Growing from a child's game the bizarrely titled The Magnet Editor ran for ten years and a breathtaking 47 series. In bringing the series to life Nick Goodman drew from 70s pop culture including Doctor Who and The New Avengers and shared it only with his bewildered mother and childhood friends. Jo Bunsell was one such friend and soon the pair would be transported into a shared universe of preposterous and badly designed monsters and non-stop adventure with their extraordinary and strangely named hero Cabin Release. Goodman and Bunsell open up their archive of materials and memories and take you on a roller coaster ride into their world. Magnet Memories is an episode guide, a frank critical incredulous and nostalgic reflection, a snapshot of childhood in the 70s and 80s and it's possibly the most wonderfully bonkers cult TV book ever published. A

Mile Square of Chicago Marjorie Warvelle Bear, 2007 Legend of the Highland Dragon Isabel Cooper, 2013-12-03 She wasn't looking to claim the heart of a dragon but when this bluestocking goes toe to toe with a brooding broken Highland warrior she'll find just how easy it is for him to make her burn. In Victorian England gossip is often as precious as gold. But the Highlanders are a more mysterious bunch and if anyone found out what Stephen MacAlasdair really was he'd be hunted down, murdered, his clan wiped out. As he's called to London on business he'll have to be extra vigilant especially between sunset and the appearance of the first evening star. Mina just wanted to find out more about the arrogant man who showed up in her employer's office. She never thought the stranger would turn into a dragon right in front of her. Or that he'd then offer her an outrageous sum of money to serve as his personal secretary. Working together night and day to track a twisted monster Mina will come to see a man in love is more powerful and determined than any dragon. The Power of
