Second Life German Cinemas First Decades:

A Second Life, 1996     The A to Z of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2010-04-01 German film is diverse and multi faceted its history includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for the construction of a narrative of German film While the disjuncture generates distinct points of separation it also highlights continuities between the ruptures Outlining the richness of German film The A to Z of German Cinema covers mainstream alternative and experimental film from 1895 to the present through a chronology introductory essay appendix of the 100 most significant German films a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema The book s broad canvas will lead students and scholars of cinema to appreciate the complex nature of German film     Weimar Cinema, Embodiment, and Historicity Mason Kamana Allred, 2017-01-20 In its retrieval and re construction the past has become interwoven with the images and structure of cinema Not only have mass media especially film and television shaped the content of memories and histories but they have also shaped their very form Combining historicization with close readings of German director Ernst Lubitsch s historical films this book focuses on an early turning point in this development exploring how the medium of film shaped modern historical experience and understanding how it moved embodied audiences through moving images     Celebrating 1895 John Fullerton, 1998 Includes 27 of the finest papers presented at The Centenary of Cinema conference in June 1995     Encyclopedia of Early Cinema Richard Abel, 2005 One volume reference work on the first twenty five years of the cinema s international emergence from the early 1890s to the mid 1910s     A Second Life Thomas Elsaesser, Michael Wedel, 1996 In the Beginning Recollections of Software Pioneers records the stories of computing s past enabling today s professionals to improve on the realities of yesterday The stories in this book clearly show that modern concepts such as data abstraction modularity and structured approaches date much earlier in the field than their appearance in academic literature These stories help capture the true evolution The book illustrates human experiences and industry turning points through personal recollections by the pioneers people like Barry Boehm Peter Denning Watts Humphrey Frank Land and a dozen others     The Europeanization of Cinema Randall Halle, 2014-06-15 In this innovative study German and film studies scholar Randall Halle advances the concept of interzones geographical and ideational spaces of transit interaction transformation and contested diversity as a mechanism for analyzing European cinema He focuses especially on films about borders borderlands and cultural zones as he traces the development of interzones from the inception of central European cinema to the avant garde films of today Throughout he shows how cinema both reflects and engenders interzones that explore the important questions of Europe's social order imperialism and nation building in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries first contact between former adversaries such as East and West Germany following World War II and the Cold War and migration neo colonialism and cultural imperialism in the twenty first century Ultimately Halle argues that today's cinema both produces and reflects imaginative communities He demonstrates how rather than simply erasing boundaries the European Union instead fosters a network of cultural interzones that encourage cinematic exploration of the new Europe's processes and limits of connectivity tolerance and cooperation Icons of Danish Modernity Julie K. Allen, 2013-07-15 Julie Allen utilizes the lives and friendship of the Danish literary critic George Brandes 1842-1927 and the silent film star Asta Nielsen 1881-1972 to explore questions of culture and national identity in early twentieth century Denmark Danish culture and politics were influenced in this period by the country's deeply ambivalent relationship with Germany Brandes and Nielsen both of whom lived and worked in Germany for significant periods of time were seen as dangerously cosmopolitan by the Danish public even while they served as international cultural ambassadors for the very society that rejected them during their lifetimes Allen argues that they were the prototypical representatives of a socially liberal and culturally modern Danishness Danskhed that Denmark itself only gradually and later grew into This lively study brings its central characters to life while offering an original thought provoking analysis of the origins and permutations of Danish modernism and Danish national identity issues that continue to be significant in today's multi ethnic Denmark Icons of Danish Modernity is a book about the uneasy waves that arise when celebrities take on national symbolism and the beginnings of this formula in the early twentieth century Light Motives Randall Halle, Margaret McCarthy, 2003 Light Motives undertakes a long overdue critical reassessment of German popular cinema challenging the traditional view of German film history and offering new ways to think about popular cinema in general Germany and the Americas Thomas Adam, 2005-11-07 This comprehensive encyclopedia details the close ties between the German speaking world and the Americas examining the extensive Germanic cultural and political legacy in the nations of the New World and the equally substantial influence of the Americas on the Germanic nations From the medical discoveries of Dr Johann Siegmund surgeon general to Simon Bolivar to the amazing explorations of the early 19th century German explorer Alexander von Humboldt whose South American and Caribbean travels made him one of the most celebrated men in Europe Germany and the Americas examines both the profound Germanic cultural and political legacy throughout the Americas and the lasting influence of American culture on the German speaking world Ever since Baron von Steuben helped create George Washington's army German Americans have exhibited decisive leadership not only in the military but also in politics the arts and business Germany and the Americas charts the lasting links between the Germanic world and the nations of the Americas in a comprehensive survey featuring a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of transatlantic history When Heimat Meets Hollywood Christine Haase, 2007 Contemporary connections between German directors and

