Second Skin Stories And Poems:

Second Skin Terry Hertzler, 2003-01-01 Second Skin John Hawkes, 2013-06-15 John Hawkes is an extraordinary writer I have always admired his books They should be more widely read Saul Bellow Skipper an ex World War II naval Lieutenant and the narrator of Second Skin interweaves past and present what he refers to as his naked history in a series of episodes that tell the story of a volatile life marked by pitiful losses as well as a more elusive overwhelming joy The past the suicides of his father wife and daughter the murder of his son in law a brutal rape and subsequent mutiny at sea The present caring for his granddaughter on a northern island where he works as an artificial inseminator of cows and attempts to reclaim the innocence with which he faced the tragedies of his earlier life Combining unflinching descriptions of suffering with his sense of beauty Hawkes is a master of nimble and sensuous prose who makes the awful and mundane fantastic and occasionally makes the fantastic surreal The Cosmological Eye Henry Miller, 2013-10-15 This collection first published by New Directions in 1939 contains a number of Henry Miller's most important shorter prose writings They are taken from the Paris books Black Spring 1936 and Max and the White Phagocytes 1938 and were for the most part written at about the same time as Tropic of Capricorn the period of Miller's and Durrell's life in the famous Villa Seurat in Paris As is usual with Miller these pieces cannot be tagged with the label of any given literary category The unforgettable portrait of Max the Paris drifter and the probably autobiographical Tailor Shop are basically short stories but even here the irrepressible vitality of Miller's personality keeps breaking into the narrative And in the critical and philosophical essays the prose poems and surrealist fantasies the travel sketches and scenarios Miller's passion for fiction for telling the endless story of his extraordinary life cannot be held down Life as no other modern author has lived it or can write it bursts from these pages the life of the mind and the body of people places and things of ideas and the imagination The Collected Longer Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 1968 This is a companion volume to the Collected Shorter Poems of Kenneth Rexroth which was published in 1967 All of the long poems written over the past forty years are included The Homestead Called Damascus 1920 25 A Prolegomenon to a Theodicy 1925 27 The Phoenix and the Tortoise 1940 44 The Dragon and the Unicorn 1944 50 and The Heart's Garden The Garden's Heart 1967 68 As we read the long poems together and in sequence we can see that Rexroth is a philosophical poet of consequence who offers us a comprehensive system of values based on the realization of the ethical mysticism of universal responsibility He is concerned above all with process the movement from the Dual to the Other I have tried Rexroth writes to embody in verse the belief that the only valid conservation of value lies in the assumption of unlimited liability the supernatural identification of the self with the tragic unity of creative process I hope I have made it clear that the self does not do this by an act of will by sheer assertion He who would save his life must lose it San Diego Poetry Annual -- 2008 William Harry Harding, publisher, 2009-04-16 The 3rd edition of the San Diego Poetry Annual features the celebrated Dorianne Laux Steve Kowit Sam Hamod alongside those who are published here for the first time revealing the diversity of talent throughout San Diego across every plane race ethnicity gender sexual orientation age language economics location occupation To ensure the permanence of this collection copies of each edition are donated in the name of contributing poets to public and college libraries in San Diego County and to select private libraries nationally

New Selected Poems, 1970-1985 Jerome Rothenberg, 1986 Acclaimed poet and translator editor of such ground breaking journals and anthologies as Alcheringa and Technicians of the Sacred pioneer in the fields of performance poetry and ethnopoetics Jerome Rothenberg is a literary radical and a major force in American poetry Gathered here in his New Selected Poems 1970 1985 are pivotal poems from four previous New Directions collections Poland 1931 1974 A Seneca Journal 1978 Vienna Blood 1980 and That Dada Strain 1983 Rothenberg describes his new selection as an attempt to isolate in the work of the last fifteen years and a little more the thread of a single long poem or sequence in which figures and voice s without context in the earlier books find a location and a shape Open ended explorative and exuberantly and irreverently epic the sequence ends with two new and previously uncollected poems 15 Flower World Variations and Visions of Jesus

Selected Poems Robert Duncan, 1997 Bertholf s selections are so attuned to the essentials of Duncan s writing that even those familiar with the whole body of Duncan s work will become more sensitized to his recurring imagery and consistency of thought pattern throughout this collection Publishers Weekly Lippincott's Monthly Magazine, 1914 At Heaven's Gate Robert Penn Warren, 2017-05-30 The second novel by Robert Penn Warren author of the Pulitzer Prize winning All The King s Men is a tour de force and a neglected classic At Heaven s Gate Robert Penn Warren s second novel is a neglected classic of twentieth century fiction First published in 1943 it grew out of the author s years in Nashville during a period of political and financial scandals much like those later so memorably portrayed his Pulitzer Prize winning All The King s Men Other formative elements as he has said came originally out of Dante by a winding path During the winter of 1939 40 in Rome where the first half of the book was written one of the most touching characters a Christ bit mountaineer and his part of the story literally came full blown to the author in a typhus induced delirium At Heaven s Gate is a novel of violence of human beings struggling against a fate beyond their power to alter of corruption and of honor It is the story of Sue Murdock the daughter of an unscrupulous speculator who has created a financial empire in the South and the three men with whom she tries to escape the dominance of her father and her father s world The background is the capital of a Southern state in the late twenties and the promoters and politicians the aristocrats and poor whites the labor organizers and the dispossessed farmers the backwoods prophets and university intellectuals who are drawn into its orbit Warren s picture of the South is as fresh dramatic and powerful today as it was when the book was first published Its plot structure is a tour de force

