Interrogatio Iohannis (The Secret Book of the Cathars) and Apokryphon Iohannis (The Secret Book of John) M.P. Steiner, 2020-02-18 Modern text research shows that biblical tradition often does not at all correspond to real historical events This lessens neither the inner significance of the Bible nor of true Christendom for true Christendom is more than just a religion It is the spiritual Sphere of Life that embraces all Worlds with all their Mysteries Some results of modern research as collected and presented here in a dense form clearly contradict canonical narratives and might provoke different reactions from condescending shaking of heads to apalled outcries But neither will diminish their validity After 2000 years of nominal Christianity it is now time to animate truly spiritual Christendom This new Christendom is on one side a renewal of the classical antique Mysteries with the Christ Jesus as the last and greatest Avatar of the Sun Spirit descended to Earth as the Redeemer of the World and on the other a complete renewal of religious thinking and feeling of humans everyone now being summoned to realize their potential microcosmical Cristos in today s spiritual freedom with its world wide new paradigmata The two texts published here in best possible accuracy are especially important because combined with a deeply founded introduction they at last publicly present the world of faith of the true Arch Christians of the first centuries and their comprehension of events from Bethlehem to Golgotha Based on said insights the book here in hand undertakes to define a new Christendom for a new Era A Christendom that must not just be believed in sheepish obedience but lived out of mature consciousness and in a daily effort of every single human Its purpose is to encourage a large number of people to experience this new Light Truth and Life Numerous book references many in part extensive notes and a number of full page images show the credibility of the new view and enlarge the usual dogmatic picture A book that read in a leisurly pace and with open soul and heart may bring about new clarity and a new vivid faith for the old message German edition Same title ISBN 9783907103050

The Lost Teachings of the Cathars Andrew Phillip Smith, 2015-11-24 A deep dive into the history culture and legacy of the medieval Christian dualist movement Catharism as seen in popular novels by Dan Brown and Kate Mosse Centuries after the brutal slaughter of the Cathars by papally endorsed Northern French forces and their suppression by the Inquisition the medieval Cathars continue to exert a powerful influence on both popular culture and spiritual seekers Yet few people know anything of the beliefs of the Cathars beyond vague notions that they believed in reincarnation were vegetarians were somehow Gnostic and had some relation to Mary Magdalene The Lost Teachings of the Cathars explores the history of this Christian dualist movement between the twelfth and fourteenth centuries offering a sympathetic yet critical examination of its beliefs and practices In addition to investigating the Cathars origin their relationship to Gnosticism and their possible survival of the Inquisition author Andrew Philip Smith also addresses theories and figures from the Cathars recent past Eccentric esotericists initiated a neo Cathar revival in the Languedoc which inspired the philosopher Simone Weil The German Otto Rahn the real life Indiana Jones believed that the Cathars were protectors of the Holy Grail and received support from Heinrich Himmler Meanwhile English psychiatrist Arthur Guirdham became convinced that he and a circle of patients had all been Cathars in previous lives Tourists flock to the Languedoc to visit Cathar country Bestsellers such as Kate Mosse timeslip novel Labyrinth continue to fascinate readers But what did the Cathars really believe and practice