Hollywood and their implications for German American and transnational film The film histories of Germany and the United States have long been seen as intertwined but scholarship has focused on migr works of the 1930s and 1940s on links between Weimar film and American film noir and on the conflicted relationship between directors of the New German Cinema and Hollywood Recently German film studies has begun reexamining the interconnection of the two film cultures and focusing on the internationalism of German cinema but little research has been done on contemporary German directors involvement in American cinema a gap in scholarship that this book fills The study offers ways of understanding current German cinematic engagement with America and different directorial responses to the hegemonic pressures of Hollywood It delineates the historical trajectory of German American film relations in the 20th century then analyzes the careers and works of four German born directors who have significant ties with American cinema Wolfgang Petersen Roland Emmerich Percy Adlon and Tom Tykwer A series of close readings of their productions isolates the cinematic practices and strategies with which these filmmakers negotiate the different national cultural and cinematic paradigms they traverse The book analyzes constructions of national cultural identity probes the boundaries of national cinemas and expands our understanding of emerging hybrid film cultures It is a contribution to German film studies and to the emerging field of transnational film studies Christine Haase is Associate Professor of German at the University of Georgia

Film 1900 Annemone Ligensa, Klaus Kreimeier, 2009-10-05 Essays examining the relationships between culture film and the audience around the turn of the twentieth century The current digital revolution has sparked a renewed interest in the origins and trajectory of modern media particularly in the years around 1900 when the technology was rapidly developing This collection aims to broaden our understanding of early cinema as a significant innovation in media history Joining traditional scholarship with fresh insights from a variety of disciplines this book explains the aesthetic and institutional characteristics in early cinema within the context of the contemporary media landscape It also addresses transcultural developments such as scientific revolutions industrialization urbanization and globalization as well as differing attitudes toward modernization Film 1900 is an important reassessment of early cinema s position in cultural history The capable Ligensa and Kreimeier invited a coterie of renowned Continental scholars and thinkers to reflect on issues of modernity and cinema by harking back to the fin de si cle Summing Up Highly recommended Graduate students researchers faculty T Lindval Choice

The Image in Early Cinema Scott Curtis, Philippe Gauthier, Tom Gunning, Joshua Yumibe, 2018-03-22 In The Image in Early Cinema the contributors examine intersections between early cinematic form technology theory practice and broader modes of visual culture They argue that early cinema emerged within a visual culture composed of a variety of traditions in art science education and image making Even as methods of motion picture production and distribution materialized they drew from and challenged practices and conventions in other mediums This rich visual culture produced a complicated overlapping network of image making traditions innovations and borrowing among painting tableaux vivants photography and other pictorial and projection practices Using a variety of concepts and theories the contributors explore these crisscrossing traditions and work against an essentialist notion of media to conceptualize the dynamic interrelationship between images and their context

