Second Language Writers Text Linguistic And Rhetorical Features:

Second Language Writers' Text Eli Hinkel, 2002 Presents results of large scale study of university level text produced by writers who are not native speakers of English to determine the specific syntactic lexical rhetorical features that differ from those in texts written by native speakers

Second Language Writers' Text Eli Hinkel, 2002-01-01 This comprehensive and detailed analysis of second language writers text identifies explicitly and quantifiably where their text differs from that of native speakers of English The book is based on the results of a large scale study of university level native speaker and non native speaker essays written in response to six prompts Specifically the research investigates the frequencies of uses of 68 linguistic syntactic and lexical and rhetorical features in essays written by advanced non native speakers compared with those in the essays of native speakers enrolled in first year composition courses The selection of features for inclusion in this analysis is based on their textual functions and meanings as identified in earlier research on English language grammar and lexis Such analysis is valuable because it can inform the teaching of grammar and lexis as well as discourse and serve as a basis for second language curriculum and course design and provide valuable insight for second language pedagogical applications of the study s findings

Exploring the Cross-Language Transfer of L1 Rhetorical Knowledge in L2 Writing Xing Wei, 2023-12-02 This book addresses the transfer of rhetorical knowledge from a first language L1 to a second language L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer a common cognitive phenomenon in the L2 writing of students in foreign language learning environments It investigates L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer from a cognitive perspective and examines a specific component of L2 writers agency in this transfer namely metacognition The book s ultimate goal is to enhance our understanding of the cognitive mechanism of rhetorical transfer across languages This goal is in turn connected to the need to determine how L1 rhetorical knowledge can be steered and oriented toward successful L2 writing To this end this book proposes a theoretical framework for transfer studies encompassing the dimensions of text transfer agency and L2 essay raters It facilitates an in depth exploration of the intricacies involved in L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer It then presents empirical studies on this transfer Embracing a dynamic perspective this book furthers our understanding of interlingual rhetorical transfer as a conscious or intuitive process for making meaning one that can be monitored and steered Moreover it discusses the pedagogical implications for L2 writing instruction that guides students to use metacognition to transfer L1 rhetorical knowledge during L2 writing

Bilingualism in the USA
Fredric Field, 2011 This text provides an overview of bi and multilingualism as a worldwide phenomenon It features comprehensive discussions of many of the linguistic social political and educational issues found in an increasingly multilingual nation and world To this end the book takes the Chicano Latino community of Southern California where Spanish English bilingualism has over a century and a half of history and presents a detailed case study thereby situating the community in a much broader social context Spanish is the second most widely spoken language in the U S after English yet for the most part its speakers form a language minority that essentially lacks the social political and educational support necessary to derive the many cognitive socioeconomic and educational benefits that proficient bilingualism can provide The issues facing Spanish English bilinguals in the Los Angeles area are relevant to nearly every bi and multilingual community irrespective of nation language and or ethnicity Ethnographic Perspectives on Academic Writing Brian Paltridge,Sue Starfield,2016-12-05 This book argues that adopting ethnographically oriented perspectives on research into academic writing is a valuable means of deepening understanding of the social influences on language use and individuals experiences in academic writing contexts helping to gain insider views of writers experiences writing practices and the contexts in which academic texts are produced and assessed
