African Heritage Challenges Britt Baillie, Marie Louise Stig Sørensen, 2020-11-27. The richness of Africa's heritage at times stands in stark contrast to the economic, health, political, and societal challenges faced. Development is essential, but in what forms? For whom? Following whose agendas? At what costs? This book explores how heritage can promote secure or undermine sustainable development, with special focus on sub-Saharan Africa and, in turn, how this affects conceptions of heritage. The chapters in this volume identify shared challenges, good practices, and failures.

and use specific case studies to provide detailed insights into varied forms of heritage and heritage defining processes on the continent. By critically analysing the often romanticised discourses of heritage, community engagement and sustainable development, the volume suggests ways of harnessing aspects of heritage to tackle some of the socio-economic and political pressures facing heritage practices on the continent, including the legacies of colonialism.

The Old Man and the Sand Eel Will Millard, 2018-03-01 A wonderfully fluent account of how the strange magic of water and the beings that inhabit it can enchant and intoxicate. Chris Yates Growing up on the Cambridgeshire Fens Will Millard never felt more at home than when he was out with his granddad on the riverbank whiling away the day catching fish. As he grew older his competitive urge to catch more and bigger fish led him away from that natural connection between him, his grandfather and the rivers of his home. That is until the fateful day he let a record-breaking sand eel slip through his fingers and he knew that he had lost the magic of those days down by the river and that something had to change. The Old Man and the Sand Eel is at its heart the story of three generations of men trying to figure out what it is to be a man, a father and a fisherman. It plots Will's scaly stepping stones back to his childhood innocence when anything was possible and the wild was everywhere. Will Millard is a master wordsmith and his first book is a joyful testament to that. Isabelle Broom Heat Will Millard writes with a genuine sense of humility, humour and reflection. Kevin Parr Countryfile Delightful and informative, beautifully drawn. The Old Man and the Sand Eel will be enjoyed by anyone who loves the challenge and mystery of baiting a hook and plopping it into the water. Spectator This is post-modern nature writing that embraces beauty where it finds it and marvels at nature's tenacity. But there's more here than just fish. This is also a book about growing up, about how to retain a connection with those who raised you while forging your own identity, what to keep and what to discard. And it's about men. The strong surges of emotion that both draw them together and keep them apart and the shared pastimes which recognise that intimacy and meaning aren't always accompanied by words. Olivia Edward Geographical Narratives of Greater Mexico Héctor Calderón, 2004 Once relegated to the borders of literature, neither Mexican nor truly American, Chicana/o writers have always been in the vanguard of change, articulating the multicultural ethnicities, shifting identities, border realities and even postmodern anxieties and hostilities that already characterize the twenty-first century. Indeed, it is Chicana/o writers very in-between-ness that makes them authentic spokespersons for an America that is becoming increasingly Mexican, Latin American and for a Mexico that is ever more Americanized. In this pioneering study, Hector Calderon looks at seven Chicana and Chicano writers whose narratives constitute what he terms an American Mexican literature. Drawing on the concept of Greater Mexican culture first articulated by Americo Paredes, Calderon explores how the works of Paredes, Rudolfo Anaya, Tomás Rivera, Oscar Zeta Acosta, Cherríe Moraga, Rolando Hinojosa and Sandra Cisneros derive from Mexican literary traditions and genres that reach all the way back to the colonial era. His readings cover a wide span of time, 1892-2001, from the invention of the Spanish Southwest in the nineteenth century to the América Mexicana that is currently emerging on both sides of the border. In addition to his own readings of the works Calder n also includes the writers perspectives on their place in American Mexican literature through excerpts from their personal papers and interviews correspondence and e mail exchanges he conducted with most of them On Fishing At Sea Christopher Yates,2010-02-04 Though most of my life seems to have been spent on the banks of lakes and rivers I have always been drawn to the sea Through twenty two casts Britain s best known freshwater fisherman quits land in favour of the sea There he discovers the many pleasures of the coast wild shores unpredictable waves the violent collision of the elements and of course fish that glisten and dart beneath a never still surface From childhood remembrances of saltwater escapades to more recent discoveries Chris Yates brings the sea and its many wonders to scintillating life Nineteen Eighty-Four George Orwell,2013-02-07 This is the essential edition of the essential book of modern times 1984 now annotated for students with an introduction by D J Taylor Ever since its publication in 1948 George Orwell s terrifying vision of a totalitarian regime where Big Brother controls its citizens like a boot stamping on a human face has become a touchstone for human freedom and one of the most widely read books in the world In this new annotated edition Orwell s biographer D J Taylor elucidates the full meaning of this timeless satire explaining contemporary references in the novel placing it in the context of Orwell s life elaborating on his extraordinary use of language and explaining the terms such as Newspeak Doublethink and Room 101 that have become familiar phrases today A Breath from Elsewhere Mirabel Osler,2012-10-01 Mirabel Osler attempts in this work to take the reader beyond her own garden offering encouragement to all gardeners especially novices to ignore books and try whatever appeals to them The Art of Angling, Or Complete Fly-fisher Charles Bowlker,1810
