Scent Of Rosewater A New Zealand Bride In Iran:

The Scent of Rosewater Anna Woodward Swinburn, 1998 Anna Woodward Swinburn a young and advenutrous New Zealand woman met and fell in love with Bijan a handsome Persian while on her OE in the UK After living happily together in England and New Zealand for a number of years Bijan was forced to answer the call to return home so Anna eventually followed him to his home town of Mashad a holy Muslim city not far from the Caspian Sea and the Soviet border This is the moving story of Anna and Bijan s love and life in modern day Iran where the fundamentalist authoritarian regime of the Ayatollah and the republican guards failed to erase either Anna s and Bijan s love for one another or Anna s increasing affection and respect both for Bijan s family and the Iranian people as a whole Anna Woodward Swinburn writes simply and gracefully of the wonders of Iran both old and new and the rich culture of the Iranian people As her story carried us along towards its tragic conclusion we learn much about the resilience of an ancient people as well as the courage and compassion of a young New Zealander

The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz, 2010-04-14 Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively

Women and Travel Catheryn Khoo-Lattimore, Erica Wilson, 2017-03-31 Women and Travel Historical and Contemporary Perspectives is a fascinating look at the behavior motivations experiences and needs of women as tourists and travellers drawing on both historic and contemporary eras Surprisingly little research has explored key issues experiences and opportunities in the context of women s travel This revealing volume fills this gap exploring the discourses debates and discussions about women travel and tourism With an international roster of contributors from diverse regions of the world the book celebrates a variety of women s voices Khoo Lattimore and Wilson deliberately sought to include nontraditional and non Western perspectives on women s travel with inclusions of Asian solo female travelers Islamic women travellers and the constraints placed on them and women who cannot travel or choose for whatever reason a home holiday This enlightening volume brings together scholars from the broad areas of tourism hospitality geography and leisure studies to examine how and why women travel The chapters bring light to perspectives from different countries cultures backgrounds and religions and utilize different methods approaches and styles of