Secret Confession-Vol.2-in the Eastern Orthodox Church Alexander Ivanovich Almazov, Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> In Russian ecclesiastical practical literature there are no studies deliberately devoted to the question of the history of secret confession True in recent times we have received separate publications that are closely and even directly in contact with this subject but all of them are due not to a deliberate undertaking but to the call of incidental circumstances Meanwhile in the sphere of the history of church institutions in general the history of secret confession in any case is a question full of deep interest We think that the publication of the work now proposed is sufficiently justified by both It is not our intention to present a comprehensive history of confession bypassing its internal dogmatic side we deal only with the external side i e we offer a historical review of the charter of confession and church civil resolutions related to confession Thus the present work is actually a ritual canonical study The connection here of two points of view on the subject is motivated both by a complete presentation of the external side of the confession and by the peculiarity of the sources for studying its history Speaking of the latter we understand the well known fact that the canonical and liturgical monuments for the history of confession in the Orthodox Eastern Church from time immemorial and until very recently have always been in an inseparable genetic connection Setting our task as a review of the actual external historical fate of confession we then deal with this subject mainly on the basis of handwritten sources This is equally applicable to both the ritual and the canonical element in our study In accordance with such a predominant nature of the sources of the proposed work the latter embraces in the history of confession the period proper from the tenth to the sixteenth century Nevertheless bearing in mind that a clear idea of the subject of our study in the period from the X century is possible only if it is presented for the previous time and that in some particular questions relating to the external historical fate of confession there must certainly be data delivered from the ancient period of the Church we found it necessary to touch somewhat on the history of confession and in the period before 10th century In view of this to all our research we preface in the sense of introductory a brief outline of the external historical fate of confession before the 10th century Similarly in particular questions regarding confession discussed in the proposed work we consider it necessary to communicate with information on them that remained from the time before the 10th century On the other hand bearing in mind the indisputable fact that handwritten sources in the practice of confession throughout the Orthodox East did not lose their significance even with the release of printed official church practical publications on the subject of confession and did not lose until the very latest time we found it necessary to present in our study the information supplied by the publications just mentioned from the original ones to the modern ones In accordance with both this edition offers an experience of the history of secret confession from the side outlined by us for the entire time of its existence and only the main preference is given to information delivered in this case by handwritten monuments Exploring the ritual side of the subject we took the latter in the widest possible volume In accordance with this in addition to the history of the charter of making confession proper we found it obligatory for ourselves to present historical sketches and all those charters and ritual elements that are either only in close connection with confession or owe its origin In parallel with this and in a canonical sense we have set ourselves the task of investigating as far as possible the full cycle of questions related to this Reviewing the subject of research within such limits prompted us to touch upon an abundance of private questions that are in contact with confession All this led us to the publication of the work which in view of its volume we are compelled to divide into two books while publishing separate appendices to one and the other of them The first of these books is devoted to reviewing the general statute of confession the second one introduces special statutes and individual elements of prayer related to confession as well as ecclesiastical and civil regulations regarding the object and subject of confession The handwritten documents that served as sources for our work with the exception of three or four are neither in our country nor in Western literature they have not yet been published 1 In view of this we had to get acquainted with them in Greek and Slavic Russian originals Taking into account the large number of such documents and in particular their remarkable diversity we were forced in order to properly elucidate the subject we have touched upon to get acquainted with the manuscripts as widely as possible The latter was achieved to some extent by us since we had the opportunity to study the handwritten codices related to our subject in the most important Russian libraries in three Western European and three in Eastern Europe In the present book as is made clear in the preliminary remarks to Volume I reviews are offered on the one hand of special statutes and separate prayer elements and on the other of ecclesiastical and civil decrees related to confession In the first respect we report here information about the charters of confession in exceptional cases about special charters that only come into contact with confession and finally about individual prayers which were often included in the content of general confessional charters but in general were placed separately in manuscript monuments when designating them as prayers associated with confession In the second respect our study introduces in this book the ecclesiastical civil decrees directed only to the object of confession taken in relation to the latter in all positions that may be here

The Cathars Malcolm Barber, 2017-10-03 In the second half of the twelfth century the Catholic Church became convinced that dualist heresy was taking root within Christian society and that it was particularly strong in southern France The nature and extent of this heresy and the reaction of the Church to the perceived threat have been the focus of extensive research since the mid nineteenth century research which has become especially intense in the last decade Malcolm Barber s second edition of The Cathars which first appeared in 2000 brings readers up to date with the challenges to previous conclusions of recent scholarship At the same time the wider implications of the subject remain relevant most importantly the fundamental questions raised by the belief in the existence of evil the ethical problems presented by the use of coercion to suppress forms of dissent believed to threaten the social and religious fabric and the distortion of the past to underpin present day policies
