author's lens it's a story of generational changes throughout which nostalgia merges with hope and zest for life. Based on the real life of the author born in ex Yugoslavia this autobiography depicts very well the divergence and the struggles of a country that has journeyed through communism and has experienced divisions in comparison to the democratic society of the United Kingdom and other nearby countries. Within its cover Family represents a column with an unusual background. Friendship marks a pillar to rely on. Music and its evolution in technology and those artists who made its history function as background and soundtrack. A book that deserves to be read. Its sense of humour permeates throughout making the narrative smooth, pleasant and compelling, a real treasure to dip into.

Jonnathan South Born in the Seventies in a country at the time called Yugoslavia the author spent his childhood witnessing the communistic era of President Tito with all the contradictions of a country whose boundaries partially Balkan called historically have been widely disputed. When he decided to move to the UK he was in his twenties and started to work as a male au pair obtaining the Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English. After writing for around thirty years for his own pleasure in 2020 he published his first book Morality As It Stands. His first hand experience in different societies has exposed him to different ideologies of governance which have formed him as a person with a wider lensed outlook on life. This book is the witty and emotionally provoking description of part of this adventurous and unconventional life.

Adrian Mole and the Weapons of Mass Destruction Sue Townsend, 2006-11 The further misadventures of the world's oldest adolescent.

Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children's and young adult literature which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines: education, English and library and information science.

Humor in Young Adult Literature Walter Hogan, 2005 Celebrates the accomplishments of YA authors acclaimed for producing high quality comedies who have not yet been treated in a book length bio critical study. Simultaneously it reminds readers that no matter how funny an author of fiction may be if he shows off his wit in ways that fail to play a natural role in advancing his narrative he is not writing good fiction. To demonstrate this humorous passages are presented to illustrate the contribution a sense of humor can make to a work of fiction. The book is arranged topically to facilitate a comparison of distinctive treatments by various authors of adolescent life events such as sibling rivalry, bullies and first dates.
