Secret Trades Porous Borders Smuggling And States Along The Southeast Asian Frontier 1865 1915:

Secret Trades, Porous Borders Eric Tagliacozzo, Professor Eric Tagliacozzo, 2005 Over the course of the half century from 1865 to 1915 the British and Dutch delineated colonial spheres in the process creating new frontiers This book analyzes the development of these frontiers in Insular Southeast Asia as well as the accompanying smuggling activities of the opium traders currency runners and human traffickers who pierced such newly drawn borders with growing success The book presents a history of the evolution of this 3000 km frontier and then inquires into the smuggling of contraband who smuggled and why what routes were favored and how effectively the British and Dutch were able to enforce their economic moral and political will Examining the history of states and smugglers playing off one another within a hidden but powerful economy of forbidden cargoes the book also offers new insights into the modern political economies of Southeast Asia Knowing

Southeast Asian Subjects Laurie Jo Sears, 2007 The essays in Knowing Southeast Asian Subjects ask how the rising preponderance of scholarship from Southeast Asia is de centering Southeast Asian studies in the United States The contributions address recent transformations within the field and new directions for research pedagogy and institutional cooperation Smuggling Alan L. Karras, 2010 Exploring the history of smuggling around the world Alan L Karras traces all aspects of this pervasive and enduring crime Through a compelling set of cases drawn from a rich array of historical and contemporary sources Karras shows how smuggling of every conceivable good h Land Derek Hall, 2013-04-03 Land is one of the world s most emotionally resonant resources and control over it is fundamental to almost all human activity From the local level to the global we are often in conflict over the ground beneath our feet But because human relationships to land are so complex it can be difficult to think them through in a unified way This path breaking book aims to change that by combining insights from multiple disciplines to develop a framework for understanding the geopolitics of land today Struggles over land argues Derek Hall relate to three basic principles its role as territory its status as property and the ways in which its use is regulated This timely introduction explores key dimensions of these themes including inter state wars over territory the efforts of non governmental organizations to protect property rights and environments in the global South and the land grabs attempted by contemporary corporations and governments Drawing on a wide range of cases and examples from the Afghanistan Pakistan border to the Canadian Arctic China s urban fringe to rural Honduras the book provides new ways of thinking about the political dynamics of land in the 21st century This richly detailed and authoritative guide will be of interest to students across the social sciences as well as anyone interested in current affairs and contemporary geopolitics

The Punjab Borderland Ilyas Chattha, 2022-06-16 Offers insights into how the new international boundary between India and Pakistan was made subverted and transformed Between Frontiers Noboru Ishikawa, 2010-03-15 A staple of postwar academic writing nationalism is a contentious and often unanalyzed abstraction It is generally treated as something imagined fashioned and disseminated as an idea located in the mind in printed matter on maps in symbols such as flags and anthems and in collective memory Between Frontiers restores the nation to the social field from which it has been abstracted by looking at how the concept shapes the existence of people in border zones where they live between nations Noboru Ishikawa grounds his discussion of border zones in materials gathered during two years of archival research and fieldwork relating to the boundary that separates Malaysian from Indonesian territory in western Borneo His book considers how the state maintains its national space and how people strategically situate themselves by their community nation and ethnic group designated as national territory Examining these issues in the context of concrete circumstances where a village boundary coincides with a national border allows him to delineate the dialectical relationship between nation state and borderland society both as history and as process Scholars across the humanities and social sciences will learn from this masterful linking of history and ethnography and of macro and micro perspectives Religion and Trade Francesca Trivellato, Leor Halevi, Cátia Antunes, 2014 This vibrant collected volume considers the question how exactly did the relationship between trade and religion develop historically Examining a wide range of commercial exchanges across religious boundaries around the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic and Indian Oceans during the second millennium it offers a variety of perspectives on this intriguing and surprisingly neglected subject Chinese Sojourners in Wartime Raj, 1942-45 Cao Yin, 2022 This book is about how the activities of the Chinese sojourners in wartime India caused great concerns to the British colonial regime and the Chinese Nationalist government alike and how these sojourners responded to the surveillance discipline and check imposed by the governments A Maritime Vietnam Tana Li, 2024-02-01 Despite its 3 000 kilometre coastline few people see Vietnam as a maritime country Here Li Tana presents a powerful new argument about Vietnamese history that key political changes resulted from the impact economic and otherwise of the sea This is a finely layered account covering the two millennia before colonisation that radically restructures how we understand the role of the maritime and trans regional in Vietnam s early history Drawing on exhaustive research of Chinese Vietnamese and Japanese sources Li reveals that it is only when viewed against the background of the sea that Vietnam s past can be properly understood In contrast to traditional perceptions of an inward looking society dominated by Chinese cultural influence Vietnam was shaped by dynamic littoral economic and cultural contact Arming the Periphery E. Chew, 2012-06-12 A major historical study of the global arms trade revolving around the transfer of small arms from metropolitan Europe to the turbulent frontiers of Indian Ocean societies during the long nineteenth century c 1780 1914 Critical Readings on Global Slavery Damian Alan Pargas, Felicia Roşu, 2017-12-05 The study of slavery has grown strongly in recent years as scholars working in several disciplines have cultivated broader perspectives on enslavement in a wide variety of contexts and settings Critical Readings on Global Slavery offers students and researchers a rich collection of previously published works by some of the most preeminent scholars in the field With contributions covering various regions and time periods this anthology encourages readers to view slave systems across time and space as both ubiquitous and interconnected and introduces those who are interested in the study of human bondage to some of the most important and widely cited works in slavery studies

