God alone cannot suffice for such a government to work It is the most necessary prerequisite for such a government to exist But it cannot retain it cannot nurture it because the government is a covenant a pact made between God and the individual If we lose faith in the individual we break the sacred pact Being granted so many gifts the last act is in our own hands we are the City on the Hill when we believe we are the City on the Hill When we act the part we are the Light of the world and the Inspiration to the World It is really simple if enough individuals carry out this leap of faith a new critical mass will be reached and a miracle will turn the tide in our affairs once more and we like the patriots of old will once again fulfill our own self actualization process and bequeath to our posterity the ability and responsibility to reach their own Eden's Last Child

Eden's Garden Richard J. Coleman,2007 The time is ripe for a robust discussion of human nature In Eden s Garden Rethinking Sin and Evil in an Era of Scientific Promise Richard Coleman examines the notion of sin in a contemporary world that values scientific and nonreligious modes of thought regarding human behavior This work is not an anti science polemic but rather an argument to show how sin and evil can make sense to the nonreligious mind and how it is valuable to make sense of such phenomena The author reconceptualizes sin and evil as indelible pieces of our evolutionary history preventing them from being ostracized as too religious without substance mired in the past Coleman redeems theology for what it can offer to the understanding of sin and evil while embracing and respecting what science can offer to further the common good Examining themes in religion philosophy and theology it is ideal for use in the numerous courses that move across these disciplines
