The Invention of the English Landscape Peter Borsay, Rosemary Sweet, 2023-07-27. Since at least the Reformation, English men and women have been engaged in visiting, exploring, and portraying in words and images the landscape of their nation. The Invention of the English Landscape examines these journeys and investigations to explore how the natural and historic English landscape was reconfigured to become a widely enjoyed cultural and leisure resource. Peter Borsay considers the manifold forces behind this transformation, such as the rise of consumer culture, the media, industrial, and transport revolutions, the Enlightenment, Romanticism, and the Gothic revival. In doing so, he reveals the development of a powerful bond between landscape and natural identity against the backdrop of social and political change from the early modern period to the start of the Second World War. Borsay's interdisciplinary approach demonstrates how human understandings of the natural world shaped the geography of England and uncovers a wealth of valuable material from novels and poems to paintings that expose historical understandings of the landscape. This innovative approach illuminates how the English countryside and historic buildings became cultural icons behind which the nation was rallied during war time and explores the emergence of a post-war heritage industry that is now a definitive part of British cultural life.

Landscape, Memory and History Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2003-05-20. How do people perceive the land around them, and how is that perception changed by history? This book explores this question from an anthropological angle, assessing the connections between place, space, identity, nationalism, history, and memory in a variety of different settings around the world. Taking historical change and memory as key themes, it is a broad study that will appeal to a readership across the social sciences. Contributors from North America, Australia, New Zealand, Taiwan, and Europe explore a wide variety of case studies that includes seascapes in Jamaica, the Solomon Islands, the forests of Madagascar, Aboriginal and European notions of landscape in Australia, place and identity in 19th-century maps, and the bogs of Ireland, contemporary concerns.

over changing landscapes in Papua New Guinea and representations of landscape and history in the poetry of the Scottish Borders Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature Writing Anneke Lubkowitz, 2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography's interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie's allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re-writing of the outdoors and John Burnside's use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfolds in these texts The Regional Travel Guide for New England (United States) , Nature and Other Essays Ralph Waldo Emerson, 2012-03-12 A soul satisfying collection of 12 essays by the noted philosopher and poet who embraced independence rejected conformity and loved nature Includes the title essay plus Character Intellect Spiritual Laws Circles and others Landscape Aesthetics Alberto L. Siani, 2024-07-16 The notion of landscape typically seems innocuous associated with leisure and contemplation Likewise aesthetics is often seen as apolitical a matter of subjective tastes and preferences This book challenges the common understanding of these categories as disengaged and demonstrates how uniting landscape studies and philosophical aesthetics opens new ways of addressing both the environmental crisis and the crisis of the humanities Alberto L Siani argues that the concept of landscape helps us overcome deeply ingrained oppositions such as nature and culture spirit and flesh or the environment and the human Landscape represents the intersection of these categories and therefore provides a helpful vantage point on contemporary predicaments that cannot be understood within dualistic frameworks An engaged aesthetics shows that landscapes are not simply ways of seeing the world but ways of being in the world offering practical guidance for inhabiting places ethically Landscape Aesthetics sheds new light on issues spanning art and its interpretation environmentalism temporality lived spaces justice education and interdisciplinarity Bringing together a wide range of sources across philosophy and other disciplines as well as personal experience Siani reveals the key role of landscape and aesthetics in responding to the pressing crises we face today Modern British Nature Writing, 1789-2020 Will Abberley, Christina Alt, David Higgins, Graham Huggan, Pippa Marland, 2022-03-17 This first full length study of modern British nature writing is timely and invaluable for literary scholarship in the environmental crisis
