Stakeholder Engagement Henry Tran,Douglas A. Smith,David G. Buckman,2019-12-19 This book focuses on the topic of the multiple stakeholders that comprise the education community across the P 20 continuum In various ways and forms the authors of the chapters found within this book promote the importance of engaging with the diverse array of stakeholders in order to truly improve education in an increasingly interconnected world The book itself is divided into two major arcs the first of which covers community relations and stakeholder engagement in P 12 schools while the second addresses those same issues in higher education When one considers the activities that take place within education institutions there is a realization that they are influenced and driven by much more than just the educators and administrators who occupy the schools In the editors own work e g see Tran Bon 2016 the importance of the inclusion of the viewpoints and inputs of multiple stakeholders in school decisions when appropriate has been consistently argued given that the school is considered by many to be a social and communal environment To address these issues in this text this book is lucky to have a collection of peer reviewed writing that explore various aspects of how multiple stakeholder input can be used to improve school decisions

Planning Educational Facilities Glen I. Earthman,2013-08-22 Planning Educational Facilities What Educators Need to Know is a book about planning and the responsibilities educators have in the process of planning for educational facilities The book covers every aspect of planning that needs to be done to complete any capital improvement project from the assessment of need to the evaluation of the product and process The text is the most comprehensive book on planning educational facilities on the market Each planning process is described in detail explaining the role of the superintendent and school personnel Descriptions of the various means of contracting with a firm for the construction of a building of the completion of a capital improvement project is provided with a discussion of the benefits and problems involved The book also contains a chapter devoted to problem based learning activities which were derived from practical situations These activities provide a very practical experience of solving typical problems in the planning process This text can be used by the practitioner as a guide to follow in planning educational facilities It can also be used as a text in a school planning course

Effective Communication for District and School Administrators Theodore J. Kowalski,2015-08-20 The book is a unique and necessary contribution to the literature on school administration Research theory and practice were melded to produce a book that can be used as a primary or supplemental text or as professional growth resource for practitioners Communication scholars especially since 1990 have concluded that competence must be defined and studied in the context of professions As such a growing number of medical schools law schools and business schools have integrated communication into their curricula This book provides a resource for such integration into the study and practice of district and school administration

The Principal Bruce M. Whitehead,Floyd Boschee,Robert H. Decker,2012-10-17 The Principal Leadership for a Global Society is the core textbook for aspiring and practicing K 12 school principals Taking a practical and research grounded approach this inspiring text prepares school leaders to successfully face the opportunities and challenges that they will encounter on a day to day basis and throughout their careers The book provides a wide array of pedagogical features to help practicing and aspiring school principals improve programs create a safer and more enriching environment for students and faculty meet school district community state and national standards and much more After reading The Principal the educational leaders of tomorrow will be equipped with innovative practical and successful leadership concepts and ideas that will help them make a powerful impact on not just those who walk through the school doors but the community as well Book Jacket The Rural Educator, 2005 Badges and Incidents Michael J. Kaufman, 2020 Examines the law governing American education and proposes social constructivist pedagogy as a model for reform efforts Public Relations in Schools Theodore J. Kowalski, 2011 For educational administration and leadership students studying school and community relations A contemporary and practice based school public relations text that centers on the importance of communication relationships and technology Outfitting students with a wealth of practical practice based knowledge that they can take directly into the halls of their school the new fifth edition of Public Relations in Schools has a fresh contemporary focus on both how administrators can effectively communicate with the community and how building strong relationships with stakeholders can ultimately lead to overall school improvement Through a blend of theoretical and tacit knowledge this text offers students an in depth guide to 1 how to successfully communicate with both internal and external school entities 2 how to build and maintain positive and active relationships via social and political capital and 3 how to translate the value of these relationships into positive change within the school While exploring these three central themes the book emphasizes how new technologies can aid school success At the same time real world case studies at the beginning of each chapter introduce readers to actual public relations issues and bring the material to life The revised fifth edition of Public Relations in Schools is updated with new materials and references throughout the text including two new chapters one on harnessing technology for your public relations needs and one on collecting assessing and applying public opinion In addition the new fifth edition text contains a matrix at the front of the book showing how content relates to ELCC NCATE Standards the widely used criteria for administrator preparation and licensing ERS Bulletin Educational Research Service (Arlington, Va.), 1998

Curriculum Leadership Allan A. Glatthorn, Floyd Boschee, Bruce M. Whitehead, 2006 Finally a book for graduate students that deals with all aspects of curriculum The authors have done a masterful job in exploring a multi faceted complex subject with rich and current information and excellent interesting writing I enthusiastically endorse this book Robert Ferrera Notre Dame de Namur University It is rare to find a textbook that so closely matches the objectives of a course and the needs of the students who typically take that course Curriculum Leadership Development and Implementation does both extremely well Allen H Seed University of Memphis Curriculum Leadership Development and Implementation is a one of a kind resource written for educational leaders who want to successfully restructure and enhance curriculum in schools today This book provides a plethora of innovative and successful curriculum ideas including reflective case studies Keys to Leadership sections curriculum tips and Challenge sections with key issues and questions in every chapter Also interspersed throughout the book are tried and true strategies that arm administrators with innovative ideas on meeting state and national standards

Rarely has there been a curriculum book that is so useful in today's changing educational scene. This book will help every educational leader who wants to make a difference by: Defining the concepts of curriculum; Describing the contracting nature of curriculum components; Analyzing the hidden curriculum; Unfolding ways to develop and implement curriculum. This is a much needed, highly informative and easy to read account of curriculum development and change for curriculum leaders, those teaching curriculum courses, and those aspiring to become curriculum decision makers. It will provide the knowledge and skills needed to develop and implement a primary or secondary school curriculum.
