Modern Austrian Literature through the Lens of Adaptation Catriona Firth, 2012-01-01 For decades postwar Austrian literature has been measured against and moulded into a series of generic categories and grand cultural narratives from nostalgic restoration literature of the 1950s through the socially critical anti Heimat novel to recent literary reckonings with Austria's Nazi past. Peering through the lens of film adaptation this book rattles the generic shackles imposed by literary history and provides an entirely new critical perspective on Austrian literature. Its original methodological approach challenges the primacy of written sources in existing scholarship and uses the distortions generated by the shift in medium as a productive starting point for literary analysis. Five case studies approach canonical texts in post-war Austrian literature by Gerhard Fritsch, Franz Innerhofer, Gerhard Roth, Elfriede Jelinek and Robert Schindel through close readings of their cinematic adaptations, concentrating on key areas of narratological concern: plot, narrative perspective, authorship and post-modern ontologies. Setting the texts within the historical, cultural and political discourses that define the Alpine Republic, this study investigates fundamental aspects of Austrian national identity such as its Habsburg and National Socialist legacies.

Daviau, 1987 The purpose of this volume is to help make the major figures of the contemporary generation of writers in Austria accessible to an English speaking audience. The fifteen essays cover the life and works of fifteen authors: Aichinger, Artmann, Bauer, Bernhard, Canetti, Ebner, Fried, Frischmuth, Handke, Innerhofer, Jandl, Jonke, Mayrhofer, Roth and Turrini, with each essay written by a specialist. The contributions are designed to be clear and informative for readers with no background in Austrian or German literature while at the same time sufficiently analytical to make them useful even to specialists in the field. The book should appeal to general readers as well as to students and scholars working in the area of Austrian and German literature or in English and Comparative Literature. New High German William Winston Valentine, 1894 *New High German.