Nordisk Films Kompagni 1906–1924 Isak Thorsen, 2017-10-01 This comprehensive study of the Danish film company demonstrates how it became one of the most important innovators of the silent era Established in 1906 Nordisk Films Kompagni's rise and fall is one of the most dramatic stories of the early film industry Based on archival research primarily in the company's surviving business archives this volume describes and analyzes how Nordisk Films became one of the leading players in the world market and why the company failed to maintain this position Isak Thorsen examines Nordisk Film as a business and organization from its establishment in 1906 until 1924 when founder Ole Olsen stepped back He covers a wide range of topics including the competitive advantages Nordisk Film gained in reorganizing the production to multiple reel films around 1910 the company's highly efficient film production which anticipated the departmentalized organization of Hollywood Nordisk Film's aggressive expansion strategy in Germany Central Europe and Russia during the First World War and the grand plans for taking control of UFA in association with the American Famous Players in the post war years

Between the Forest and the Road Stephan Ehrig, Benjamin Schaper, Elizabeth Ward, 2023-08-11 Audiences for contemporary German film and television are becoming increasingly transnational and depictions of German cultural history are moving beyond the typical post war focus on Germany's problematic past Entertaining German Culture explores this radical shift building on recent research into transnational culture to argue that a new process of internal and external cultural reabsorption is taking place through areas of mutually assimilating cultural exchange such as streaming services an increasingly international film market and the import and export of Anglo American media formats

The End of Cinema as We Know it Jon Lewis, 2002 In The End of Cinema As We Know It contributors well known in the movie field talk about the movie industry and look at the variety of new ways we are viewing films They query whether or not we are getting different better movies

Pink-Slipped Jane M Gaines, 2018-02-23 Women held more positions of power in the silent film era than at any other time in American motion picture history Marion Leonard broke from acting to cofound a feature film company Gene Gauntier the face of Kalem Films also wrote the first script of Ben Hur Helen Holmes choreographed her own breathtaking on camera stunt work Yet they and the other pioneering filmmaking women vanished from memory Using individual careers as a point of departure Jane M Gaines charts how women first fell out of the limelight and then out of the film history itself A more perplexing event cemented their obscurity the failure of 1970s feminist historiography to rediscover them Gaines examines how it happened against a backdrop of feminist theory and her own meditation on the limits that historiography imposes on scholars Pondering how silent era women have become absent in the abstract while present in reality Gaines sees a need for a theory of these artists pasts that relates their aspirations to those of contemporary women A bold journey through history and memory Pink Slipped pursues the still elusive fate of the influential women in the early years of film

Germany at the Fin de Siècle Suzanne Marchand, David Lindenfeld, 2004-10-01 The phrase fin de siècle conjures up images of artistic experimentation and political decadence The contributors to this volume argue that Wilhelmine Germany best known for its industrial and military muscle also shared these traits Their essays look back to the years between 1885 and 1914 to find in Germany a mixture of sociopolitical malaise and experimental exhilaration that was similar in many ways to the better known cases of France and Austria Revising the view that the German Second Reich was merely a precursor to the Third this broad scoped study presents pre World War I Germany in its own fascinating and often contradictory terms The foundations of the antiliberal passions that would plague the Weimar Republic are evident but Wilhelmine society also had a lighter more playful and moderate spirit one that was largely extinguished by the Great War Blending social cultural and intellectual history the contributors a distinguished cross section of older and younger scholars trace changing German views on liberalism penal reform race women art popular culture and technology They juxtapose better known figures such as Max Weber Thomas Mann and Martin Heidegger with now forgotten individuals like the Jewish feminist novelist Grete Meisel Hess and the iconoclastic Swiss painter Arnold Böcklin Their essay topics range from the esoteric and erotic poetry of Stefan George to the Jewish comedy of the Herrnsfeld Theater Modernity is examined from the perspectives of bourgeois cinema goers and judicial reformers as well as from the viewpoint of Carl Jung The result is a variegated picture of an unsettled world rich in its innovations ambitious in its undertakings and often apocalyptic in its dreams
