blood on her hands and walks around the castle yelling, "out damn spot, out!" She attempts to wash it off, but her efforts are in vain.

GHOSTS

For Macbeth and Lady Macbeth, ghosts are reminders of the decisions they have made, decisions that haunt each of them.

Lady Macbeth states that she cannot kill King Duncan because he resembled her father as he slept.

Macbeth breaks down at the feast after seeing what he believes is Banquo's ghost.

THE SUPERNATURAL

The Three Weird Sisters are the foremost example of the supernatural throughout the play.

In Act 1, the Three Witches predict that Macbeth will become King and that even though Banquo will never be King, his bloodline will inherit the throne.

In Act 4, the Three Witches are visited by Macbeth. They give him three more prophecies, which are intentionally ambiguous.

Scenes And Motifs:

Hitchcock's Motifs Michael Walker, 2005 Among the abundant Alfred Hitchcock literature Hitchcock's Motifs has found a fresh angle Starting from recurring objects settings character types and events Michael Walker tracks some forty motifs themes and clusters across the whole of Hitchcock's oeuvre including not only all his 52 extant feature films but also representative episodes from his TV series Connections and deeper inflections that Hitchcock fans may have long sensed or suspected can now be seen for what they are an intricately spun web of cross references which gives this unique artist's work the depth consistency and resonance that justifies Hitchcock's place as probably the best known film director ever The title the first book length study of the subject can be used as a mini encyclopaedia of Hitchcock's motifs but the individual entries also give full attention to the wider social contexts hidden sources and the sometimes unconscious meanings present in the work and solidly linking it to its time and place Making Scenes Iain Davidson, April Nowell, 2021-04-13 Dating back to at least 50 000 years ago rock art is one of the oldest forms of human symbolic expression Geographically it spans all the continents on Earth Scenes are common in some rock art and recent work suggests that there are some hints of expression that looks like some of the conventions of western scenic art In this unique volume examining the nature of scenes in rock art researchers examine what defines a scene what are the necessary elements of a scene and what can the evolutionary history tell us about storytelling sequential memory and cognitive evolution among ancient and living cultures Middle Assyrian Seal Motifs from Tell Fekheriye (Syria) Dominik Bonatz, 2021-02-22 Despite ongoing interest in Middle Assyrian glyptic art the publications of Middle Assyrian seals and seal impressions from excavated sites in the Near East are very rare The book is the first to offer a comprehensive study on the seal corpus from an archaeological site historically located in the western territory of the Middle Assyrian state The seal impressions and few original seals which were found during the excavations in Tell Fekheriye Syria substantially add to our understanding of the iconographic repertory and the use of seals in the Middle Assyrian period The corpus dates to the reigns of the Assyrian kings Shalmaneser I and Tukulti Ninurta I in the 13th century B C It documents practices of governance and administration in the growing Middle Assyrian Empire points to activities of high ranking Assyrian officials and unfolds the pictorial reality of political and ideological intensions While finding detailed information on unpublished materials their archaeological contexts and interpretations the reader is also invited to follow a discourse on art state and society for which the Middle Assyrian seal motifs from Tell Fekheriye provide an excellent case study Visualising Glocalization Rubén Montoya González, 2024-12-12 Glocalization can be defined as globalization refracted through the local This book applies the glocalization framework to an archaeological dataset composed of a selection of partially and fully excavated villas their associated architectural spaces and pavements from Hispania Baetica between the 2nd and the 4th centuries AD The Lightning-scene in Ancient Arabic Poetry Ali Ahmad Hussein, 2009 In Old Arabic poetry from the pre Islamic and early Islamic periods to the end of the orthodox Caliphate one theme is the lightning scene In this the protagonist asserts that he could not sleep because he saw lightning flashing far away in the sky The book explores the various functions of this scene and its relationship with other parts of the poem This study achieves two main goals The first sheds light on two important terms connected with Old Arabic poetry the function and the narration We see how a certain element can function differently from text to text and how these different functions influence the narration of a poem and consequently make it to some degree idiosyncratic i e a text that differs from other poems that include the same element The second purpose is to make a comprehensive study of the components namely the motifs included in the lightning scenes Here the author reaches conclusions regarding whether these components differ significantly from text to text or whether they are merely repetitions In other words this study examines whether the lightning scenes in themselves are idiosyncratic or on the contrary are fossilized and conventional follow long established poetic traditions

Incubation as a Type-Scene in the Aqhatu, Kirta, and Hannah Stories Koowon Kim, 2011-05-10
Prior studies of incubation have approached it from a history of religions perspective with a view to historically reconstruct the actual practice of incubation in ancient Near East However this approach has proven unfruitful not due to the dearth of relevant data but because of the confusion with regard to the definition of the term incubation Suggesting a way out of this impasse in previous scholarship this book proposes to read the so called incubation texts from the perspective of incubation as a literary device namely as a type scene It applies Nagler's definition of a type scene to a literary analysis of two Ugaritic mythical texts the Aqhatu and Kirta stories and one biblical story the Hannah story

Following the Formula in Beowulf, Órvar-Odds saga, and Tolkien Michael Fox, 2020-09-21
Following the Formula in Beowulf rvar Odds saga and Tolkien proposes that Beowulf was composed according to a formula Michael Fox imagines the process that generated the poem and provides a model for reading it extending this model to investigate formula in a half line a fitt a digression and a story pattern or folktale including the Old Norse Icelandic rvar Odds saga Fox also explores how J R R Tolkien used the same formula to write Sellic Spell and The Hobbit This investigation uncovers relationships between oral and literate composition between mechanistic composition and author and between listening and reading audiences arguing for a contemporary relevance for Beowulf in thinking about the creative process
