Second Look At Calgary's Public Art:

Sights of Resistance Robert James Belton, 2001 CD ROM contains Chapters from text Glossary Hiding the Audience Frances W. Kaye, 2003-03 Hiding the Audience examines how the development of Canadian prairie arts institutions in the context of an implicitly Euro or Anglo Canadian audience clashed with the creation of regional arts that needed to acknowledge a Native Canadian presence to flourish It looks in detail at the regional versus international strains in the history of the Banff Centre at the development of the Glenbow Museum and the controversy over the Spirit Sings exhibition at the two decades of contention regarding statues of Louis Riel in Regina and Winnipeg and at the contrasts in audience participation in two of 25th Street Theatre's productions one about farmers and the other about Metis people Primarily a work of cultural history this study uses archival sources post colonial theory and the theories implied in the fiction of Cherokee author Thomas King to probe the ways in which the whitestream assumptions of the individuals who institutionalized the arts on the Prairies hid both a Native audience and the kinds of issues and presentations such an audience might reasonably expect to see and that might help make the settler audience understand the responsibilities of becoming native to this place The interdisciplinary nature of the book makes it useful to scholars in Native Studies Museum Studies Art History Theatre and English as well as to arts administrators and patrons art lovers and artists A Second Look at Calgary's Public Art Barbara Kwasny, Elaine Peake, 1992-01-01 Suburban Modern Robert M. Stamp, 2004 While avant garde modernism disrupted the art salons architecture schools and design studios of the world's more sophisticated urban centres in the 20th century Calgary slept through the cultural upheavals as a provincial backwater Calgary's initiation to modernism might be dated to February 13 1947 when Imperial Oil blew in its famous well at Leduc Or the 1948 football season when Tom Brooks and Les Lear wrapped the Calgary Stampeders football team around an innovative and modernist looking T formation backfield to win the Grey Cup Calgarians embraced the modern age after the Second World War taking modernism into the streets and into the suburbs They went beyond art architecture and design and redefined modernism to include homes furniture appliances and cars In the process Calgarians democratized feminized and suburbanized modernism Suburban Modern examines controversies over coloured margarine and mixed drinking in post war Calgary It shows how new petro office buildings transformed the downtown skyline during the 1950s and 1960s and how new bus lines roads and bridges changed the city's transportation network As the city sprawled horizontally to engulf its ever expanding suburbs shoppers deserted downtown for suburban malls The book follows young couples into their post war dream homes with modern furnishings and barbecue appointed patios Suburban Modern argues that the suburbs rather than the downtown defined Calgary's approach to modernism Discover Southeast Calgary's Parks and Green Spaces David W. country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada s motto and a good description of this volume s range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada s finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada Uplift PearlAnn Reichwein, Karen Wall, 2020-11-15 The Banff School opened its doors in 1933 by offering a summer drama course Since then it has grown into a renowned cultural destination today known as the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity As PearlAnn Reichwein and Karen Wall recount in this engaging history over its first four decades the school produced and circulated ideals of culture and liberal democratic citizenship that were intrinsic to the development of modern Canada Uplift traces the role of the school in shaping arts and cultural education as reflected in its array of artistic political economic and ideological interests Situated within Banff National Park the school and its surroundings combined stunning natural scenery and cultural capital in a symbolic national landscape In an era of unstable cultural policy and funding Uplift draws welcome attention to the place of fine arts culture and the humanities in public education and in Canada s history