China's War on Smuggling Philip Thai,2018-06-12

Smuggling along the Chinese coast has been a thorn in the side of many regimes From opium and weapons concealed aboard foreign steamships in the Qing dynasty to nylon stockings and wristwatches trafficked in the People s Republic contests between state and smuggler have exerted a surprising but crucial influence on the political economy of modern China Seeking to consolidate domestic authority and confront foreign challenges states introduced tighter regulations higher taxes and harsher enforcement These interventions sparked widespread defiance triggering further coercive measures Smuggling simultaneously threatened the state s power while inviting repression that strengthened its authority Philip Thai chronicles the vicissitudes of smuggling in modern China its practice suppression and significance to demonstrate the intimate link between illicit coastal trade and the amplification of state power China s War on Smuggling shows that the fight against smuggling was not a simple law enforcement problem but rather an impetus to centralize authority and expand economic controls. The smuggling epidemic gave Chinese states pretext to define legal and illegal behavior and the resulting constraints on consumption and movement remade everyday life for individuals, merchants and communities. Drawing from varied sources such as legal cases, customs records and popular press reports and including diverse perspectives from political leaders, frontline enforcers, organized traffickers and petty runners, Thai uncovers how different regimes policed maritime trade and the unintended consequences their campaigns unleashed. China's War on Smuggling traces how defiance and repression redefined state power, offering new insights into modern Chinese social, legal and economic history.

Borderlands in World History, 1700-1914 P. Readman, C. Radding, C. Bryant, 2014-05-20. Covering two hundred years, this groundbreaking book brings together essays on borderlands by leading experts in the modern history of the Americas, Europe, Africa, Asia and Australia to offer the first historical study of borderlands with a global reach. Singapore - Two Hundred Years of the Lion City Anthony Webster, Nicholas White, 2019-10-29. Two hundred years after Singapore's foundation by Stamford Raffles in 1819, this book reflects on the historical development of the city, putting forward much new research and new thinking. It discusses Singapore's emergence as a regional economic hub, explores its strategic importance and considers its place in the development of the British Empire. Subjects covered include the city's initial role as a strategic centre to limit the resurgence of Dutch power in Southeast Asia after the Napoleonic Wars, the impact of the Japanese occupation and the reasons for Singapore's exit from the Malaysian Federation in 1965. The book concludes by examining how Singapore's history is commemorated at present, reinforcing the image of the city as prosperous, peaceful and forward looking, and draws out the lessons which history can provide concerning the city's likely future development. Recentring Asia Jacob Edmond, Henry Johnson, Jacqueline Leckie, 2011-07-27. These essays argue that recentring Asia necessitates a revision, not only of notions of Asia but also of the centre itself. On the one hand, recentring Asia asserts the centrality of overlooked Asian histories, encounters and identities to world history, culture and geopolitics. On the other hand, recentring provides a way to address and rethink the concept of the centre, a term critical to Asian Studies area studies and more broadly to the study of globalization, postcolonialism, diaspora, modernism and modernity. Drawing on new approaches in these fields, Recentring Asia asks the reader to rethink the centre not as a single site towards which all is oriented, but as a zone of encounter, exchange and contestation.