Solitudes Crowded with Loneliness Bob Kaufman, 1965 Published in 1965 Solitudes Crowded with Loneliness assembles ten years work of Bob Kaufman celebrated in San Francisco as the original Beat and in France as the American Rimbaud Bob Kaufman promotes a spontaneous prophetic verse mixing street talk and jazz with vision

humor protest love and wonder by one of America's most original voices Manimekhalai பரிபாடல், 1989 Never before translated into English the Manimekhalai is one of the great classics of Indian culture A second century Tamil verse epic it is a sequel to the Shilappadikaram New Directions 1965 which was also masterfully translated into prose by the acclaimed musician and scholar of Hinduism Alain Daniélou with details of the period's arts customs and religions the Manimekhalai provides an extraordinary picture of an age that suddenly comes back to life It is the story of a beautiful young dancer who decides to forego her looming career as a courtesan in order to dedicate her life with the aid of gods demigods and a magic bowl called the Cow of Abundance to charity and to attaining the bright light of knowledge We'll to the Woods No More Edouard Dujardin, 1990 A delightful period piece of Paris in the late 1880's We'll to the Woods No More Les lauriers sont coupés retains its importance as the first use of the monologue interior and the inspiration for the stream of consciousness technique perfected by James Joyce Dujardin's charming tale told with insight and irony recounts what goes on in the mind of a young man about town in love with a Parisian actress Mallarmé described the poetry of the telling as the instant seized by the throat Originally published in France in 1887 the first English translation by Joyce scholar Stuart Gilbert was published by New Directions in 1938 In 1957 Leon Edel's perceptive historical essay reintroduced the book as the rare and beautiful case of a minor work which launched a major movement The Lime Twig John Hawkes, 2013-05-15 An English horse race the Golden Bowl at Aldington provides the background for John Hawkes' exciting novel The Lime Twig which tells of an ingenious plot to steal and race a horse under a false name But it would be unfair to the reader to reveal what happens when a gang of professional crooks gets wind of the scheme and moves to muscle in on this bettor's dream of a long odds situation Worked out with all the meticulous detail terror and suspense of a nightmare the tale is on one level comparable to a Graham Greene thriller on another it explores a group of people their relationships fears and loves For as Leslie A. Fiedler says in his introduction John Hawkes makes terror rather than love the center of his work knowing all the while of course that there can be no terror without the hope for love and love's defeat The Blood Oranges John Hawkes, 1971 Need I insist that the only enemy of the mature marriage is monogamy That anything less than sexual multiplicity is naive That our sexual selves are merely idlers in a vast wood Thus the central theme of John Hawkes's widely acclaimed novel The Blood Oranges is boldly asserted by its narrator Cyril the archetypal multisexualist Likening himself to a white bull on Love's tapestry he pursues his romantic vision in a primitive Mediterranean landscape There two couples Cyril and Fiona Hugh and Catherine mingle their loves in an Illyria that brings to mind the equally timeless countryside of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night The Henry Miller Reader Henry Miller, 1969 A collection of works spanning the entire career of great 20th century American writer Henry Miller edited and introduced by Lawrence Durrell Levin's Mill Johannes Bobrowski, Janet Cropper, 1996 Sharply funny look at provincial prejudice Set in the area that has variously been West Prussia Poland Livonia and in 1974 part of Germany The Yellow Sofa Eça de Queirós, 1996 On discovering his wife in the arms of another man the protagonist Godofredo Alves throws her out But as the dishes pile up Alves has second thoughts What s more does he really want to fight a duel that might get him killed A spoof on honor by a 19th Century Portuguese writer Five Plays; Comedies and Tragicomedies Federico García Lorca,1963 Two additional comedies published here in book form in English for the first time are The Billy Club Puppets a guignol type farce with delicate wit and The Butterfly s Evil Spell an insect comedy about a beetle poet who aspires to be a butterfly Annotations John Keene,2017-04-11 Genius brilliant polished and of considerable depth Ishmael Reed An experimental first novel of poem like compression Annotations has a great deal to say about growing up Black in St Louis Reminiscent of Jean Toomer s Cane the book is in part a meditation on African American autobiography Keene explores questions of identity from many angles from race to social class to sexuality gay and straight Employing all manner of textual play and rhythmic and rhetorical maneuvers he re creates his life story as a jazz fugue in words
